The Charter of Incorporation of The Gulf Coast Realty Company.

Section 1. Be it known by this act of incorporation, that H. M. Daniel and W.W.Baucum, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate under the name and style of"The Gulf Coast Realty Company," which corporation shall have and enjoy succession for the full term of fifty years, and under its corporate name, may sue and be sued,and shall have and enjoy all and singular rights, privileges and immunities granted to like corporations under and by virtue of chapter (25) of the revised code of 1892.

Section 2. The domicile of said corporation is hereby fixed at Gulfport, Harrison County, Mississippi.

Section 3. The purposes for which this corporation is formed, are declared to be the purchase of real estate, the planting, cultivating, leaseing and sale thereof, as well as the general improvement thereof, including the building and operating of street railways, factories and manufactories.

Section 4. The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at ten thousand dollars, (10,000.00) divided into 1,000 shares of ten dollars, ($10.00) each.

Section 5. The number of directors of the company shall be fixed from time to time by the by-laws, and the by-laws may prescribe the number of directors necessary to constitute a quorum of the board of directors.

Section 6. In order to carry out the purpose for which this corporation is formed, it shall have the right to purchase, own and hold real estate, not to exceed in value the amount allowed by law, to sell, convey, lease, cultivate and plant the same, also the right to improve the same generally, including the right to build and operate street railways, factories, mills or manufactories. The enumeration of any rights and privileges of this corporation shall not be understood or taken as a waiver or exclusion of other rights and privileges, which it may rightfully enjoy under and by virtue of chapter twenty-five (25)of the revised code of Mississippi of 1892 and secured to this corporation by section one, (1) thereof.

Section 7. The annual election of directors shall be held at the office of the company on the first monday of July of each year, of which election ten days prior notice shall be given to the stock-holders by written communication by the secretary to each stockholder.

Section 8. All elections shall be by ballot, and all vacancies occurring in the board of directors either by death or resignations or otherwise, shall be filled by the remaining directors by the election from the stockholders of a person having the necessary qualifications to act.

Section 9. This act of incorporation may be amended, modified or changed, or the corporation dissolved by a vote of the majority of the stockholders convened for that purpose, after ten days written notice shall have been mailed to each stockholder by the secretary.

Section 10. No stock-holder of this corporation shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults thereof in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on the shares owned by him or her, nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance if any, of his stock. The organization of this corporation may be completed by the corporators or a majority of them, after the publication and approval of this charter,as required by law, by meeting at the office of this corporation in Gulfport, Harrison County, Mississippi, and by their organization as provided by law. It shall be lawful for any incorporatior to be present in person or by proxy, and in event of a failure to organize as herein provided, the organization may be called in accordance with the provisions of chapter twenty-five (25) of the revised code of Mississippi of 1892.

Amendment to the Charter of the City of Canton.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Canton, that the charter of the city of Canton be amended as follows:
The City of Canton shall be and is hereby divided into two wards as follows: Liberty Streeet, in said city, commencing at the northern boundary of the corporate limits, in the center of said street, and running south along the center of said Liberty Street, to the southern boundary of the corporate limits of said city, shall be the dividing line between the wards of said city, and all that part of the territory included within the corporate limits of said city, lying east of the center of said street shall hereafter be known and designated as the East Ward; and all that part of the territory included within the corporate limits of said city and lying west of the center of said street shall hereafter be known and designated as the West Ward of the city.

Section 2. That all residents of said city who are now qualified electorsof said city in the East Ward of said city as now established, but whom by the operation of this section will be residents of the West Ward of said city shall be qualified electors of said West Ward of said city and it shall be the duty of the registrar of the said city to duly cause books and poll book belonging to said West Ward, and the commissioners of election for said city where the registrar shall fail so to do, shall cause such change to be made at the next regular meeting to be held by them.

Section 3. The city clerk and city attorney shall neither be members of the board of Mayor and Aldermen, shall no longer be elective by the board of mayor and aldermen as now but they shall be elected by all the qualified electors of said city in the same manner and at the same time as the mayor is elected and for a term of two years. At the general election to be held in said city in December 1906, there shall, in addition to the officers already to be elected by the qualified electors, be elected a city clerk and a city attorney, whose term of office shall be co-extensive with those of the board of mayor and aldermen then elected and such an election shall be held at regular December election every two yearsthereafter. In case of vacancies the board of mayor and aldermen shall have the right to fill vacancies by appointment as other vacanciesare.

Section 4. The salary of the city clerk shall be not less than $300.00 or more than $500.00 and the salary of the city attorney shall not be less than $150.00 or more than $300.00. Said salaries to be fixed as hereinafter provided and paid monthly as other salaries are paid, and shall be fixed by the board of mayor and aldermen at their regular July meeting preceeding each general election for the next ensuing term of two years, and shall not be increased or diminished during said time, and where said board fails or refuses to fix such salaries then the minimum salary above named shall be paid.

Section 5. The board of mayor and aldermen shall require the city clerk in addition of the duties now required of him, to be the clerk of the Water and Light Board Commission, whether such commission be composed of members of the board of mayor and aldermen or citizens not members of said board of mayor and aldermen, and to attend each and every meeting of said board of mayor and aldermen and of said Water and Light Commission and said clerk shall be required to keep a complete set of books, showing the receipts and expenditures of said city including and embracing the receipts and expenditures in the conduct of the Electric Light and Water Plant, showing each item paid out and on what account, and to whom, together with reference to the number of the warrant for same. All such warrants to be allowed and drawn as other city warrants are; and he shall keep itemized accounts against each officers and employee of said city, which shall include the officers and employees of the Electric Light and Water Plant, showing each and every amount paid any such officer or employee, and on what account paid, and shall refer to the number of warrant for which same was paid; and the board of Mayor and Aldermen may refuse to allow the city clerk any salary until his books are shown to be properly kept in accordance with this section.
The clerk shall enter in bond with two or more solvent surety companies or in some company doing business in this state, to be approved by the board of mayor and aldermen, in the sum of two thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as other official bonds are.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the city attorney to advise the board of mayor and aldermen in all matters and represent the city in all civil cases in all courts of this state in which the city is interested, and to prosecute all city officials for all breach of duty and to recover of them on their bonds all forfeiture, in the name of the city, accruing under this charter.

Section 7. Warrants. The mayor shall sign all warrants drawn on the treasurer for money and require the clerk to attest the same, and to affix thereto the seal of the municipality, and to keep an accurate record thereof in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose. Provided, further, that no warrant shall be signed by the mayor or clerk in payment of any debt due by the city until the same shall have first been allowed by a written order approved by three members of said board the mayor being considered a member of said board. and it shall be the duty of the clerk in drawing said warrant to note in the face of the warrant for what purpose it is issued and by whom ordered issued and any warrant issued, signed by the clerk or the mayor without strictly complying with this section, shall be void in the hands of any party whatsoever, and the mayor and the clerk shall be personally liable on their respective bonds for any and all such warrants issued by them to the extent of the sum of money named in such warrants issued by them to the extent of sum of money named in such warrant which may be recorded in the name of the city by any person holding such warrant. That all parts of the city charter and all ordinances now in force in conflict with this amended charter be and the same is hereby repealed.

Section 8. All warrants shall be preserved for at least six years after same have been cancelled.

Section 9. That section 1 and 2 of this amended charter take effect and be in force from and after the approval by the Governor, and the remaining sections shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1st, 1907.

Executive Department, Jackson, Miss. The foregoing proposed amendment to the charter of incorporation of the City of Canton, Miss. is respectfully referred to the Hon. Atty Genl. for his advice as to the constitutionality and legality of the provisions thereof. Jackson, Miss. Mar 12 1906.

Sec. 2. The object of this club shall be to procure by all proper and feasable means, the greatest developement of Hattiesburg, and this particular section of the state of Mississippi, along commercill manufacturing , agricultural and educational lines, and to foster a supreme respect for law and order, leading to a higher standard of municipal character, through the organization of all concerned into an aggressive force.

Sec. 3. The club may adopt by-laws and do and perform all things, not inconsistent with law, which may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the purposes for which said club is hereby created, or which are proper, usual, or incident to the purposes of commercial clubs, and said club is hereby authorized and empowered to exercise all the rights, privileges and immunities, bestowed upon corporations by chapter 25, of the annotated code of 1892 of the State of Mississippi, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

Sec. 4. The domicile of said club shall be in the city of Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

Sec. 5. The general welfare of society, not individual profit, is the object for which this charter is granted, and the members are not stockholders in the general sense of the term, and no dividends or profits shall be divided among the members, but on all questions each member shall be entitled to one vote.

Sec. 6. The members of this club shall be such persons as may be elected to membership by the board of directors of the club. Any candidate receiving three black balls shall be rejected, and only such persons shall be elected as are condidered favorable to a pure and public spirited administration of Public Affairs.

Sec. 7. Life membership may be conferred upon such persons and upon such terms, and payment of such fees, as the board of directors may deem best; but no life membership may be conferred upon any person upon the payment of any sum less than $200.00.

Sec. 8. The said incorporators shall at the first meeting after the granting of this charter, elect a president, a 1st vice-president, a 2nd vice-president, a secretary and treasurer, and not less than five directors. The said officers shall be ex-officio members of the board of directors and the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person. The said officers and directors shall hold office until the first Monday in May, 1907, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The regular annual meeting of this club shall be held on the first Monday in May of each year, beginning May 1907. At such annual Meetings it shall be the duty of members of this club to elect a board of directors, the number of which shall be fixed at that particular meeting. The board of directors shall meet immediately after election and elect from their number a president, a 1st vice-president, a 2nd vice- president, a secretary and treasurer, who shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. The board of directors by a three-quarters majority vote, may remove any officer or director from office, who may be guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, or neglect of duty.

Sec. 9. The board of directors shall be the governing body of the club, and shall control, manage and conduct the financial and business affairs of the club and prescribe such rules and regulations, not in conflict with this charter and by-laws, as it may deem expedient and necessary for the government of this organization and for carrying out the object of the same, and the board of directors may fill any vacancy which may be occasioned by the death or resignation of any member thereof, or of any officer of this organization.

Section 10. When this charter shall havebeen approved by the governor of this state, and duly recorded and certified by the secretary of state, a meeting with power to organize said corporation under this charter, may be called by any one of the incorporators named herein, upon giving two days notice of the time and place thereof, or may be organized at any time and place without notice, if all the incorporators are present.

The foregoing proposed charter of incorporation is respectfully referred to the Honorable Attorney General for his advice as to the Consyitutionality and legality of the provisions thereof.

The general welfare of society, not individual profit, is the object for which this charter is granted, and the members are not stockholders in the general sense of the term, and no dividends or profits shall be divided among the members, but on all questions each member shall be entitled to one vote.

Sec. 6. The members of this club shall be such persons as may be elected to membership by the board of directors of the club. Any candidate receiving three black balls shall be rejected, and only such persons shall be elected as are condidered favorable to a pure and public spirited administration of Public Affairs.

Sec. 7. Life membership may be conferred upon such persons and upon such terms, and payment of such fees, as the board of directors may deem best; but no life membership may be conferred upon any person upon the payment of any sum less than $200.00.

Sec. 8. The said incorporators shall at the first meeting after the granting of this charter, elect a president, a 1st vice-president, a 2nd vice-president, a secretary and treasurer, and not less than five directors. The said officers shall be ex-officio members of the board of directors and the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person. The said officers and directors shall hold office until the first Monday in May, 1907, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The regular annual meeting of this club shall be held on the first Monday in May of each year, beginning May 1907. At such annual Meetings it shall be the duty of members of this club to elect a board of directors, the number of which shall be fixed at that particular meeting. The board of directors shall meet immediately after election and elect from their number a president, a 1st vice-president, a 2nd vice- president, a secretary and treasurer, who shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. The board of directors by a three-quarters majority vote, may remove any officer or director from office, who may be guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, or neglect of duty.

Sec. 9. The board of directors shall be the governing body of the club, and shall control, manage and conduct the financial and business affairs of the club and prescribe such rules and regulations, not in conflict with this charter and by-laws, as it may deem expedient and necessary for the government of this organization and for carrying out the object of the same, and the board of directors may fill any vacancy which may be occasioned by the death or resignation of any member thereof, or of any officer of this organization.

Section 10. When this charter shall havebeen approved by the governor of this state, and duly recorded and certified by the secretary of state, a meeting with power to organize said corporation under this charter, may be called by any one of the incorporators named herein, upon giving two days notice of the time and place thereof, or may be organized at any time and place without notice, if all the incorporators are present.

The foregoing proposed charter of incorporation is respectfully referred to the Honorable Attorney General for his advice as to the Consyitutionality and legality of the provisions thereof.
Jackson Miss. April 16, 1906. Jas K Vardaman, Governor.

The provisions of the foregoing proposed charter of incorporation are not violative of the Constitution or laws of the State.

Charter of Incorporation of "Arctic Ice and Coal Company."

Article 1. H. L. J. Barnes, T. B. Robinson, H. D. Jenkins, and such others as may be associated with them, their successors and assigns are hereby created a body politic and corporate under the separate name and style of "Arctic Ice and Coal Company," with all the rights, powers, privileges and liabilities incident thereto, and conferred or imposed upon such a body by chapter 25, Annotated Code of 1892, State of Mississippi, and the amendments thereof, with right of succession for a period of fifty (50) years from the date of the approval of this charter, and with domicile and principal place of business at Macon, in said State of Mississippi, and offices and plants at such other places as may be necessary for the proper conduct of its business.

Article 2. The object and purposes for which this corporation is organized are to manufacture, buy and sell ice, to construct, own, operate or control refrigerating and cold storage plants; to buy and sell coal, coke, wood or any other fuel, and eggs, butter, poultry and farm produce, and to do a general wholesale and retail business in such articles; to manufacture, bottle and sell soda water or any other carbonated non-alcoholic drink or beverage, and to manufacture, buy, or sell or deal in bottles or soda-water supplies at wholesale or retail. And to that end it may buy, own, lease and hold all or any real and personal property necessary and proper for the conduct of its business not in excess of the limit fixed by section 838 of the annotated code of Mississippi for 1892.

Article 3. Said corporation may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with within its corporate powers; may have and use a corporate seal; may borrow money, execute evidences of debt and secure the payment of the same by trust deed, mortgage or otherwise, not inconsistent with the laws of the land; may issue bonds and secure their payment in any legal manner.

Article 4. The capital stock of said company shall be fifteen thousand dollars($15,000.00), divided into one hundred and fifty (150) shares of one hundreddollars ($100.00) each; but said company may commence business as soon as four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars of said stock has been subscribed and duly paid up.

Article 5. The affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of three directors, together with the officers of said company, who, provided they are not regularly elected directors shall be ex-off directors. All directors shall be chosen from among the stockholders, and shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. Provision may be made in the by-laws for the removal of any director for incompetence or other sufficient cause.

Article 6. The officers of said company shall be a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and superintendent, but any two of said offices, except president and vice-president, if the directors shall see fit, may be filled by the same person. The duties of such officers may be prescribed by the by-laws.

Article 7. When this charter shall have been approved by the Governor, and duly recorded and certified by the Secretary of State, the subscribers for the stock of said company may meet at a time and place in the city of Macon, previously named in a notice to all such subscribers, and organize the company by electing three directors from among such incorporators, who shall immediately elect the officers named in the preceeding section.

Article 8. When thus organized the board of directors may proceed at once to sell and dispose of the stock of said company, receive pay therefor in money, or any other thing of value, and may do and all such things necessary or proper to the conduct of the business of said company.

Article 9. At all stockholders meetings of said company all voting shall be by stock, one vote to each share represented.

Article 10. The private property of the stockholders of the corporation shall not be liable for the corporate debts, beyond the amount of their unpaid subscriptions to the capital stock.
