

The Division of Medicaid is examining the details of the legislation regarding the new funding formula. The legislation reduces the amount of money that Mississippi will have to contribute to fund the costs of medical services for the Medicaid program. Since the total costs of medical services depends upon utilization it is difficult to pinpoint an exact dollar amount at this time.