Amendment to charter of Pearl and leaf Rivers Railroad Company.

The State of Mississippi,

2nd Dist. Perry County.

To the Honorable Railroad Commi sion of the state of Mississippi:--

The application of the pearl and Leaf Rivers railroad Company to change its eastern terminals, main line and corporate name.

The said Pearl and Leaf Rivers railroad company would respectfully state and show unto this Honorable body the following facts, to-wit:--

First. That it is a railroad corporation duly chartered, organized and existing under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Mis sippi, by virtue of an application, dated November 15, 1897, signed by J J Newman and others, the Governor's proclamation issued thereon November the 28th, 1897, and the statement of organization of said railroad copany, signed by the directors and sworn to by one of them, the same dated december 21st, 1897, all of which appears of record at large in the office of the Honorable secretary of State, and which record is referred to as a part hereof as often as necessary for the purposes of this application.

Second. That section "(b)" of said application is in the following words and figures towit:--

"(b)" The terminal points of the proposed railroad are Hattieburg in the county of Perry and Columbia in the County of Marion, both in the State of Mississippi.

Third. That the said Proclamation of the Governor authorized the parties named in said application "To organize a railroad corporation with the terminal points of said proposed railroad to be Hattiesburg in the County of Perry, and Columbia in the County of Marion, and that the line of the said railroad shall extend through the portions of Perry and Marion Counties, lying between said po points, in as direct a line as practicable, all in the State of Mis isippi.2"

Fourth. That on the 18th day of february, 1902, by order of this Honorable body, the Western terminal of said railroad was changed from Columbia, marion County, Mississippi, to a point on Pearl River at or near Columbia, marion County Mississippi to a point on Pearl River at or near Monticello, in the County of Lawrence, State of Mississippi, and the main line likewise changed

Fifth. That on the 5th day of January, 1903, the western terminal of said road was again chan gd changed by order of this homorable body from said point on Pearl River, to the City of Natchez in the County of Adams, State of Mississippi, and the line likewise chan ed, both of which amendments are of record in the o ffice of secretary of State.

Sixth. That said line of Railroad will soon be completed and ready for operation to Silver Creek in the county of Lawrence, State of Mississippi.

seventh. It believes and would respectfully state and show, that its interest as well as that of the public will be promoted and best subserved by changing its eastern terminal from Hattiesburg, Perry County, Mississippi, the point named in its charter, to Scranton, in the county of Jackson, State of Mississippi, and its main line changed accordingly, so as to extend from Hattiesburg, Mississippi in as direct a line as practicable through the intervening portions of the counties of Perry, Harrison and ackson in the state of Mississippi.

Wherefore the premises considered, petitioner prays that its eastern terminal be changed from hattiesburg, perry County, Mississippi, to Scranton, Jackson County, Mississippi, and that its main line be changed accordingly, so as to extend in as direct a line as practicable through the intervening portions of the said counties of perry, harrison and Jackson; and for such further relief as it may be entitled in the premises.

This day this cause coming on to be heard on the application now on file with the secretary of this commission, and upon the facts, and it appearing that the petitioner is entitled to the relief prayed for, it is therefore ordered by the Commission that the said petitioner, Pearl & Leaf Rivers railroad Company, is hereby authorized and empowered to change its eastern terminal from Hattiesburg in the county of Perry, State of Mississippi, to Scranton, in the ounty of Jackson State of Mississippi, and to extend its main line accordingly so as to traverse the most direct practicable route from said hattiesburg, Mississippi, through the intervening portions of Perry, Harrison and jackson counties in the state of Mississippi, to said Scranton Mississippi and such changes are hereby ordered.

It is further ordered that the said petitioner furnish the Honorable secretary of State with a certified copy of said application and of this order, to be by him recorded as the law provides for recording of orginal charters.

Ordered and adjudged at Jackson, Mississippi, this the 8th day of december A D 1903.

(l. S.) Jno. A Webb, Secretary.

Office of Mississippi Railroad Commission,

Jackson Mississippi.

I, John A. Webb, hereby certify that I am secretary of the Mississippi railroad Commission, and as such, the custodian of the papers, documents and official records kept in the office of said commission and pertaining to its duties and proceedings, that the above and foregoing are true, correct and faithful copies of the application of the Pearl & leaf Rivers Railroad Company for a change of its eastern terminal from hattiesburg to Scranton Mississippi, and the extension of its main line accordingly; as appears from the originals now on file in my office, and of the order of said commission granting the prayer of said application as appears from the minute book of the proceedings of said Commission, now in my official keeping as such secretary.

Given under my hand with the seal of said Commission hereto attached, at the office of the Commission in the City of Jackson, Mississippi, this 8th day of december A D 1903.

(L@ S.) Jno. A Webb, Secy. of Railroad Commission

Application for Amendment of Charter of Pearl & leaf Rivers railroad Company.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the State of Mississippi:--

The said Pearl and Leaf Rivers Railroad Company, by each and all of its stockholders, would respectfully state and show that it is a Railroad corporation under Chapter 112 of the Annotated Code of 1892 and the Acts amendatory thereof, and desiring amendment to its charter of incorporation would respectfully set forth and declare the following facts:--

(a) The names, residence and postoffice address of said stockholders, the applicants for said amendment are:-

C P Davidson,	Scranton,	Pa.
F L Peck,	Scranton,	Pa.
S B Price,	Scranton,	Pa.
A D Dean,	Scranton,	Pa.
C D Jones,	Scranton,	Pa.
C S Woolworth,	Scranton,	Pa.
I F Megargel,	Scranton	Pa.
E S Peck,	Scranton,	Pa.
F R Davidson,	Hattiesburg,	Miss.

(b) The terminal points of said Railroad as now existing are Natchez in the County of Adams State of Mississippi.

(c) The line of said Railroad as authorized to be constructed, runs from said City of Natchez via Hattiesburg, Mississippi to said Scranton Mississippi and to run in as direct line as practicable through the intervening portions of Adams, Jefferson, Franklin, Lincoln, Copiah, Lawrence, Covington, Marion, Perry, Harrison and Jackson Counties, all in the State of Mississippi, or that portion of such counties as may be traversed by the most direct, practicable route.

(d) The name by which said corporation has heretofore been known is Pearl and Leaf Rivers Railroad Company, which name it is hereby proposed to change to "Mississippi Central Railroad Company."

(e) It is hoped that said Railroad will be completed and in operation between the terminal points herein named within three years from the date of the granting of the amendment herein prayed for.

The said Pearl and Leaf Rivers railroad Company, by its stockholders as aforesaid, respectfully shows further, that it was created as a railroad corporation under the laws of the State of Mississippi and uly organized as such, agreeable to application therefor, dated November 15, 1897, signed by J J Newman and others, the Governor's Proclamation issued thereon November 28th, 1897, and statement of organization signed by the Directors and sworn to by one of them, of date December 21st 1897, all of which appears of record in the office of the Honorable secretary of State. The terminal points of said railroad as fixed by said ~~xxikxxxd~~ proclamation were Hattiesburg in the county of Perry, State of Mississippi, and Columbia in the county of Marion, State of Missi sippi; but sad said western terminal was changed by the Hon. Railroad Commission of the State of Mississippi, February 18, 1902, from said Columbia, to a point on Pearl River at or near Monticello in the County of Lawrence, State of MississIppi, and was again changed by said authority January 5th 1903, from said point on Pearl River at or near Monticello in the County of Lawrence, State of Mississippi, ~~and was again changed by said authority, January 5th 1903, from said point on Pearl River~~ to said Natchez; and the eastern terminal of said railroad was changed by said Hon. Railroad Commission december 8th, 1903, from said Hattiesburg, to said Scranton, in the state of Mississippi, so that said railroad as now existing has the terminal points and propoSes to run through the territory aforesaid; and the applications for said several changes and the orders for the said railroad commission making said changes are all of record in the office of the Honorable Secretary of State.

That said railroad has been completed and is in operation from said City of Hattiesburg to Silver Creek in the County of Lawrence, State of Mississippi, or very nearly to said Silver Creek.

That the said railroad Company believes and shows that it is to its interest and to the interest of the public to change the name of said railroad corporation from Pearl and Leaf Riv rs Railroad Company to "Mississippi Central railroad Company;" and therefore prays that its corporate style and name be changed accordingly.

Amendment to Charter of Incorporation of Chicago--Mississippi Land & Lumber Company.

Know all men by these presents that we the undersigned being the holders and owners of all the and singular the shares of the capital stock of Chicago--Mississippi Land & Lumber Company, now outstanding do by these articles amend the charter of incorporation of said company pursuant to Chapter 25 of the Code of Mississiippi for the year 1892 (as amended) the approval of the Governor of the State of Mississippi to be first had and obtained.

In lieu of Article seven of said charter which prior to the amendment thereof was in the following language:--

> "Article VII--The capital stock of said corporation shall consist of four thousand shares of the face or par value of one hundred dollars each, making the aggregate capital stock the face or par value of four hundred thousand dollars."

to substitute the following:--

Article Seven.--The capital stock of this corporation shall consist of ~~one~~ four thousand shares of the face or par value of one hundred dollars each, making the aggregate capital stock the face or par value of Four hundred thousand dollars. Fifteen hundred of said shares aggregating the face or par value of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be preferred stock, and the remaining twenty five hundred shares agggregating the face or par value of Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be common stock. The preferred stock of this company shall be entitld out of surplus net earnings to cumulative preferential dividends from the date of its issuance at the rate o of seven per centum per annum, prior to the payment of any dividends upon the common stock. The preferred stock shall not be entitled to any dividends in excess of said seven per centum and arrers thereof.

The common stock shall not receive dividends for any year unless seven per cent be first paid for t that year on the preferred stock outstanding, together with all arrears of dividends at the like rate for previous years; but when seven per cent is paid, for any year upon the preferred stock then outstanding, together with all arrears of like dividends for previous years, the residue of the net earnings for the company or so much thereof as may not be needed in the business of the company may then be distributed as dividends ratably upon the common stock of this corporation.

Upon the liquidation or dissolution or winding up of this corporation (whether voluntary or involuntary) the preferred stock shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of this company, in money or in money's worth, the face or par value of such preferred stock and all arrears of dividends thereon and no more. Thereafter the residue of the funds and assets of the company shall be divided equally among shares of the common stock of this compny. The common stock shall be subordinate to the rights of preferred stock except that each share of common stock shall hve equal voting power with each share of preferred stock."

In witness whereof we the undersigned being the holders of all the capital stock of said Chicago Mississippi Land & Lumber Company, now outstanding, have caused the foregoing amendment to be spread of record upon the records of said corporation and have hereunto subscribed our hames this 16th day of July A D 1904.

And said corporation shall have generally all such powers as are conferred by Chapter 25 of the Annotated Code of this State and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto upon similar corporations, including the power to sell and dispose of by exchange or otherwise, as well as to m rtgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any of its property, real or personal.

Art. 4. The capital stock of said corporation shall be Forty Thousand Dollars divided into four hundred shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and may be paid for in cash or in such property at its fair valuation, as the corporation may require in the course of its said business; but the said corporation may be organized and begin business as soon as ten thousand dollars of the said capital stock shall have been subscribed in good faith, subject to the call of the board of Directors. In case any subscriber shall fail to pay any one or more installments on stock subscribed when called for, the Board of Directors shall have the right to declare the stock and the installments thereon already forfeited to the company, or the company may demand and sue for said installments. No stockholder shall have the right to vote on stock upon which a default in payment of installments exists. Said stock shall be non-assessable after payment of amount subscribed.

Art. 5.All the powers of said corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors to consist of seven persons to be chosen from among the stockholders on the first Tuesday of October 1905 and annually thereafter; and the board of directors shall appoint one of their own number president; one vice president who shall be its general manager, and one secretary who shall also be treasurer; and the duties of each may be prescribed in the bylaws. All vacancies occurring in the membership of said Board shall be filled by the remaining directors. And all directors shall hold office until their successors are elected and enter upon the discharge of their duties.

Art 6. Until the first annual election hereunder the Board of Directors of said corporation shall consist of Philip Werlein, who shall also be president; Edwin M Telle, who shall be vice president and general manager, and Frank McN Gordon who shall be secretary and treasurer; Daniel Carver Bishop C Perkins, Arthur B Hunt and Frederick P Morrill, and they shall severally hold office until their successors are elected and enter upon the discharge of their duties.

Art. 7. Whenever this corporation shall be dissolved by limitation or otherwise its affairs shall be be liquidated by three commissioners, selected from the stockholders, at a general meeting convened for that purpose after thirty days notice. Said Commissioners shall remain in office until the affairs of the corporation are fully liquidated. In the event of the inability of any of the said commissioners to serve, additional commissioners shall be elected to form the full committee of three as provided above.

Art. 8. On the first Tuesday following the approval of this charter by the Governor and its recordation in the office of the Secretary of State, or as soon thereafter as may be, the above named incorporators or two of them, may meet at the domicile of the corporation without further notice and open books of subscription to the capital stock thereof, and as soon as ten thousand dollars are subscribed in good faith the corporation shall be organized and may begin business. But no irregularity or informality in organization or any proceedings thereunder shall have the effect to expose any stockholder, nor shall any stockholder ever be exposed to any liability for the debts or faults of said corporation beyond the unpaid balance that may be due upon the share or shares held by him.

The foregoing proposed charter of incorporation is respectfully referred to the Honorable Attorney General for his advice as to the constitutionality and leGality of the provisions thereof.
