The holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled to receive, when, and as declared by the Board of directors, dividends from the surplus or net profits of the corporation at the rate of seven per centum (7%) per annum and no more, payable at such date or dates and in such installments as may from time to time be fixed by said board; and such dividends shall be cumulative and shall be payable or shall be set apart before any dividends shall be paid upon or set apart for the common stock, so that if all accrued dividends shall not at any time have been paid upon or set apart for the preferred stock, such deficiency shall be fully paid or set apart, but without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or declared upon the common stock.

In event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the corporation the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled, before any assets of the corporation shall be distributed among or paid over to the holders of the common stock, to be paid in full the par amount of their shares, together with all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon; and if such liquidation be voluntary, then the holders of preferred stock shall be entitled to receive an additional amount equal to five per centum (5%) of the par value of such shares. When entitled to vote, holders of preferred stock shall have equal voting power, share for share, with holders of common stock, one vote for each share. Out of any surplus or net profits of the corporation remaining after full cumulative dividends on the out-standing preferred stock for all previous dividend periods shall have been paid, and for the current dividend period shall have been declared and paid or provided for, then, and not otherwise so long as any of the preferred stock shall remain outstanding, dividends may be declared and paid upon the common stock in such amounts and at such time as may be determined by the board of directors.

The Corporation shall have the right to treat the person in whose name any share of stock is registered as the owner thereof, for all purposes, and shall not be bound to recognize any claim of any other person thereto, except as may be provided by the laws of Mississippi; nor shall any stockholder have any preemptive or preferential right of subscription to any shares of any class of stock of the corporation, now or hereafter created, unless such right be granted by the board of directors, and then only to the extent so granted; and acceptance of certificate of stock shall constitute an agreement by the holder to all the terms and conditions of this charter.

4. The amount of authorized capital stock is $250,000.00 of seven per cent, cumulative preferred stock, the shares being of the par value of $100.00 each; and five thousand shares of common stock of no par value. The said preferred stock shall bear a dividend rate of seven per cent, per annum, which dividends are to be cumulative and shall be paid semi-annually out of the earnings of the said corporation in preference to dividends on any other stock, but this shall be the extent of the participation of the said stock in the earnings of the said corporation; and said preferred stock shall also be entitled to preference in or upon the liquidation of the corporation until the par value of the said stock with any dividends in arrears have been paid, after which the assets of the said corporation shall go to the owners and holders of the common stock. The dividends on said preferred stock shall commence to accrue thereon when the hotel to be built by the said corporation opens for business.

5. The common stock of the said corporation will have no par value and will be disposed of in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine and fix. The said common stock shall not participate in the earnings of the company until the seven percent cumulative dividend has been paid on the preferred stock; and the said common stock shall likewise not participate in the assets of the corporation upon any liquidation thereof until the holders of the preferred stock have received the par value of the said stock plus any and all dividends in arrears. Whenever the earnings of the corporation are sufficient to pay all due and past due dividends on the preferred stock, and said dividends have been paid out of such earnings, then said common stock shall be restored to the former owners thereof and thereupon the corporation shall, upon surrender of the old certificates of common stock, issue new certificates to the former owners, or their successors or assigns, for the same number of shares, or said corporation may, if it so elects, in lieu of the surrender and cancellation of the original certificates evidencing ownership of common stock, automatically cancelled as provided, provide for the restoration of the original certificates to their former status.

6. The period of existence of the said corporation shall be fifty years.

7. The purposes for which this corporation is created are to acquire land and build and erect thereon a hotel in the City of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, and to operate the same or lease the same to other parties to be operated by said parties; and for the accomplishment of the said purposes the corporation is to have the right to acquire land and erect buildings thereon and make and enter into all contracts necessary in connection therewith, and it shall have the right to operate the said hotel or to lease the same to other parties, to operate mercantile establishments, confectionery stands, restaurants and dining rooms, barber shops and such other businesses as are incident to the operation of a hotel.
