the 'MasterChef' brand around the world," celebrity Chef Gordon Ramsay, an Executive Producer of the show, said in a news release. "She is one of the most instinctive, naturally gifted home cooks I've ever come across. Her innate ability to create stunning desserts and cakes, in particular, is mind-blowing. Judges Graham (Elliot), Joe (Bastianich) and I are all thrilled for her, and we are really excited to see what happens next for the Pastry Princess"; and

WHEREAS, Miller lives at home in Poplarville with her parents, Coach John and Mary Miller, and commutes to USM for classes. She owns Glaze, a Poplarville restaurant and catering company. Her new cookbook will feature the Southern food she was raised on, but elevated and with some twists. She's calling it "Southern Hospitality with Whitney," she said, as a homage to her great-grandmother, Mary Strahan. Strahan, 95 and still cooking, taught Miller the importance of being hospitable, she said; and

WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we commend this talented young Mississippian who has brought honor to her university, her community and to her state:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That we do hereby recognize and congratulate Miss Whitney Miller of Poplarville, Mississippi, the Master Chef Grand Winner 2010 and the very first ever FOX Television Network series of "MasterChef," and extend our best wishes to Whitney and her family on this auspicious occasion and in her future culinary endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to Whitney and her family, forwarded to the President of the University of Southern Mississippi, and made available to the
