

January 20, 2003

Kathryn Anderson
Vice President, Congressional Affairs
United States Telecom Association
1401 H Street, NW
Suite 600
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Ms. Anderson:

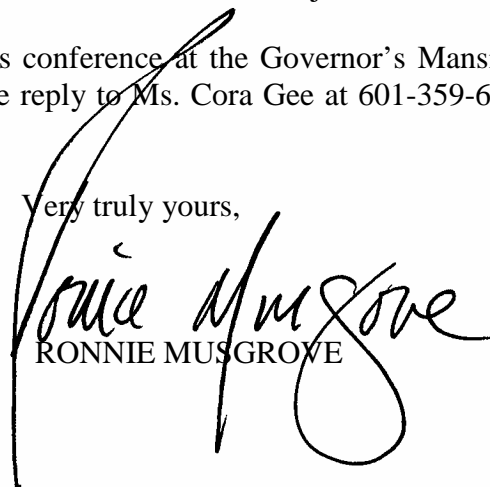

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Marc Ashley
Federal Account Manager
Anexsys
1776 I Street, NW
9th Floor
Washington, DC 20006

Dear Mr. Ashley:

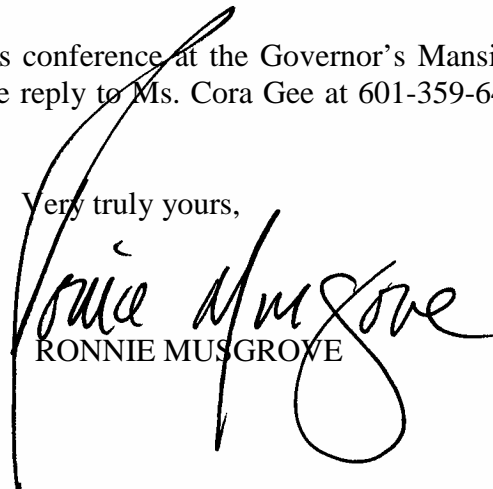

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Michael Bagley
Director Public Policy for West Area
Verizon Wireless
15505 Sand Canyon Avenue
Irvine, CA 92618

Dear Mr. Bagley:

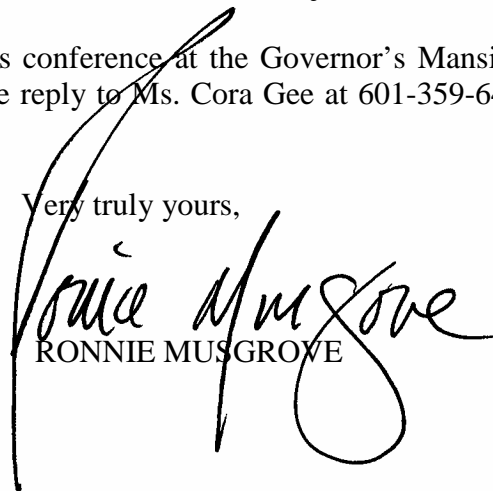

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Janell Bardole
American Management Systems, Inc.
4050 Legato Road
Fairfax, VA 22033

Dear Ms. Bardole:

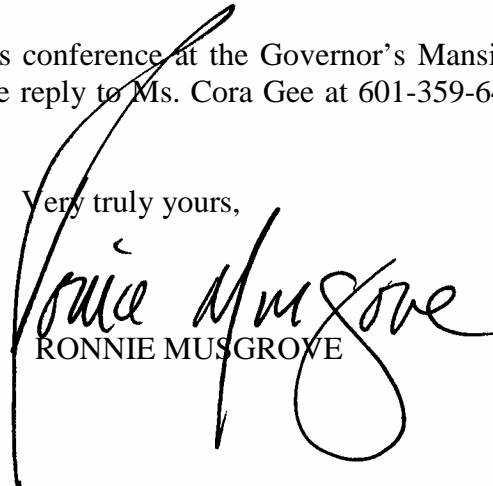

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Sano Blocker
Executive Director, State Government Affairs
Electronic Data Systems
5400 Legacy Drive
H3-6F-47
Plano, TX 75024

Dear Ms. Blocker:

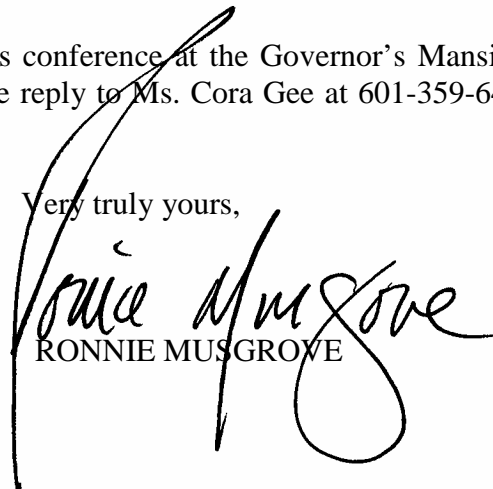

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Steve Burch
Divisional President
Comcast
8110 Corporate Drive
Baltimore, MD 21236

Dear Mr. Burch:

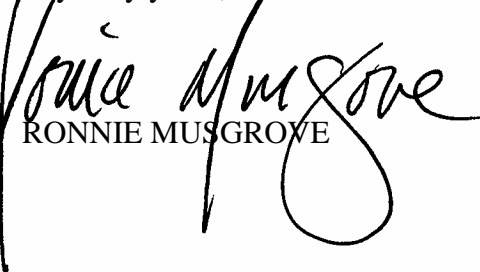

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Pam Carr
Manager, Strategic Relations Public Sector
Symantec Corporation
12030 Sunrise Valley Dr.
Suite 200
Reston, VA 20191

Dear Ms. Carr:

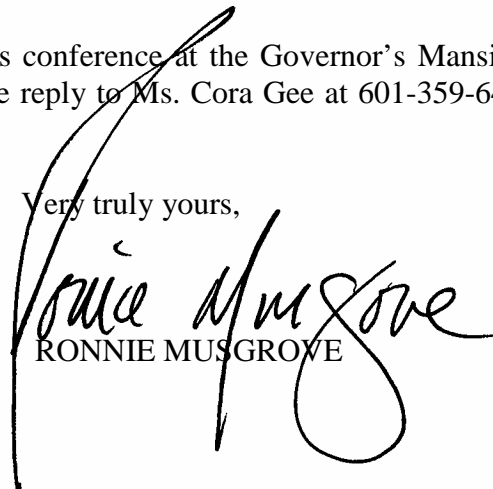

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

John Coleman
Director, Constituent Relations
ACS
1200 K Street, NW
Suite 1200
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Coleman:

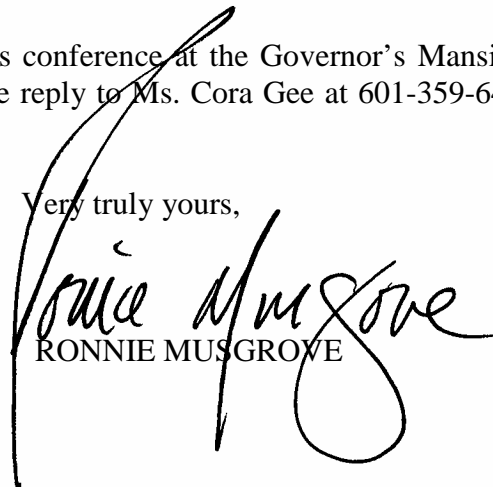

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Joseph Ercolano
Director, Government Affairs
Pitney Bowes, Inc.
One Elmcroft Road - MSC: 64-23
Stamford, CT 06926-0700

Dear Mr. Ercolano:

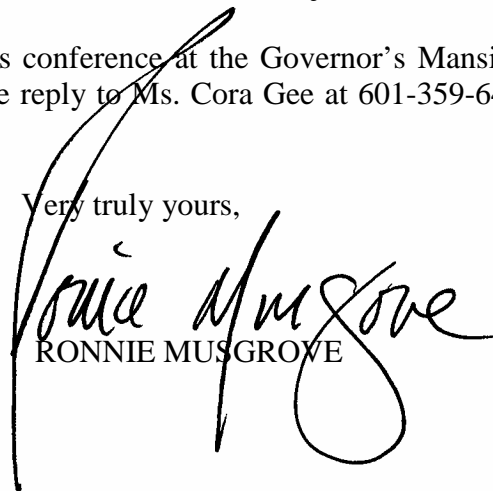

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Mark Falconer
Northwest Public Affairs Manager
Hewlett-Packard Company
11311 Chinden Boulevard
MS 465
Boise, ID 83714-0021

Dear Mr. Falconer:

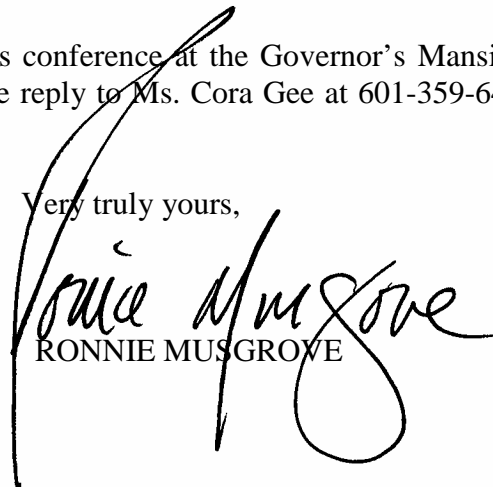

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Mike Foulkes
Manager of State & Local Govt. Affairs
Apple
1 Infinite Loop
MS: 301-46H
Cupertino, CA 95014

Dear Mr. Foulkes:

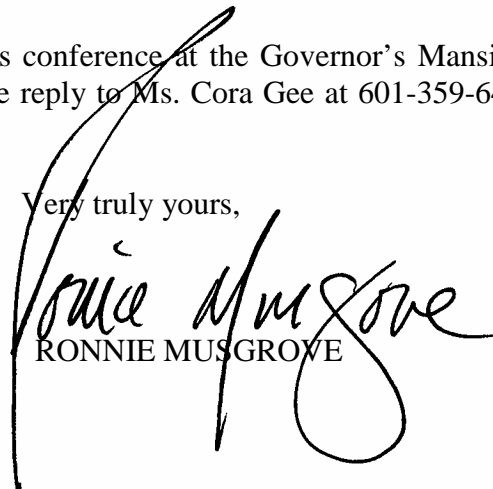

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Anna Gadbois
Director Government Affairs
American Management Systems, Inc.
4050 Legato Road
9th Floor
Fairfax, VA 22033

Dear Ms. Gadbois:

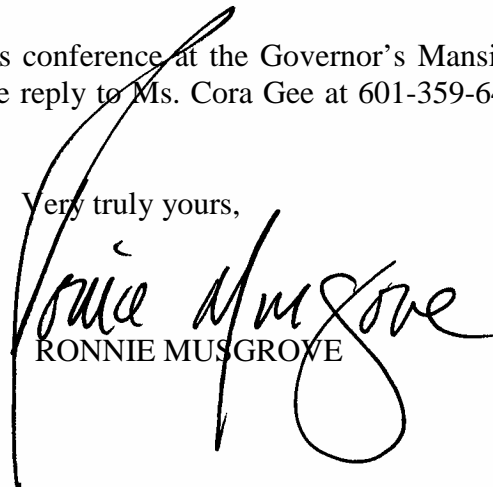

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Ken Glueck
Director of Legislative Affairs
Oracle Corporation
1667 K Street NW, Suite 640
Washington, DC 20016-1605

Dear Mr. Glueck:

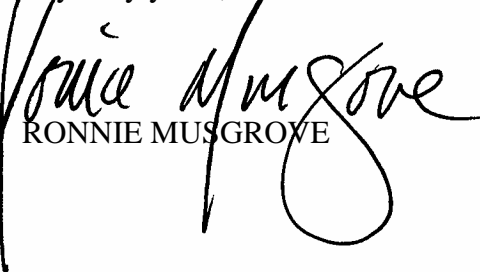

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Jodi Harris
State Government Relations Manager and Compliance Counsel
Motorola Inc
1303 East Algonquin Road
Schaumburg,, IL 60196

Dear Ms. Harris:

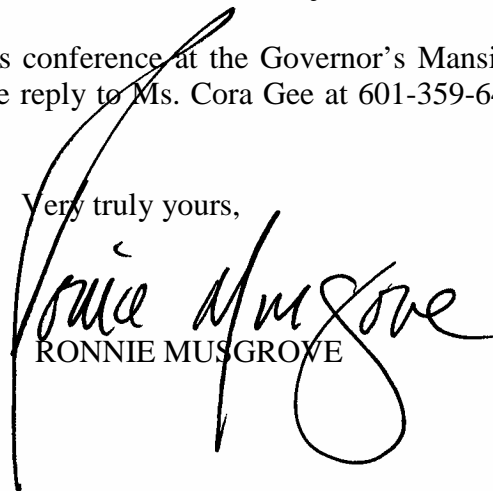

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Denise Harrold
Worldcom
6 Concourse Parkway, Suite 3200
Atlanta, GA 30328

Dear Ms. Harrold:

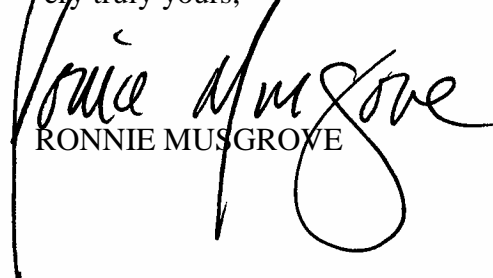

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

John Hassell
Director, Federal & State Government Affairs
Hewlett-Packard Company
900 17th Street, NW
Suite 11
Washington, DC 20006

Dear Mr. Hassell:

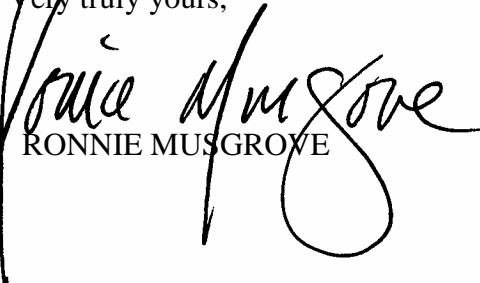

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Lauren Heller
TRW Inc.
1001 N. 19th St.
Suite 800
Arlington, VA 22209

Dear Ms. Heller:

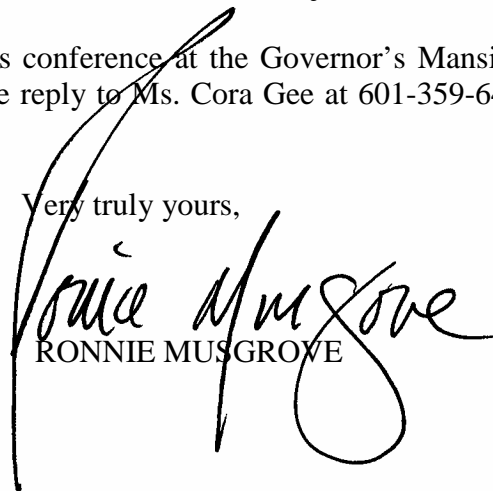

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Regina Hopper
Executive Vice President
United States Telecom Association
1401 H Street, NW
Suite 600
Washington, DC 20005-2164

Dear Ms. Hopper:

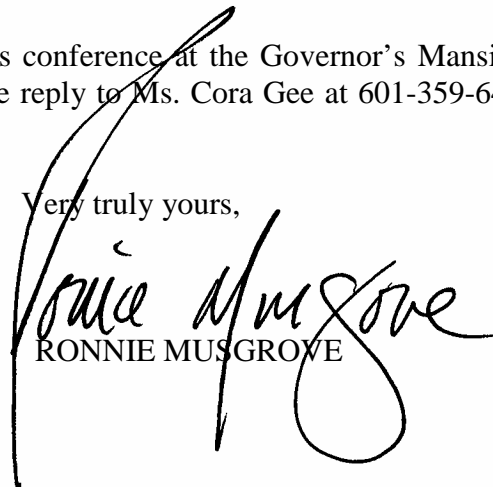

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Fred Humphries
Director, State Government Affairs
Microsoft Corporation
1 Microsoft Way
Redmond, WA 98052

Dear Mr. Humphries:

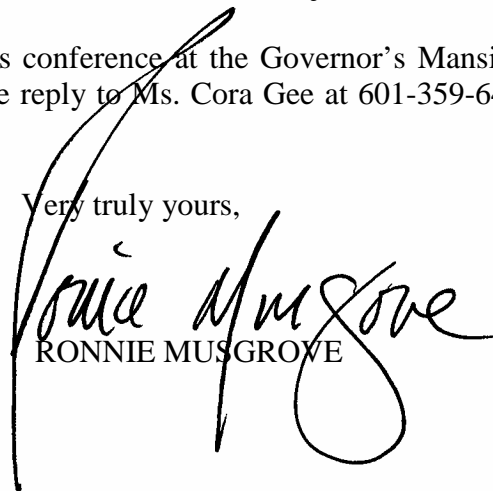

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Cathy Hutchinson-Foster
Director, Government Affairs
Apple Computer, Inc.
1 Infinite Loop
MS: 301-4CH
Cupertino, CA 95014

Dear Ms. Hutchinson-Foster:

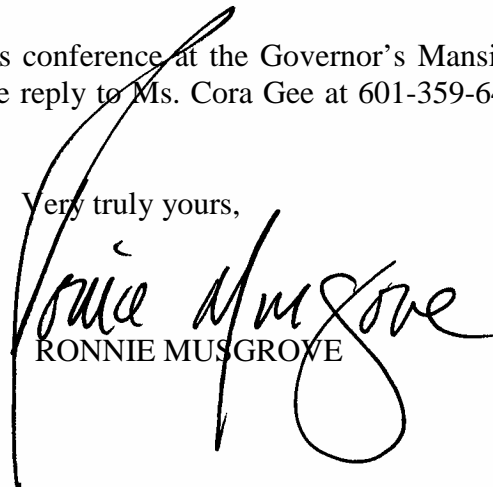

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Jeff Logan
Tyco Electronics
3901 Derry Street
Harrisburg, PA 17111

Dear Mr. Logan:

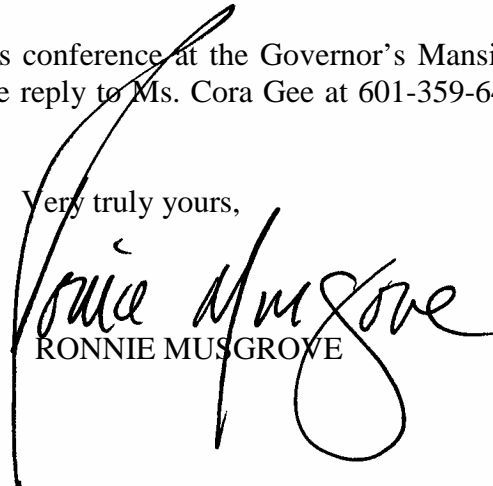

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

David London
State Gov't Affairs Representative
Cisco Systems Inc
170 W Tasman Dr
San Jose, CA 95134

Dear Mr. London:

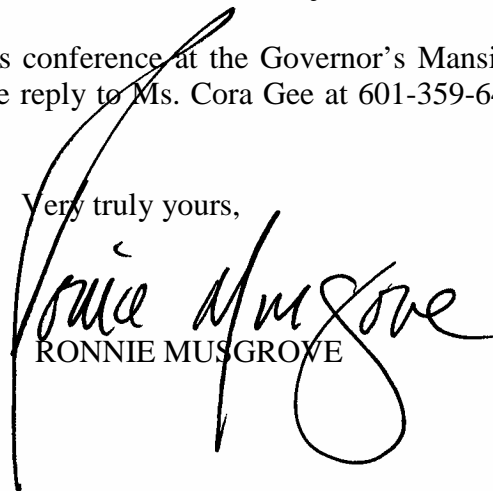

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Donald Lucas
Earth Tech, Inc.
3535 Grandview Parkway
Suite 325
Birmingham, AL 35243

Dear Mr. Lucas:

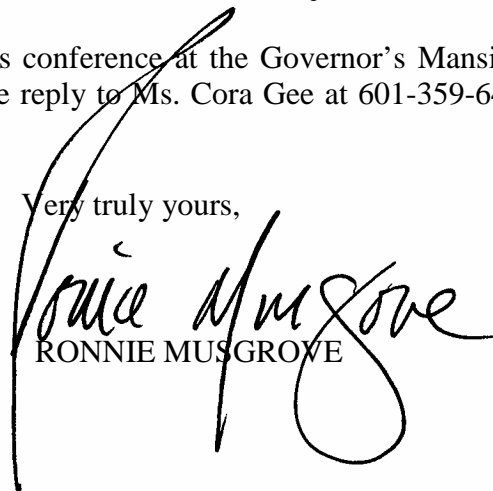

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Carey MacDonald
Executive Director, Legislative Affairs
Qwest Communications Inc
1801 California Street, Suite 4700
Denver, CO 80202

Dear Ms. MacDonald:

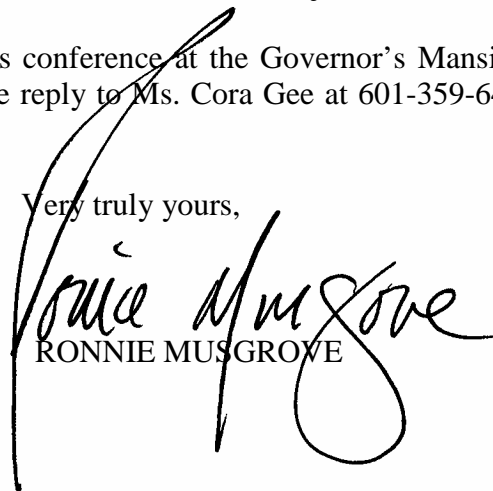

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Donald McCorquodale
Legislative Liaison
SAS
SAS Campus Drive
Cary, NC 27513

Dear Mr. McCorquodale:

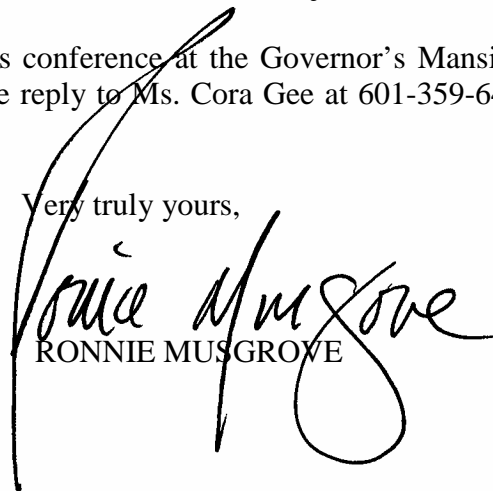

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Cindy Miller
BTC Enterprises Representative
The Inner Change Group
600 S. Court Street
Suite 435
Montgomery, AL 36104

Dear Ms. Miller:

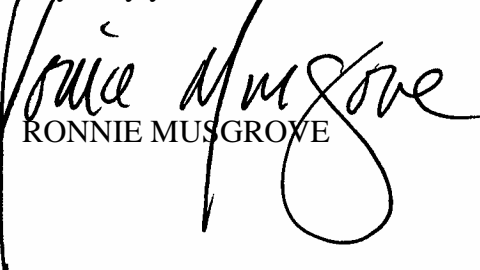

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Mike Murchison
Government Affairs
Earth Tech, Inc.
100 West Broadway
Suite 240
Long Beach, CA 90802-4443

Dear Mr. Murchison:

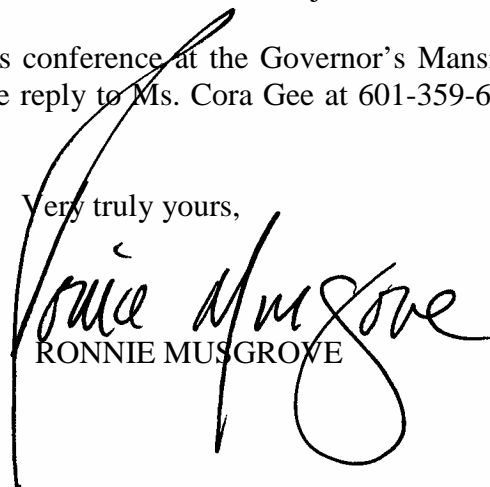

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Barry Murphy
Senior Manager, State Government Affairs
Microsoft Corporation
1 Microsoft Way Building 8 Room 2312
Redmond, WA 98052-6399

Dear Mr. Murphy:

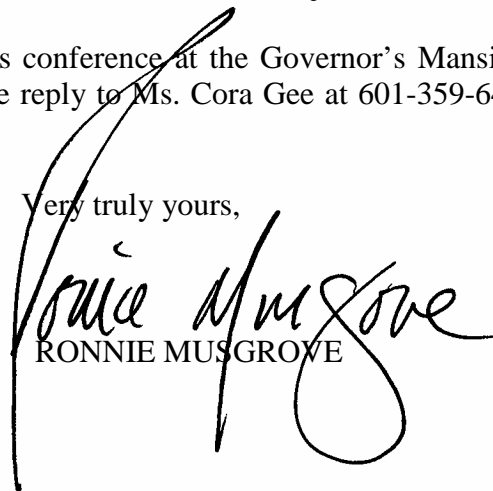

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Patricia O'Donnell
VP Sales and Marketing
Anexsys
525 West Monroe Street
Mail Code IL-0925
Chicago, IL 60670-0925

Dear Ms. O'Donnell:

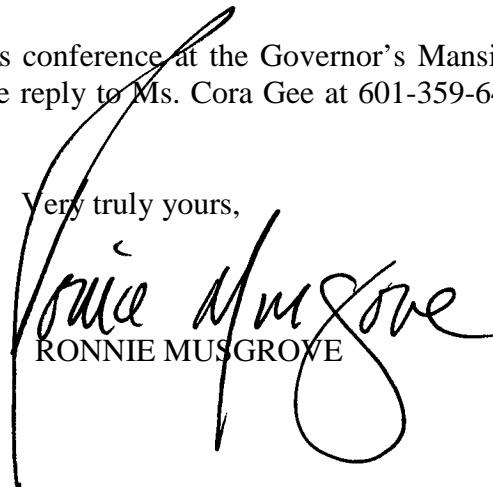

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Michelle Peacock
State Government Affairs Manager
Cisco Systems
170 W Tasman Dr
San Jose, CA 95134

Dear Ms. Peacock:

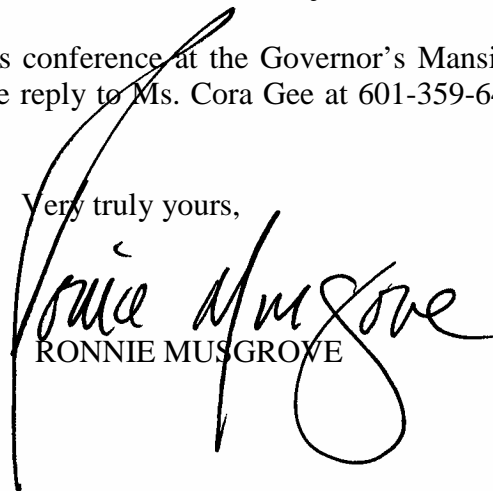

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Michael Perrick
Achievement Technologies
Two Newton Place
255 Washington Street, Suite 230
Newton, MA 02458

Dear Mr. Perrick:

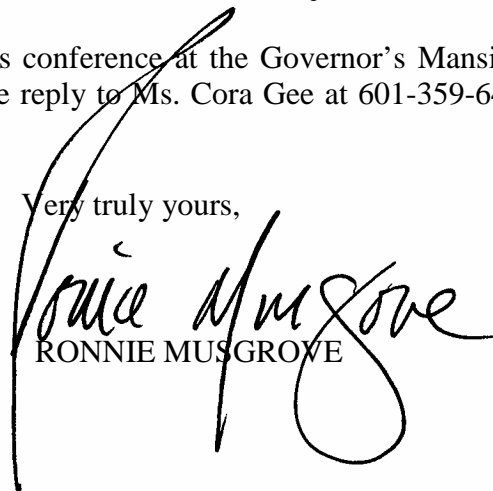

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

David Pingree
Vice President, Government Relations
Unisys Corporation
Unisys Way, M.S. B204
Blue Bell, PA 19424

Dear Mr. Pingree:

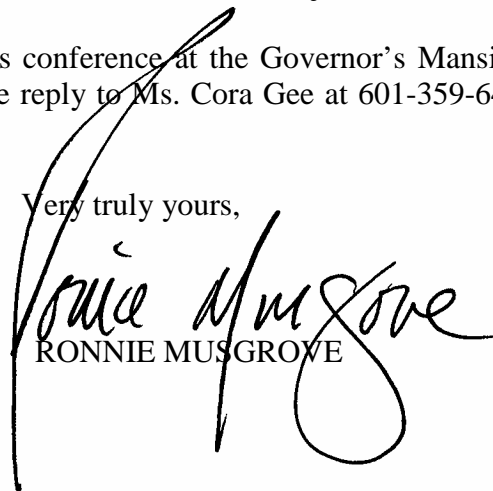

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

James Pribyl
Director, State Government Affairs
Level 3 Communications, LLC
1025 Eldorado Blvd.
Broomfield, CO 80021

Dear Mr. Pribyl:

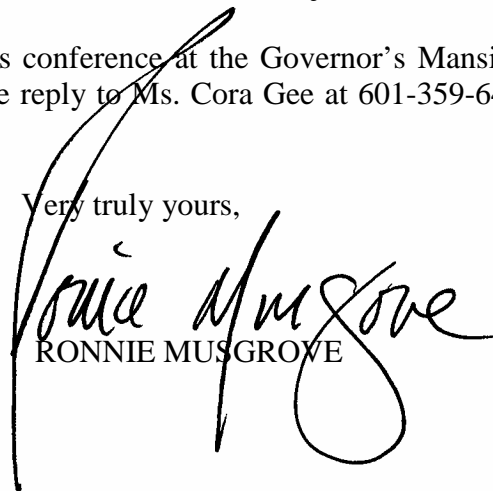

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Chris Ramsey
Vice President Market Development Division
National Information Consortium
677 East 730 South
Suite 204
American Fork, UT 84003

Dear Mr. Ramsey:

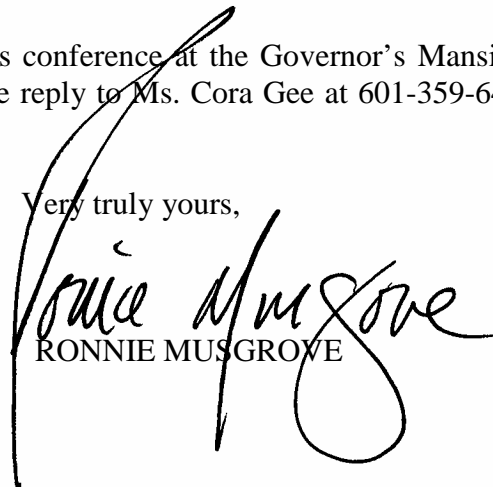

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Jim Ruda
Intuit
55 Airport Road
Dudley, MA 01571

Dear Mr. Ruda:

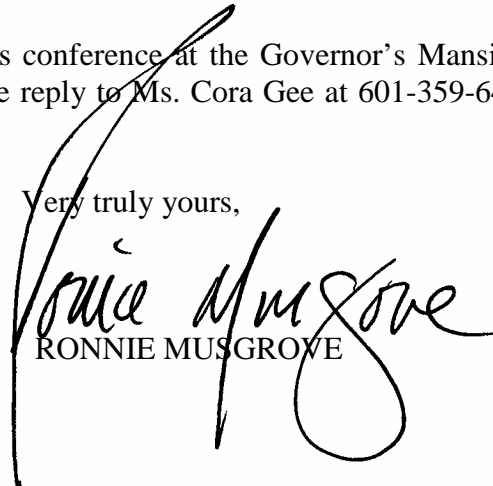

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Jonathan Sallet
Achievement Technologies
204 Ashley Drive
Centreville, MD 21617

Dear Mr. Sallet:

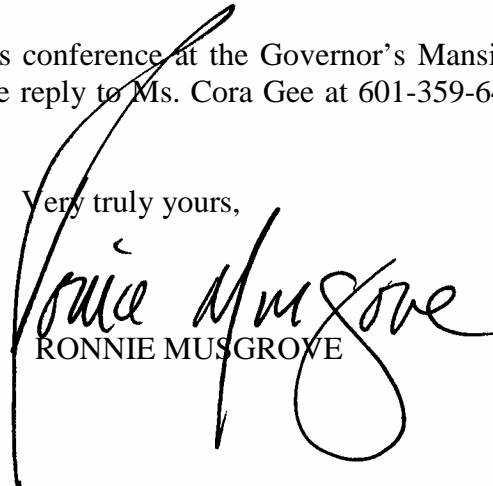

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Steve Skinner
Director
Cingular Wireless
5565 Glenridge Connector - Mail Drop 1710
Atlanta, GA 30342

Dear Mr. Skinner:

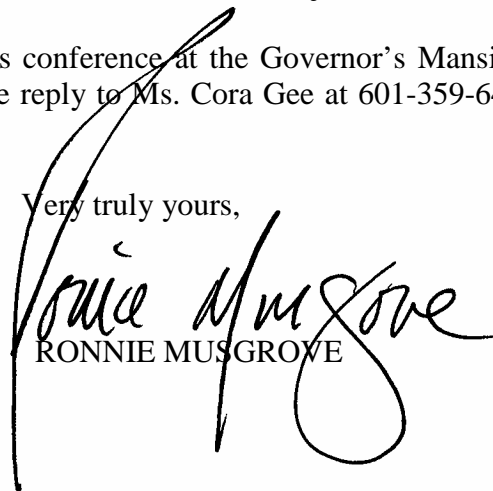

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Philip Smith
Philip C. Smith & Associates
1909 K St.
4th Floor
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mr. Smith:

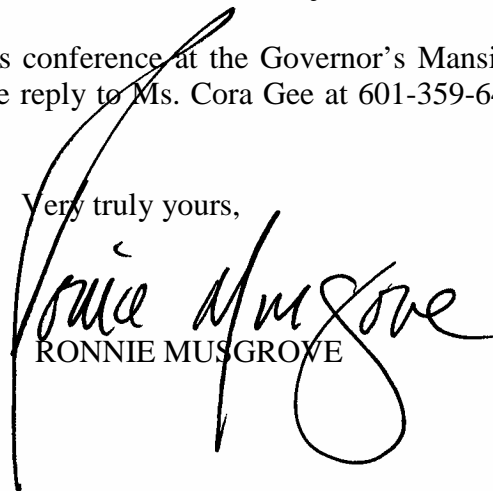

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Milford Sprecher
Business Development Manager
SAP America Public Sector Inc
1300 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 500
North Tower Grey
Washington, DC 20004

Dear Mr. Sprecher:

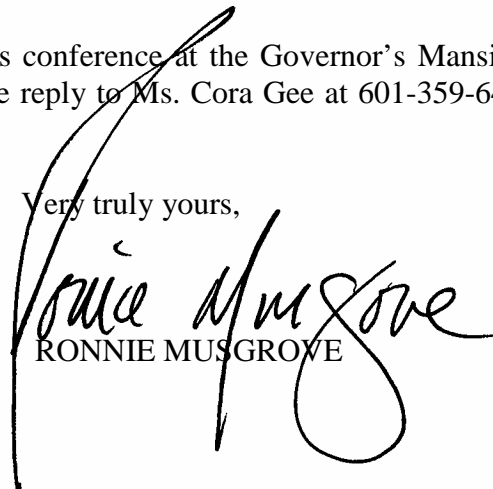

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Vencient Steckler
Vice President, Public Sector
Symantec Corporation
12030 Sunrise Valley Drive
Suite 200
Reston, VA 20191

Dear Mr. Steckler:

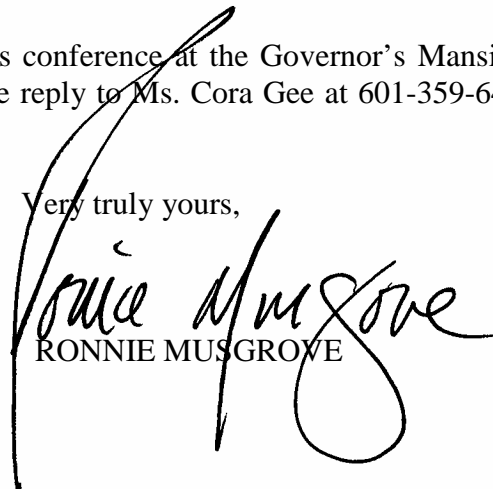

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

William Sweeney
Executive Director of Government Relations
Electronic Data Systems
1331 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 1300 N
Washington, DC 20004

Dear Mr. Sweeney:

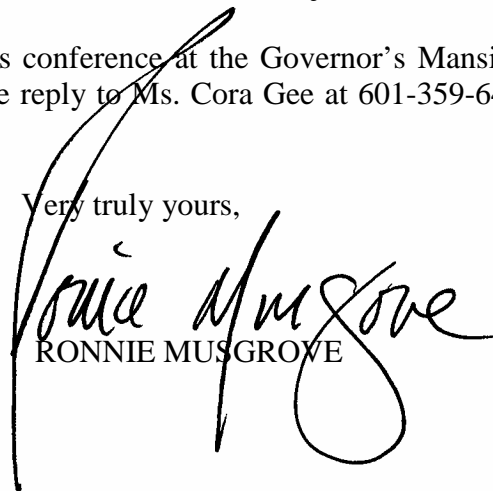

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Brent Thompson
Expedia, Inc.
1275 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
9th Floor
Washington, DC 20006

Dear Mr. Thompson:

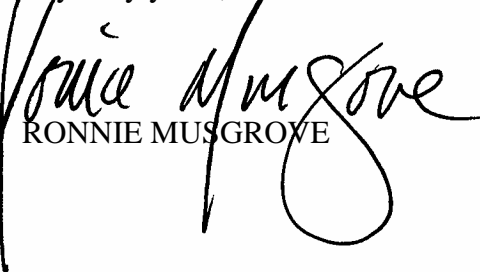

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Dianne Thompson
Government Affairs Director
AT&T
One AT&T Way
Room 2B107A
Bedminster, NJ 07921

Dear Ms. Thompson:

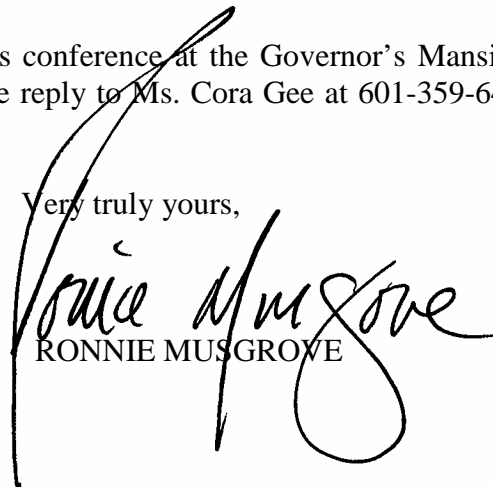

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Francis Thompson
Director, Strategic Alliances
Verizon
1300 I Street NW, Suite 400W
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Thompson:

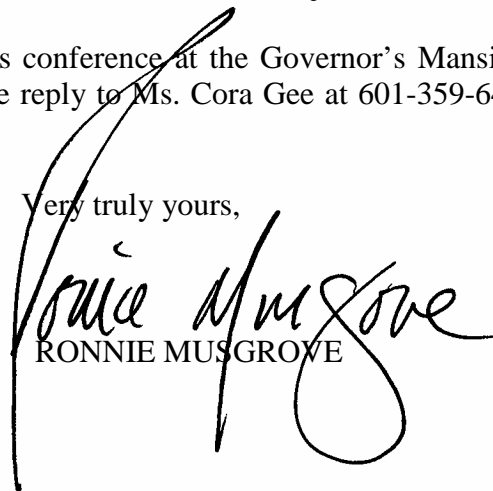

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Marsha Ward
Director, Law & Public Policy
Worldcom
6 Concourse Parkway, Suite 3200
Atlanta, GA 30328

Dear Ms. Ward:

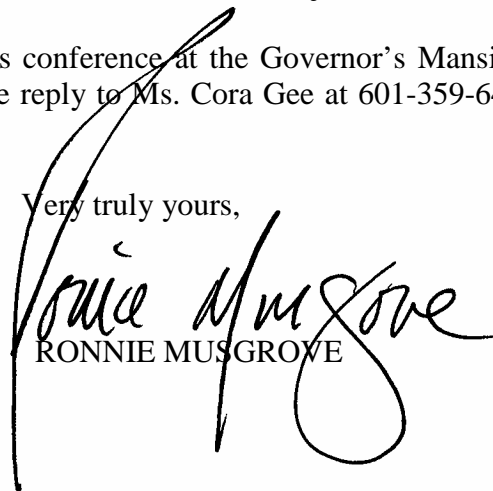

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

S. Anne Hancock
Secretary's Regional Representative
U.S. Department of Education
61 Forsyth Street, S.W. Suite 19T40
Atlanta, GA 30303

Dear Dr. Hancock:

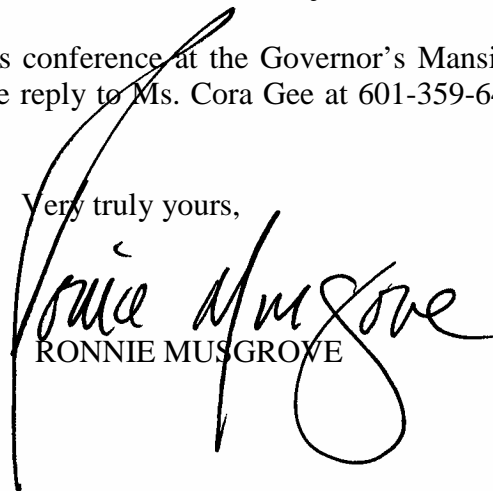

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE