

January 20, 2003

Scott Ross
PO Box 751
West Point, MS 39773

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Ross:

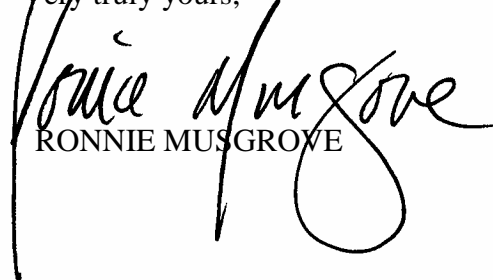

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Sam Cox
212 Deer Run
Ridgeland, MS 39157

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Cox:

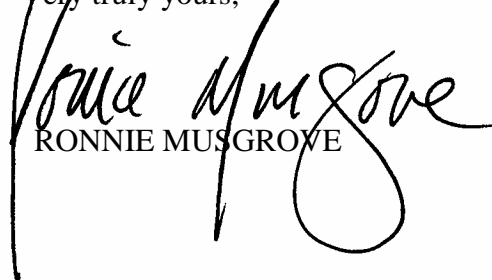

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

David Watkins
PO Box 24297
Jackson, MS 39225-4297

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Watkins:

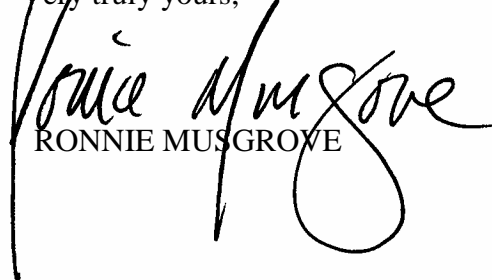

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Robin Williams
PO Box 15993
Augusta, GA 30913

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Williams:

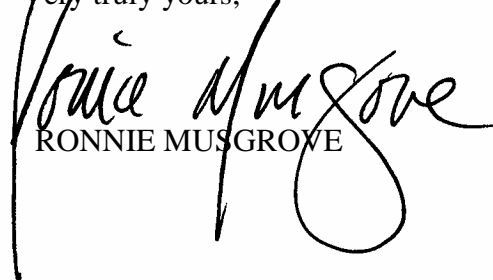

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Joey Sturgeon
735 Montgomery Highway, Suite 113
Vestavia Hills, AL 35216

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Sturgeon:

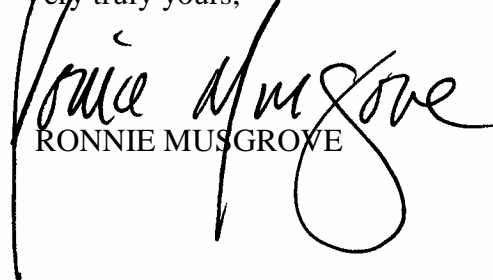

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

George Schimmell
3630 Kings Highway
Jackson, MS 39216

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Schimmell:

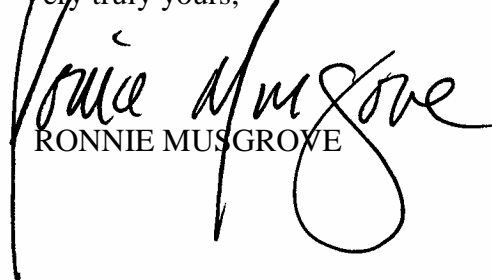

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

John Maxey
2201 Eastover Drive
Jackson, MS 39211

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Maxey:

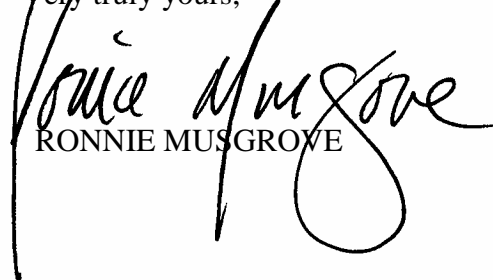

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Bennett York
1421 S. 28th Avenue
Hattiesburg, MS 39402

Dear Mr. & Mrs. York:

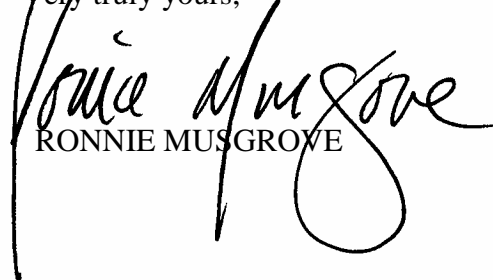

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Lawrence Warren
PO Box 572
Hattiesburg, MS 39403

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Warren:

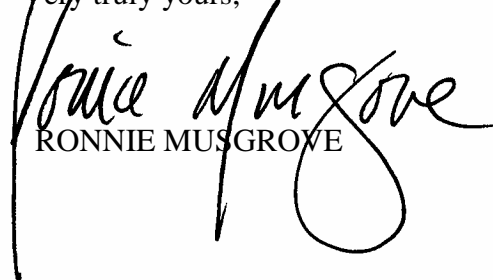

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Grady Tollison
PO Box 1216
Oxford, MS 38655

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Tollison:

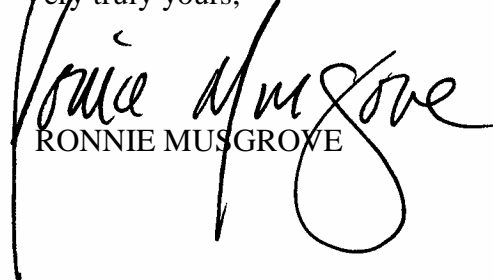

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Missy Hancock
PO Box 832
Summit, MS 39666

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hancock:

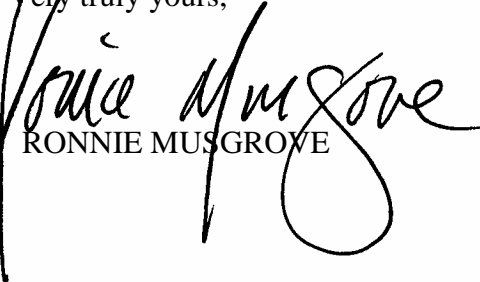

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

George Schloegel
800 Commerce Street
Gulfport, MS 39507

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Schloegel:

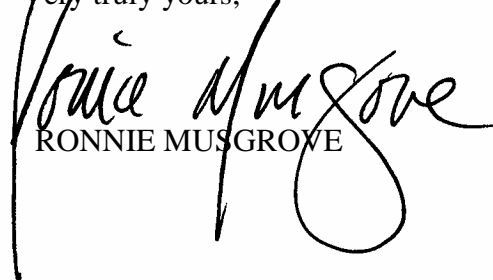

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

I. A. Rosenbaum
1839 43rd Street
Meridian, MS 39301

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Rosenbaum:

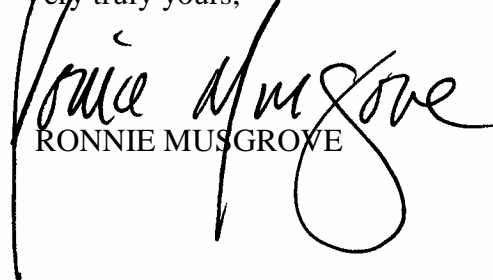

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Leroy Percy
PO Box 218
Greenville, MS 38702

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Percy:

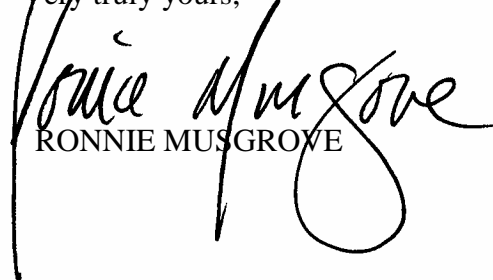

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Scott Coopwood
PO Box 117
Cleveland, MS 38732

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Coopwood:

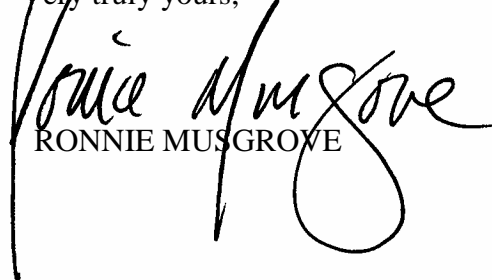

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Bobby Martin
896 South Main Street
Ripley, MS 38663

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Martin:

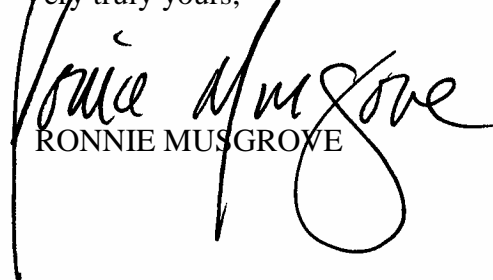

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Roy Irons
PO Box 3119
Gulfport, MS 39505

Dear Dr. & Mrs. Irons:

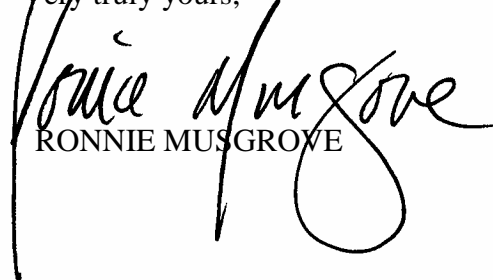

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Dan Grafton
513 Lake Hollow
Madison, MS 39110

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Grafton:

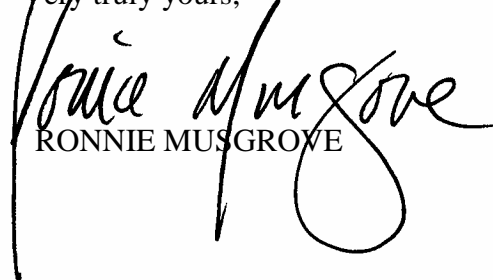

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Paul Goss
3215 Cliff Drive
Fort Smith, AR 72903

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Goss:

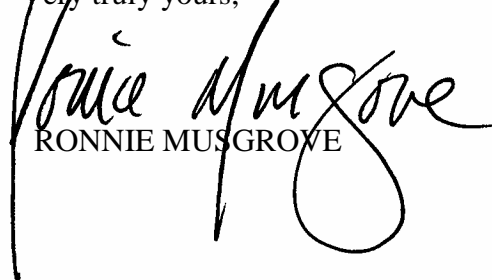

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Eddie Brunini
4270 Quail Run
Jackson, MS 39211

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Brunini:

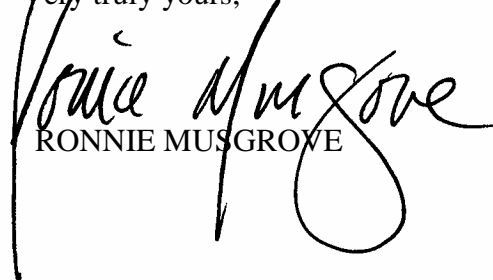

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Gary Bailey
703 Hillshire Place
Tupelo, MS 38804

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Bailey:

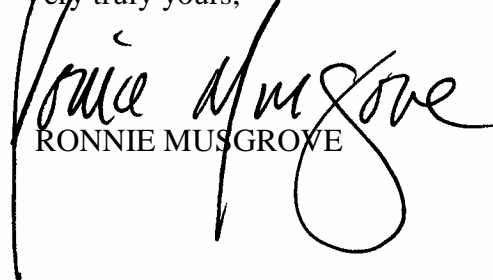

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Billy Howard
PO Box 1588
Laurel, MS 39441-1588

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Howard:

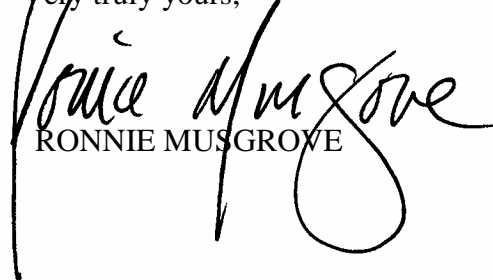

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

January 20, 2003

Hibbett Neel
181 Traviswood
Jackson, MS 39212

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Neel:

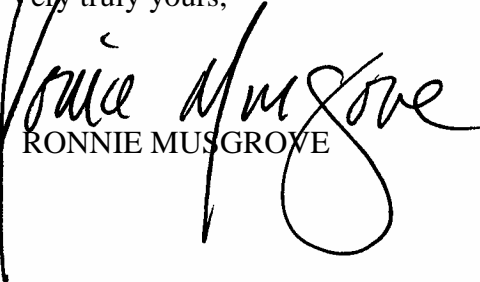

Please join me at the Governor's Mansion on February 6, 2003, as we celebrate Mississippi's accomplishment of becoming the first state in the nation with Internet-accessible computers in every public classroom.

Your support has been instrumental to the state's success. The public-private partnership formed to accomplish this goal is one of the largest, most successful partnerships ever. This project not only shows to the world that Mississippi can attain unprecedented goals, but also that education is our top priority and we mean business.

Mississippi's schoolchildren are the real winners from the success of this initiative. Whether they are in Booneville, Benoit, or Bay St. Louis, our children now have access in their classrooms to the greatest resource the world has ever known. These students will learn more and prepare better for tomorrow's jobs than ever before.

We will begin with a press conference at the Governor's Mansion at 4:30 P.M. with a reception following. Please reply to Ms. Cora Gee at 601-359-6420 or via email cgee@governor.state.ms.us.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE