

Statement from Governor Ronnie Musgrove regarding judicial appointments:

“Judicial appointments are made after careful examination and in the best interests of the people of Mississippi. I will consider the candidates and make my appointments based on their qualifications.”