

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday May 21, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Saturday

Energy plan on fast track

Hospital may refuse uninsured

Appeals court rejects redistricting argument

Sunday

Delta cities hit hard by plant shutdowns

College professors hit road for more money

Legislature should make teacher pay raises permanent

Editorials

Flag change may stop racial woes

Teachers deserve more than crumbs

Dredging part of pork barrel politics

Monday

'We love it': Miss. 18 extension hit in Brandon

Seat belt on or no free ride

Editorials

Recognize, support caregivers of elderly

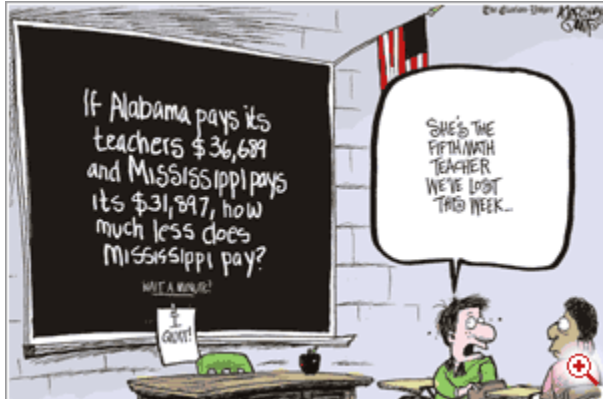

Paper supported for stand on flag

State striving to put past behind

Fallout goes to new flag pushers

All-black group is hardly inclusive

Veteran columnist Sid Salter adds his voice to 'Clarion-Ledger' lineup

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Editorial:

Passions collide over symbolism on cloth

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Mid-South states among 8 to flunk survey of seatbelt use

Police to target seatbelt violators in campaign starting today.

Seatbelt enforcement campaign starts

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Construction begins on $300 million energy plant

Click it or Ticket' campaign aimed at saving lives

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Elliott seeks open door education policy

Politics of confusion mires teacher pay issue

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

School administrators forced to cut budgets

PRCC will receive $241,253 grant to enhance student support services

Parole mess puts focus on state board

Law will benefit state residents

State flag, symbol offensive to blacks

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Musgrove says rising gasoline prices could further slow state's economy stateline.org