

Statement from Janice Broome Brooks:

“Just like every other state agency, we are dealing with difficult budget issues. We are making every effort to fulfill our commitments to the children and families we serve, as well as to our employees who work unselfishly to protect their clients.”