

RM Quote on FY 2002

As Governor, a challenge of the times is managing the state budget during a national recession.

We will work with the legislature to develop a solid plan for the future to address these temporary fiscal difficulties.