

I would like to welcome all of this year's participants to the 7th Annual "Drum Major for Justice" Awards Banquet. I share your commitment to quality jobs, quality education and quality health care for the people of Mississippi. When we invest in these areas and work together to make them a reality, the promise and potential of all Mississippians will be realized.