Message from the Governor

Welcome to Mississippi. We're proud of our state, and we're pleased you chose to experience everything it has to offer.

Mississippi is full of places to explore, history to relive and a variety of new attractions and activities to discover each day. Whether you plan to hike, swim, fish, hunt or ski, you'll have no problem finding an opportunity nearby in Mississippi. Visit any of our 29 state parks, our beautiful lakes, our scenic woodlands or one of our world-renowned golf courses. Our warm climate provides the perfect backdrop to outdoor activities, and our bustling cities and friendly towns welcome you for shopping and dining.

Our rich cultural background nurtures many great entertainers, creating the opportunity to enjoy a multitude of visual and performing arts. We are home to the Walter Anderson Art Gallery, the Jim Henson Museum and the birthplace of Elvis Presley. We're the exclusive United States host of the International Ballet Competition. Great musicians, writers and artists, like Faith Hill, B. B. King, Richard Wright, Nevada Barr, Wyatt Waters, and Morgan Freeman, call Mississippi home.

From the sounds of the Delta Blues to the glitter of the Gulf Coast, you'll find many reasons why "Mississippi...Feels Like Coming Home."

Very truly yours,

Ronnie Musgrove
Governor of Mississippi
