

“Our investment in health care is a strong indicator of our commitment to economic development,” said Governor Ronnie Musgrove. “The infrastructure of the health care community is vital, and the work being done at Monfort Jones Memorial Hospital will strengthen its ability to provide quality health care for the people of Kosciusko and Attala County.”