

We are excited about the progress that was made during these discussions and we look forward to continuing to work with the Department of Health and Human Services. During a national recession, we must look at every option to maximize funds to better serve the people of Mississippi.