

Interview with Will Lester, Associated Press

Will Lester is going to interview the governor at 4pm. He will come to wherever the governor is for the interview. I spoke to Fred this morning about this, and he is going to talk with Ramona Oliver today. Will wants to talk with the governor about his administration, and also about the voter turnout in the recent elections. He would like to hear the governor's thoughts about the Republican surge, and the implications for the Senate race in Louisiana and races in '03.

I gave Ramona your cell phone number; hers is 202-374-0002. She will be on a conference call with me, Lee Ann and several other communications directors at 4pm, so she won't be at the interview.
