RE: "Children's Day of Hope" press conference

Remarks for this event are attached, along with a copy of the proclamation issued for the event. A young man named Sebastian Beck is going to read the proclamation, but it's not scheduled to be read until the end of the program. I'd like to get it moved up so you can introduce him and have him read the proclamation up at the podium with you. I will let you know as soon as possible about this.

A copy of the program is attached. As of this writing (5pm Tuesday), Tuck is not confirmed as a speaker.
