Lee Ann:

Two issues for scheduling...

- Warren Strain wanted to know if Musgrove would be interested in handing out free child booster seats at the Tinseltown theater on Wednesday, March 13. Time is flexible.
- Is Musgrove planning to attend a March 29 performance of the Verdi Requiem at Galloway, being performed as a memorial to the victims of 9/11? An article has run saying he will be there with members of the Dickerson and Ferguson families.
