RE: Minor Buchanan and Morgan Freeman

I've been contacted by Thurman Boykin, a local book agent here (and Jane's ex), about tomorrow's luncheon for Piney Woods.

As you know, Minor Buchanan has written a book about the life of Holt Collier and his role in the whole teddy bear story. Minor will be attending the lunch Friday, and Thurman has asked if there is an opportunity if you would mind introducing Minor to Morgan Freeman. Apparently there is some interest in making a film of the book, and Minor is hoping that if he can speak to Morgan Freeman about it, it may influence the chances of making a movie and also of making it in Mississippi.
