Dear Andrew:

Congratulations on achieving Eagle Scout. This honor requires many years of hard work, and you should be proud of your determination and commitment. Becoming an Eagle Scout should prove to you that you will be able to accomplish anything in the future that you set your mind to accomplish. You have many more goals to conquer and many more mountains to climb. You are prepared for the challenges that await you in your bright future. Keep up the good work. In the 21st Century, you will be a leader for your generation, and I am proud to hear of your accomplishments.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE
