

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday September 29, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Budget may affect prison policy

Espy predicts more suits over pay

FDA approves abortion pill

Lawmakers scoff at $1B Ayers offer

Officials to seek opinions on flag

MBN balks at use of troopers

Bill includes \$131M for Miss. flood control projects

Battle raging for place on ballot

Editorials

Democrats aren't liberals, really closet 'PWFENBAF's'

Musgrove just a typical politician

Conditions at Parchman deplorable

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Ex-inmates testify that diplomas were bogus

Full story

Schools may have to reduce budgets

- Full story

- School budget cuts

- Harrison schools ready overtime checks

Poor black girls in South hit hard by HIV

Editorial

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Editorial, September 28, 2000

Commercial Appeal

Illinois denial didn't slow Binion gambling OK in Miss.

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

DeSoto Schools refuse to get involved in state flag controversy

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

MDOT halts road project until spring

Putting flag issue to vote may hurt state

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Sid Salter: TV ad overstates Shows' role

Editorials for Thursday, Sept. 28, 2000

Career advice for Miss. kids on Internet

Flag referendum's next step is signatures

stateline.org

Highway Construction Impacted By State DUI Laws