

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 16, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

FDA cautions consumers surfing for prescriptions

Sexual offender Web site targeted

Security at casinos labeled adequate

Funds lacking to fix 'deadly,' hilly roadway

Ford: Eye 3rd, 5th districts for redraw

Coalition: Increase funds for disabled

House OKs redistricting delay

Editorials

<http://www.sunherald.com/>

Provision stirs simmering flag debate

House OKs bill to delay redistricting

ACLU considering challenge to state's new online sex registry

Officials lack funds to fix U.S. 49's hills

Tire disposal alternative offered for state Tire disposal alternative proposed for Mississippi

Jordan named to state's Tax Commission

Column: California tried to have its cake and eat it, too

<http://www.gomemphis.com>

Mid-South Commentary Capitol feels a new breeze

<http://www.desototimes.com>

Hernando jurv slaps MDOT with $2.3 million verdict

Major changes for MDOT have been long overdue

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Titan mum on possible scaleback at tire plant

Dearing: Legislature will strive to improve watch over MDOT

www.enterprisejournal.com

Jack Anderson & Douglas Cohn: Deregulation not problem free