

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday October 19, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Social Security gets boost

3-way union to lay tracks for future

Vote-selling Web site to get warning

Winter calls for civility in flag hearings

Guard unit flies home 4 from USS Cole

Officials say they can't pay officers

Editorials

State survived past with votes

'Moderate' draws line at changing flag

'Outside agitators' like Minor should leave state flag alone

Musgrove should protect flag to honor our fallen soldiers

Openness not always the easiest course, but always the proper one (David Hampton)

Rep. Thompson's 'snapshot' earns full-length portrait (Erich Stringfellow)

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The flag hearing

Flag hearings begin this week

Internet streamlines grant process

Piece of the Pie

Bids taken for work on fairgrounds project

Desoto Appeal Hernando, Mississippi

Alcoa will lay off 77 in Hernando

\$7.5 million investment in Snowden paying off for Southaven

IP closures mean 2,500 to lose jobs

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

U.S. Chamber formally endorses state high court candidates

U.S. Chamber meddling in judicial race is ill-informed

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Governor believes working together is key to state's economic growth

Full Story

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

IP mill officials: Closings won't affect Natchez

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Sid Salter: Mississippi 'justice' expensive

Editorials for Wednesday, Oct. 18, 2000

stateline.org

State Politicians Forced To Rely On Small Planes