

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 23, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Funds to pay private prisons running out

Pittman sworn in as chief justice

Automaker pledges 'volunteerism'

Economists: State will bounce back

Miss. proceeds with caution

Senators select 4 for federal posts

Statewide municipal leaders set to meet with lawmakers

Enhanced penalties' bill moves to Senate

Federal relief sought as heating bills soar

Pair to plead for radars on county roads

Utilities to face early audits

Editorials

What's happening to state's money?

Cochran on right side with reform

Judge clarifies state's DUI law

Simply put: Flag flap about power

New flag design can begin healing process for Mississippi

As Christians, we should forget bad

<http://web.sunherald.com>

Networking, good food on tap in Jackson

New chief justice wants election reform

Nissan recruiting state firms to support plant

<http://www.djournal.com/djournal/site/articles/news/news.htm>

Musgrove pushes state companies to work with Nissan as supplier

Fast action -- Nissan plan reveals the will to expedite work

Letters to the Editor

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Residents spew hot air on high natural gas costs

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

Common Cause acting for the public good

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Inmate treatment proposal gains legislative backers

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

Nationline