

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 18, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Public to see final spy agency files

Officials awarding site-work contract

Financial problems may hit 33 districts

Official appeals for generosity

Senate committee OKs bill to give MDOT authority to borrow money

Conservancy, MDOT partner for wetlands

Flowood: Officers injured at accident site

Editorials

State's attorney general should investigate fuel prices

Flag vote just a confusing 'trick'

Where did all of our money go?

<http://web.sunherald.com>

Lawmakers, groups want to help High power bills lead to aid drive

Budget deficit puts squeeze on education

Blackouts roll across California

USM may face $11.4M in cuts

Column: Mississippi's high court will open up to cameras

Column: Smooth sailing didn't last long for Musgrove

<http://www.djournal.com/djournal/site/articles/news/news.htm>

Spending of suit funds could be key

Bishops call for moratorium on death penalty

Officials State's high gas bills to continue

The new economy and Nissan

<http://www.gomemphis.com/>

Calif. orders blackouts; state invokes rescue plan

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Our View

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

• BIPEC: Helping politicians feel the heat

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Colleges dealing with budget crunch

Bill Minor: What a difference a year makes

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

California orders rolling blackouts

Gov. Davis authorizes Dept. of Water Resources to buy power

Power cutoffs strike Calif. Blackouts imposed as emergency declared

