

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 30, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Prison, HIV: What kind of future?

Utility bill help for poor offered

Lawmaker: New parents need more info

Senate committee OKs bill that would reduce DHS scope

Bill limiting bar, nightclub access still alive

Stopping 'retaliation' goal of bill, police say

Shows: Reduce class sizes

Magnolia Venture fight over

Editorials

Mississippi's teachers should be legislators' top priority

Take flag money, feed our children

Vouchers swaying Gore supporter

Flag's stars depict outside agitators

State flag debate encouraging sign

Proposed flag just not 'pretty'

<http://web.sunherald.com>

College faculty wary of potential emergency declaration

State's focus put on coping with substance abuse

Editorial: Why shouldn't state respond so promptly for every industry?

Column: To build roads, we must build a better MDOT

www.djournal.com

Major bills face key legislative deadline today

BOBBY HARRISON: 'Whiskey Speech' doesn't assuage flag issue

City offers tax relief for gas bills

Shorter school week? A cutback to four, longer days must be last resort

www.desototimes.com

Mr. Wicker comes to Southaven; U.S. Congressman discusses issues with young constituents at Sacred Heart School

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Taylor mum on Titan Tire's Natchez layoffs

Read Our View

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Tough seat belt bill moving through Legislature

www.stateline.org

States Benefit From New Technology, Study Shows

State Budgets Battered By Substance Abuse, Study Shows

Mississippi Bill Would Extend Benefits Of CHIP

Mississippi Gov: More Budget Cuts Possible

Mississippi To Push For Sampling

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

Anti-smoking funds sparse Despite a \$250 billion tobacco lawsuit windfall, only a few states are using the money to fight teen smoking. However, those that try are coming up big.

