

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 19, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Ed chiefs call for new flag

Musgrove: Up teacher pay, no strings

Oktibbeha schools in crisis

Editorials

Proportional representation?

What's the cost of replacing flag?

Don't allow flag issue to divide us

Don't let Mississippi resurrect 'Smoky and Bandit' scenario

<http://web.sunherald.com>

New casino security standards proposed

Conservative group outlines bill agenda

<http://www.djournal.com/djournal/site/articles/news/news.htm>

Superintendents hope cuts in funding avoided

Highway officials say problems with four-lane began in 1987

<http://www.gomemphis.com/>

California endures more rolling outages

<http://www.desototimes.com>

Let the sheriffs have radar - if it is misused, vote them out of office

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

New help for Titan Tire plant?

No jet packs, and still no four-lanes

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

Dispute over local schools spills into legislative action

Flag support group hosts meeting Saturday

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Editorials for Thursday, Jan. 18, 2001

Sid Salter: Press to 'roast' Montgomery

<http://www.stateline.org/>

Education Remains Top Item For State Legislators

More States Complaining Of Economic Pinch

State Tobacco Payment Dip Exaggerated, Experts Say

Mississippi Budget Deficit Puts Squeeze On Education

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

California blackouts continue

To save, firms predict who'll get sick

Firms try to predict who'll get sick Ounce of prevention or a pound of prying?

Power cutoffs strike Calif. Blackouts imposed as emergency declared