

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 25, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Bill would extend program

Proposal would aid public schools

Musgrove: Raise teachers' pay

Official: Redraw won't be easy

Editorials

Flag debate draws attention from our 'real' problems

BIPEC story gives wrong perception

<http://web.sunherald.com>

Georgia may shrink Rebel part of its flag

USM faculty and students fear the worst

Lawmakers propose hanging up on telemarketers

Sound Off

La. firm wins Nissan work

www.desototimes.com

Bill to remove warehouse tax goes to House floor

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Contractors applying to Nissan plant

Laukhoff: Deregulation won't affect Hydro plant

Nissan needs list is a plum of an opportunity

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

Nissan, under tight time constraints, searching for suppliers

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Sid Salter: Pittman wants accessible court

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

It's time Georgia adopted new flag, governor says Legislature considers compromise banner

Other regions could share Calif. troubles

Once the solution, now the big culprit

Supply pinch pushes prices

More output, no new plants