

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday December 20 , 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Churches favor new flag

No gas-tax hike, legislators say

Choctaws' business interests focus of March conference

Hard lessons learned about flag(Dec. 19)

NAACP vows to continue S.C. boycott(Dec. 19)

South Carolina lawmakers, businessmen suggest Mississippi face flag debate quickly, carefully.(Dec. 19)

Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Time for a new flag, clergy say

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

In Mississippi, Electoral College goes for Bush

BOBBY HARRISON: Don't count on Fordice coalition to back '1894 flag

Desoto Appeal Hernando, Mississippi

Religious groups will urge members to vote for change in flag

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Lott , Pickering seek funding for Meridian weather radar

• Governor to tour damaged areas today

• Nissan deal a generous commitment of tax dollars

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Ketchings: Lack of funds will plague lawmakers in next session

Church's leadership in flag issue may help

Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Nissan may benefit area in the future