

Keynote Speaker

Myrlie Evers-Williams

Myrlie Evers-Williams is a mother, writer, lecturer and civil rights leader. She became the first woman to chair the NAACP, a position she held until 1998. She holds the title Chairman Emeritus for the NAACP. She co-wrote a book entitled "For Us, the Living". In 1999, she published her memoirs, Watch Me Fly: What I Learned on the Way to Becoming the Woman I Was Meant to Be, which charts her journey from being the wife of an activist to becoming a community leader in her own right.
