

November 18, 2002

Dr. Clinton Bristow, Jr.
Alcorn State University
1000 ASU Drive 359 210
Alcorn State, Mississippi 39096-7500

Dear Dr. Bristow:

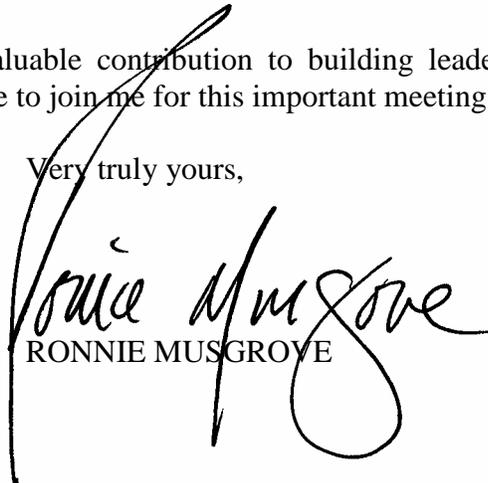

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Susan Walker
Area Development Partnership
P.O. Box 751
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39403-0751

Dear Ms. Walker:

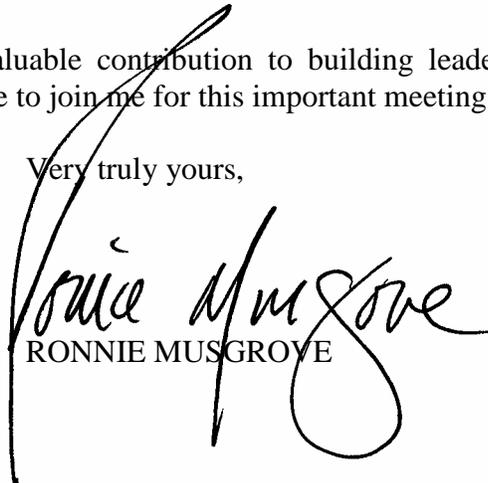

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Kimberly Nastasi Crim
Biloxi Chamber of Commerce
1048 Beach Boulevard
Biloxi, Mississippi 39533

Dear Ms. Crim:

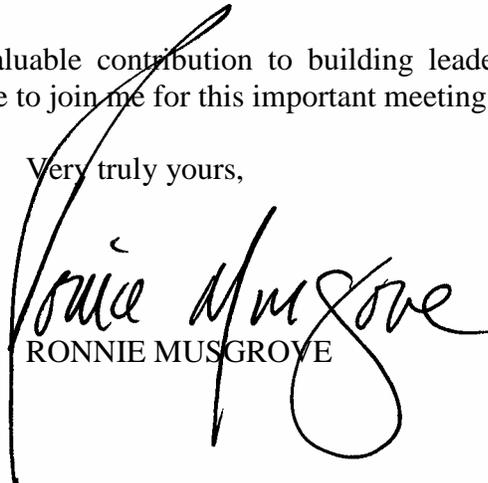

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Paul McLain
BOLD
P.O. Box 996
Monticello, Mississippi 39654

Dear Mr. McLain:

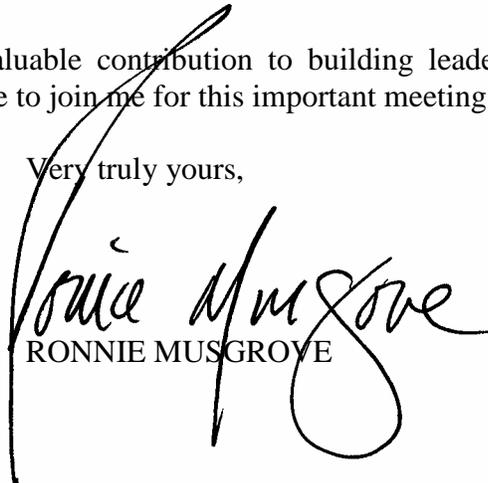

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Clarke Holmes
Central Mississippi Planning & Development District
P.O. Box 4935
Jackson, Mississippi 39296-4935

Dear Mr. Holmes:

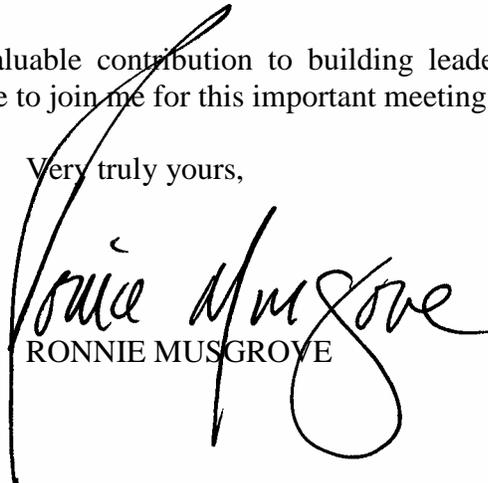

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Oleta Fitzgerald
Children's Defense Fund
207 W. Amite Street, Suite 402
Jackson, Mississippi 39201

Dear Ms. Fitzgerald:

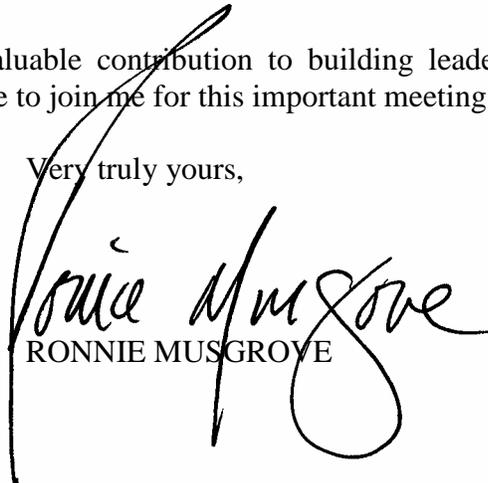

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Dianne Newman
Clinton Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 143
Clinton, Mississippi 39060-0143

Dear Ms. Newman:

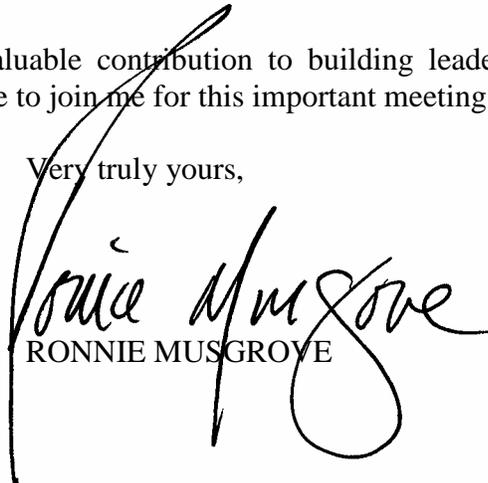

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Charleigh Ford, Jr.
Columbus-Lowndes Economic Development Association
P.O. Box 1805
Columbus, Mississippi 39703-1805

Dear Mr. Ford:

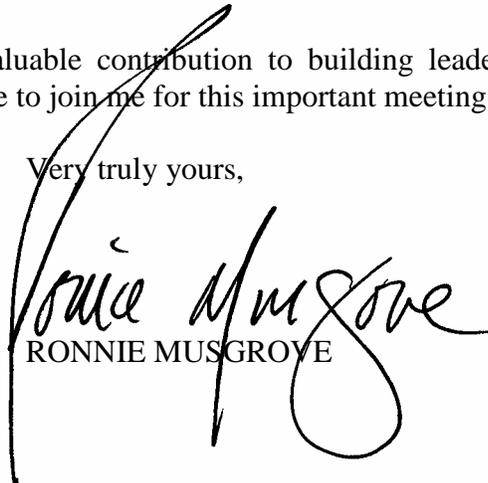

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Michael Clayborne
CREATE Foundation
P.O. Box 1053
Tupelo, Mississippi 38802

Dear Mr. Clayborne:

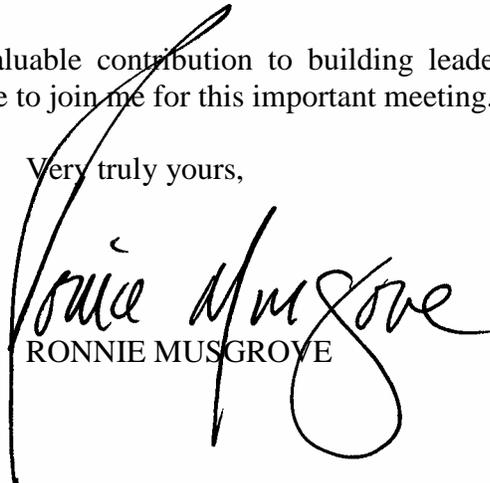

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Hayes Dent
Delta Regional Authority
236 Sharkey Avenue, Suite 400
Clarksdale, Mississippi 38614

Dear Mr. Dent:

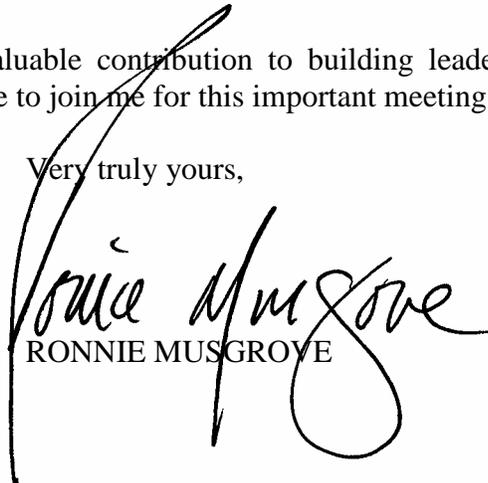

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Myrtis Tabb
Delta State University
P.O. Box 3134
Cleveland, Mississippi 38733

Dear Ms. Tabb:

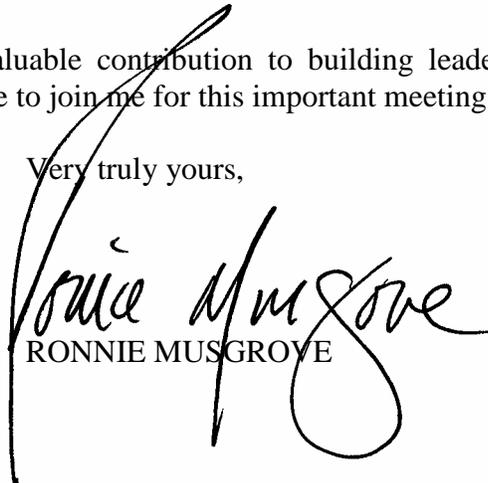

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Christy Riddle-Montesi
Delta State University
P.O. Box 3134
Cleveland, Mississippi 38733

Dear Ms. Riddle-Montesi:

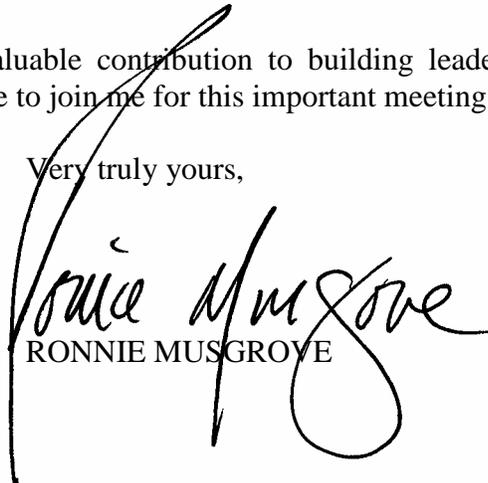

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. William Stennett
Economic Development Authority of Jones County
P.O. Box 527
Laurel, Mississippi 39441-0527

Dear Mr. Stennett:

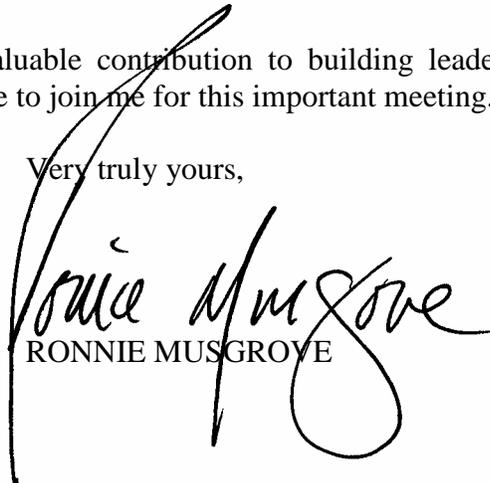

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. William Bynum
Enterprise Corporation of the Delta
308 East Pearl Street, Suite 400
Jackson, Mississippi 39201

Dear Mr. Bynum:

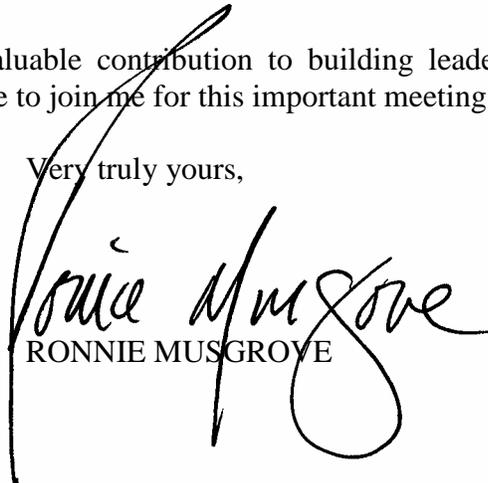

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. George Penick
Foundation for the Mid South
308 East Pearl Street, 2nd Floor
Jackson, Mississippi 39201

Dear Mr. Penick:

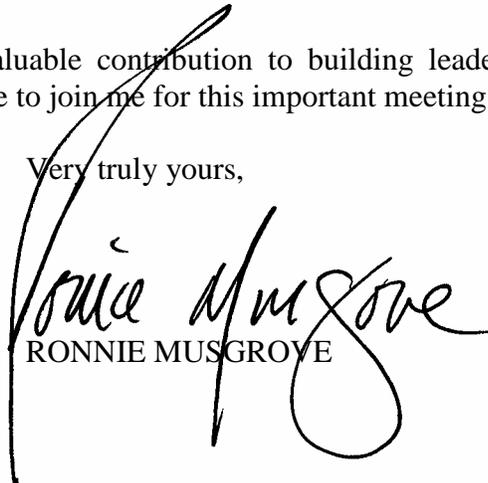

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Wanda Garner
Grenada County Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 628
Grenada, Mississippi 38902-0628

Dear Ms. Garner:

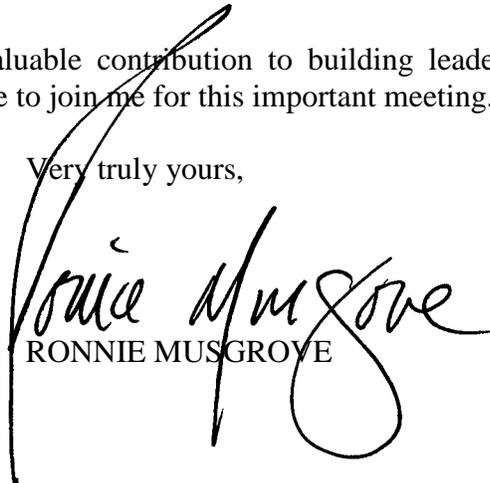

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Sarah Smith
Eagle Ridge Conference Center
1500 Raymond Lake Road
Raymond, Mississippi 39157

Dear Ms. Smith:

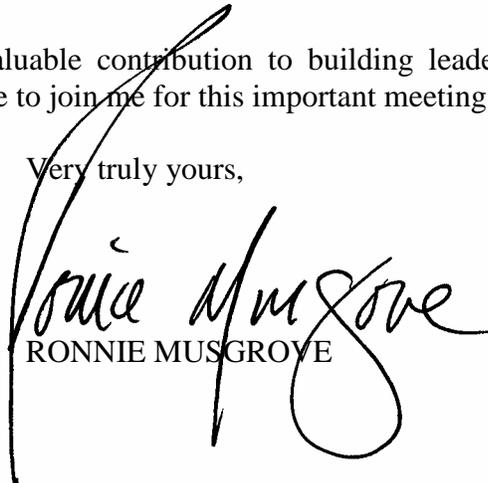

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Starkey Morgan
Holmes Community College
P.O. Box 369
Goodman, Mississippi 39079

Dear Dr. Morgan:

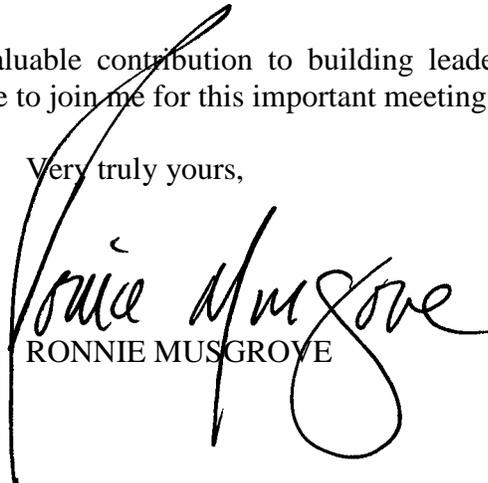

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Liles Williams
Irby Corporation
P.O. Box 1819
Jackson, Mississippi 39215-1819

Dear Mr. Williams:

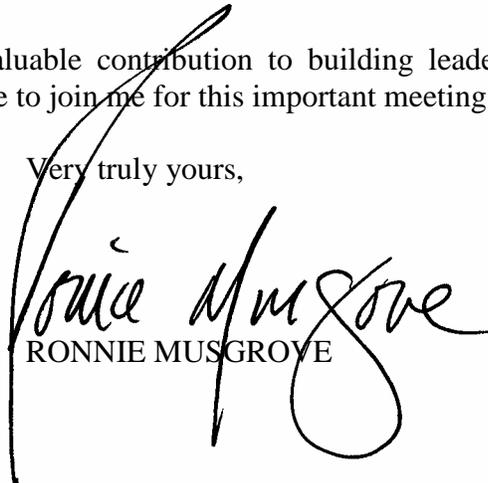

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Terry Carter
Jackson County Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 480
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39568-0480

Dear Mr. Carter:

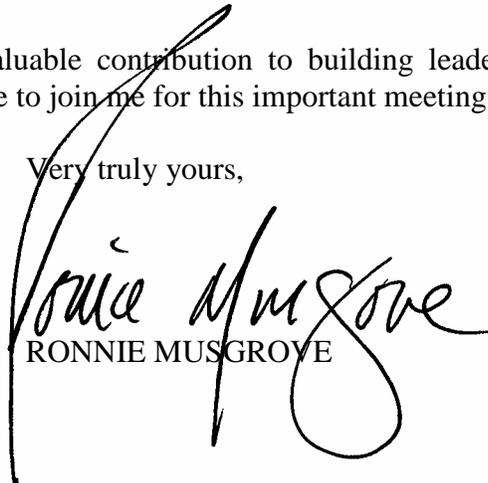

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Curtina Moreland-Young
Jackson State University
3825 Ridgewood Road, Box 18
Jackson, Mississippi 39217

Dear Dr. Moreland-Young:

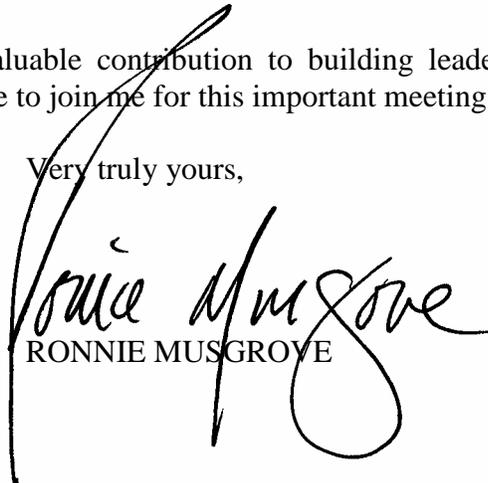

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Willa Sanders
Kosciusko-Attala Chamber of Commerce
124 North Jackson Street
Kosciusko, Mississippi 39090

Dear Ms. Sanders:

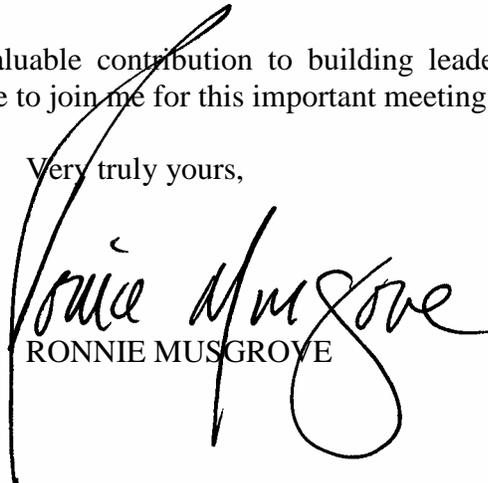

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. LaVerne Edney
Leadership Jackson Alumni
P.O. Box 25248
Jackson, Mississippi 39226-2548

Dear Ms. Edney:

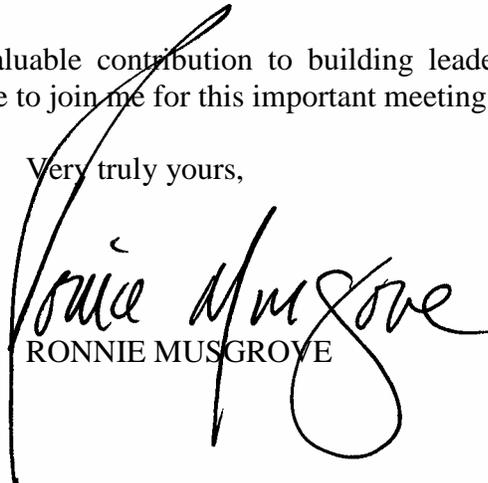

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Dianne Dyar
Madison County Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 1276
Ridgeland, Mississippi 39158

Dear Ms. Dyar:

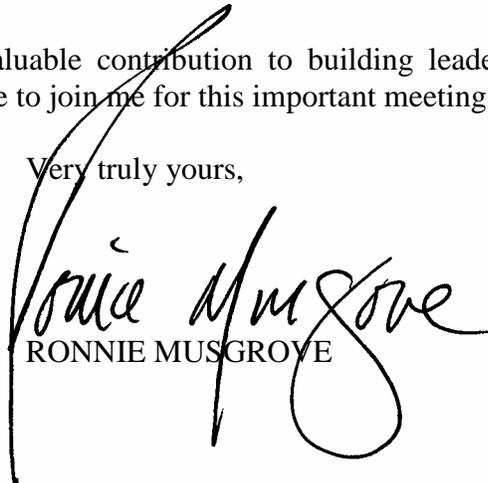

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Bill Crawford
Meridian Community College
910 Highway 19 North
Meridian, Mississippi 39307

Dear Mr. Crawford:

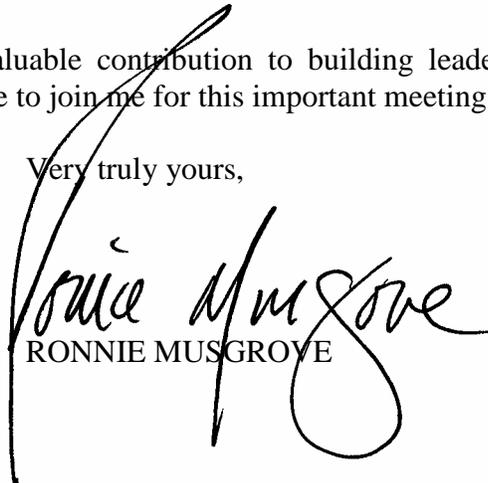

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Shirley Tucker
MetroJackson Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 22548
Jackson, Mississippi 39206

Dear Ms. Tucker:

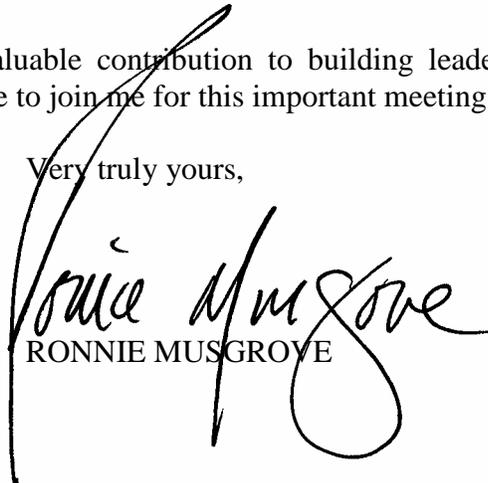

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. C.J. Jones
Mississippi Action for Community Education (MACE)
119 South Theobald Street
Greenville, Mississippi 38701

Dear Mr. Jones:

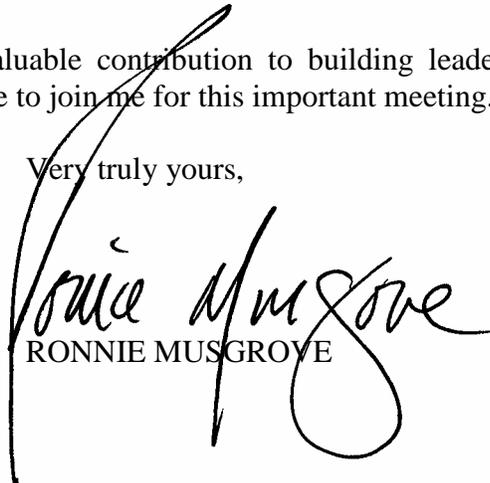

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Edgar Smith
Mississippi AHEC Program
350 W. Woodrow Wilson Blvd., Suite 615
Jackson, Mississippi 39206

Dear Mr. Smith:

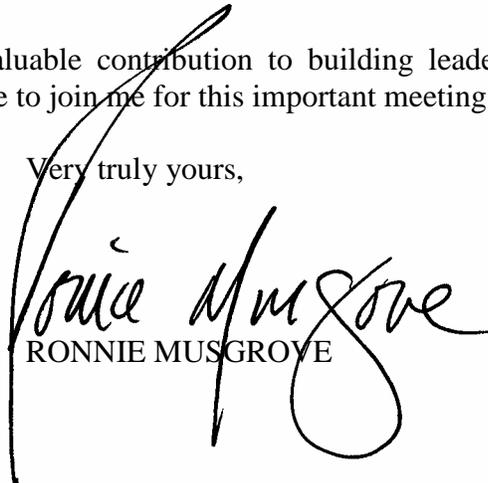

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Jean Moore
Mississippi Arts Commission
P.O. Box 157
Coldwater, Mississippi 38618

Dear Ms. Moore:

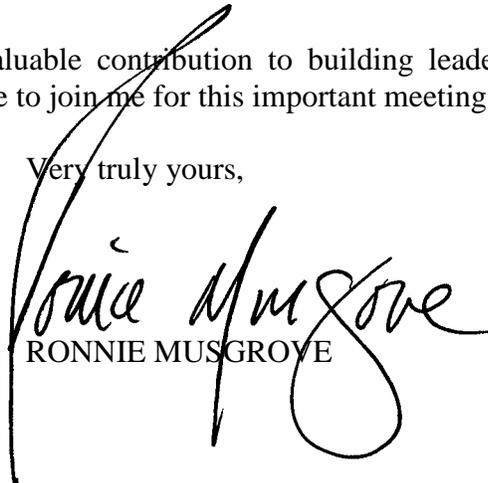

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. West Sweatt
Mississippi Center for Nonprofits
612 North State Street, Suite B
Jackson, Mississippi 39202

Dear Mr. Sweatt:

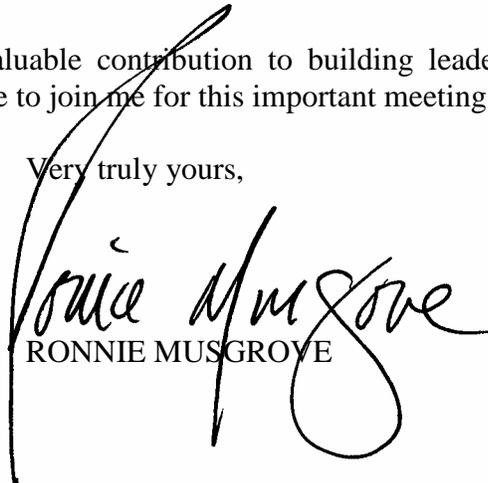

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Marsha Meeks-Kelly
Mississippi Commission for Volunteer Service
3825 Ridgewood Road, Suite 601
Jackson, Mississippi 39211

Dear Ms. Meeks-Kelly:

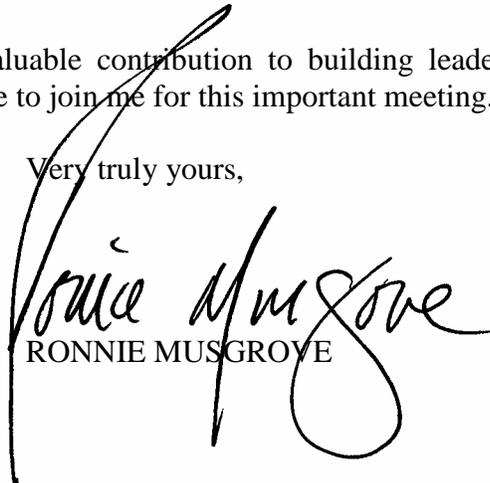

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Raygene Paige
Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service
P.O. Box 9601
Mississippi State, Mississippi 39762

Dear Dr. Paige:

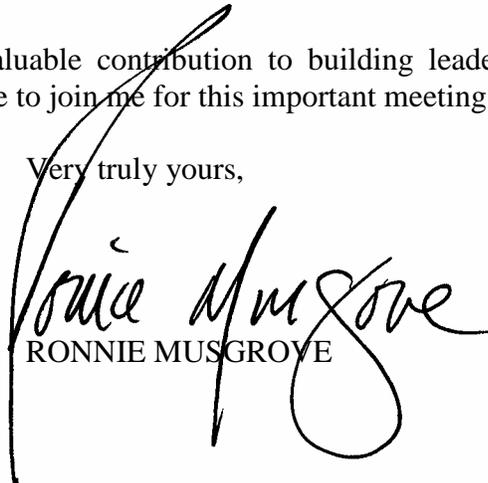

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Bobby Garvin
Mississippi Delta Community College
P.O. Box 668
Moorhead, Mississippi 38761-0668

Dear Dr. Garvin:

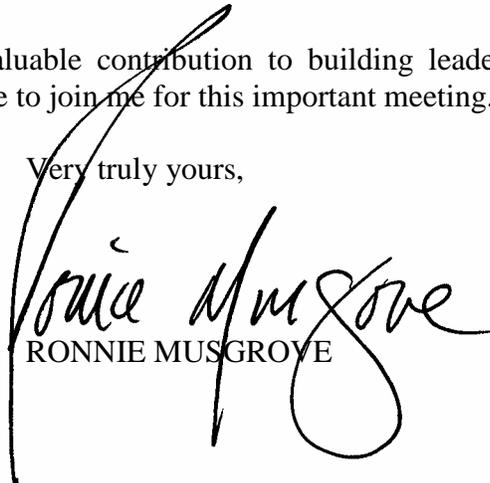

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Sam Mozee
Mississippi Development Authority
P.O. Box 849
Jackson, Mississippi 39205

Dear Mr. Mozee:

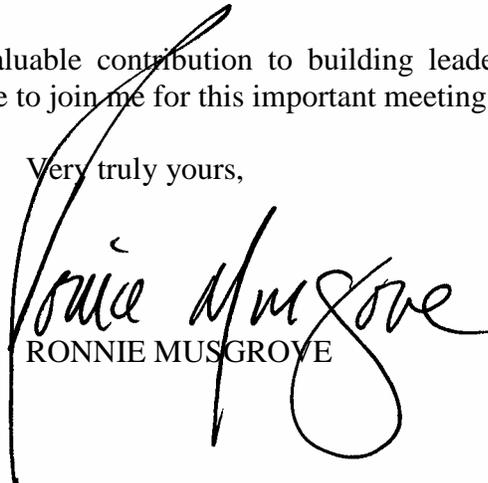

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Mabel Murphree
ARC/Mississippi Development Authority
P.O. Box 1606
Tupelo, Mississippi 38802

Dear Dr. Murphree:

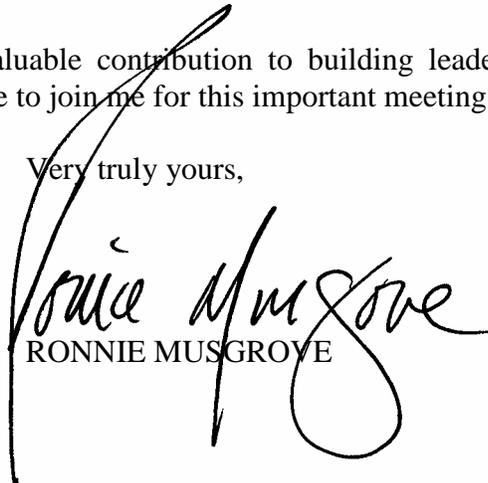

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Peggy Howard
Mississippi Economic Council
P.O. Box 23276
Jackson, Mississippi 39225-3276

Dear Ms. Howard:

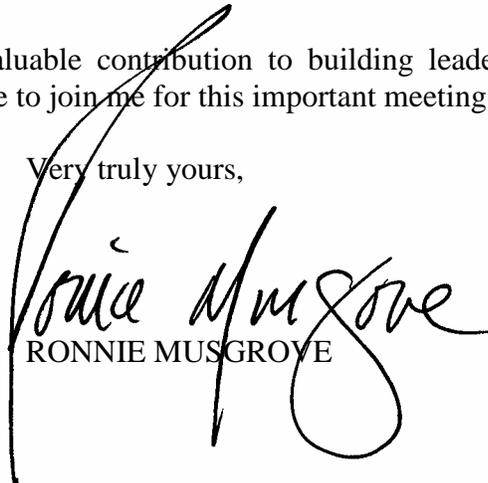

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

The Honorable Cecil Brown
Mississippi House of Representatives
1423 Roxbury Place
Jackson, Mississippi 39211

Dear Representative Brown:

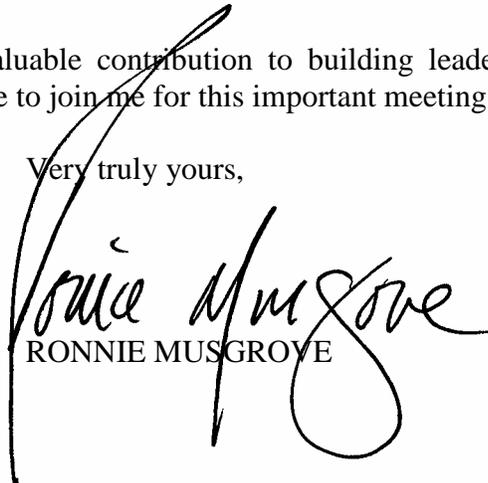

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

The Honorable Terry Burton
Mississippi Senate
P.O. Box 1018
Jackson, Mississippi 39215-1018

Dear Senator Burton:

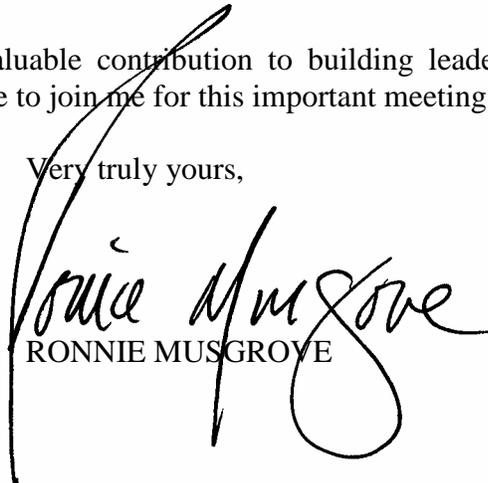

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

The Honorable Robert Smith
Mississippi Senate
1401 US Highway 49 South
Richland, Mississippi 39218

Dear Senator Smith:

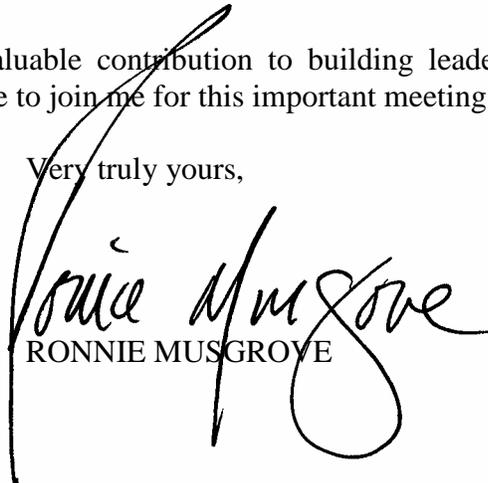

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Marty Wiseman
Mississippi State University
P.O. Drawer LV
Mississippi State, Mississippi 39762-5916

Dear Dr. Wiseman:

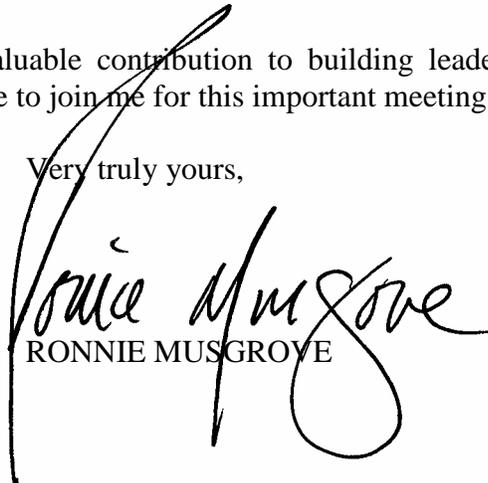

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Edwin Keith, Jr.
Mississippi State University
Box 5368
Mississippi State, Mississippi 39762

Dear Dr. Keith:

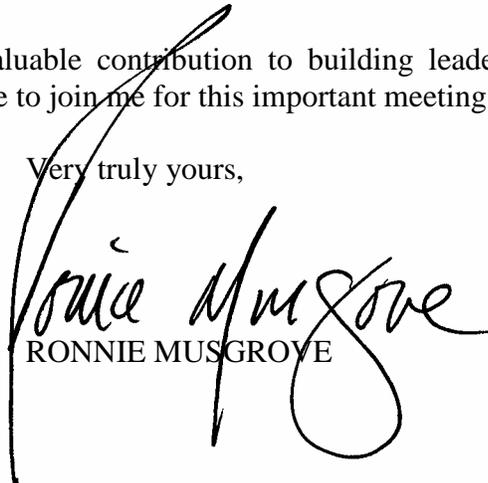

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Mary Margaret Roberts
Mississippi University for Women
P.O. Box W-1618
Columbus, Mississippi 39701

Dear Ms. Roberts:

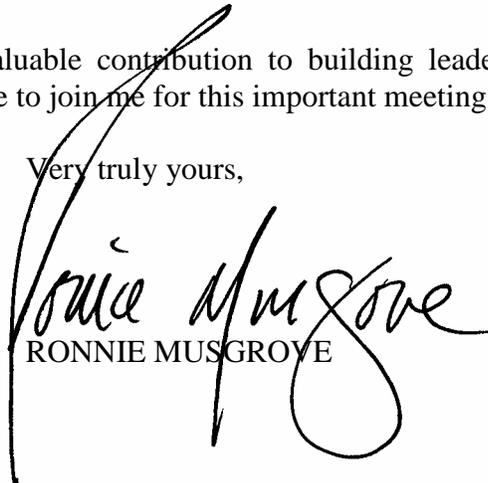

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Lester Newman
Mississippi Valley State University
14000 Highway 82 West
Itta Benna, Mississippi 38941-1400

Dear Dr. Newman:

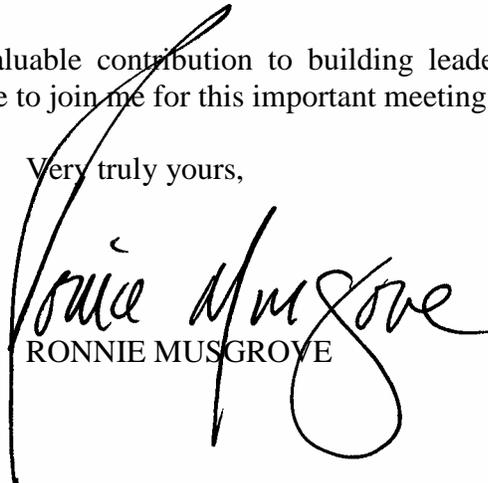

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Laura Godfrey
Natchez-Adams County Chamber of Commerce
211 Main Street
Natchez, Mississippi 39120

Dear Ms. Godfrey:

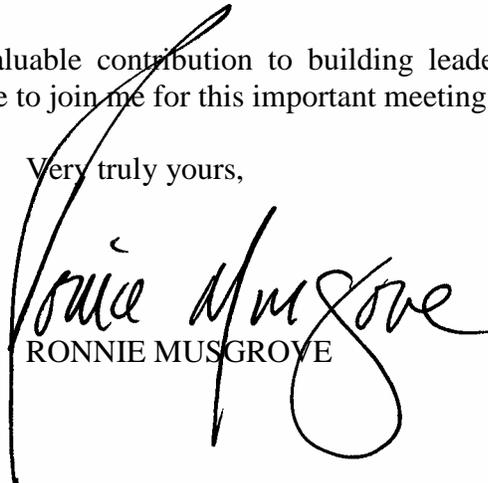

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Angela Anderson
Natchez-Adams County Chamber of Commerce
108 S. Commerce Street
Natchez, Mississippi 39120

Dear Ms. Anderson:

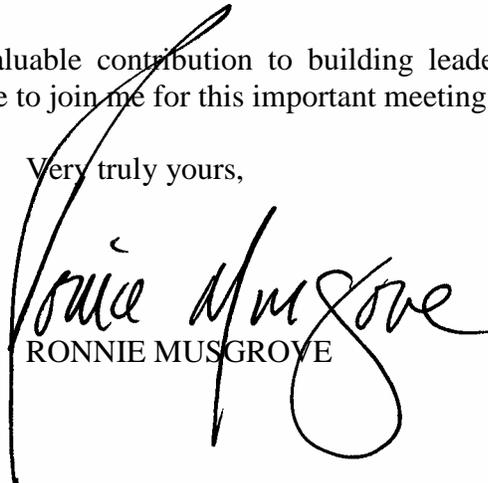

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Reverend Ronnie Crudup
New Horizon Church
2650 Belvedere Drive
Jackson, Mississippi 39212

Dear Reverend Crudup:

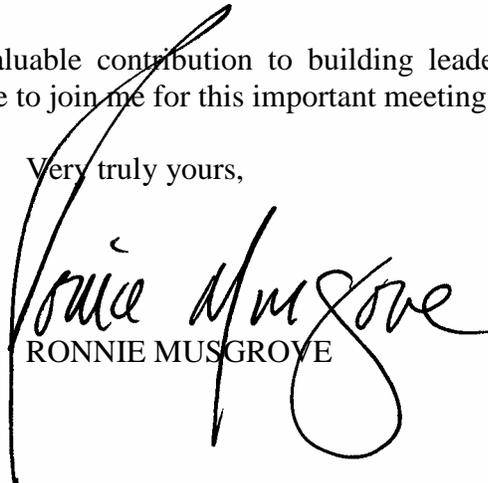

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Adell Brown
Mississippi Valley State University
14000 Highway 82W
Itta Bena, Mississippi 38941-1400

Dear Dr. Brown:

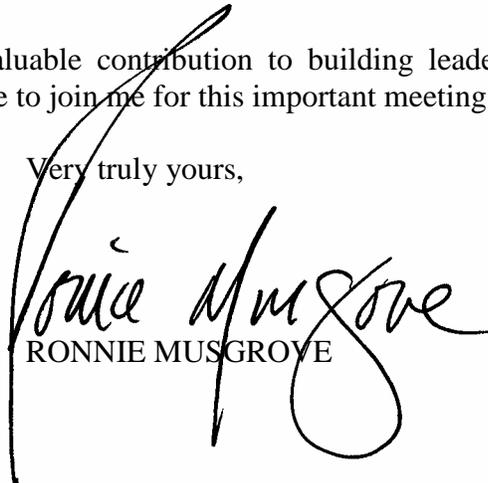

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Armerita Tell
Office of the Governor
P.O. Box 139
Jackson, Mississippi 39205-0139

Dear Ms. Tell:

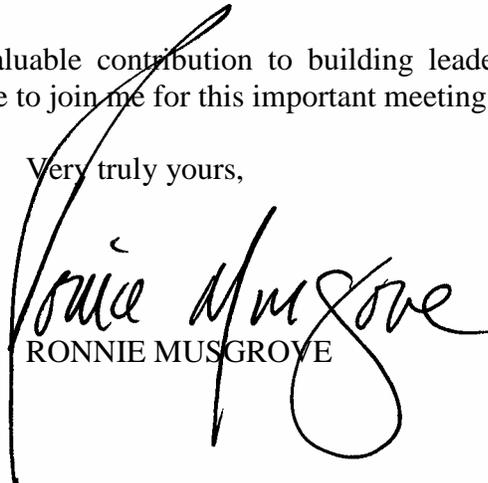

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Max Hipp
Oxford-Lafayette County Chamber of Commerce
299 W. Jackson Avenue
Oxford, Mississippi 38655

Dear Mr. Hipp:

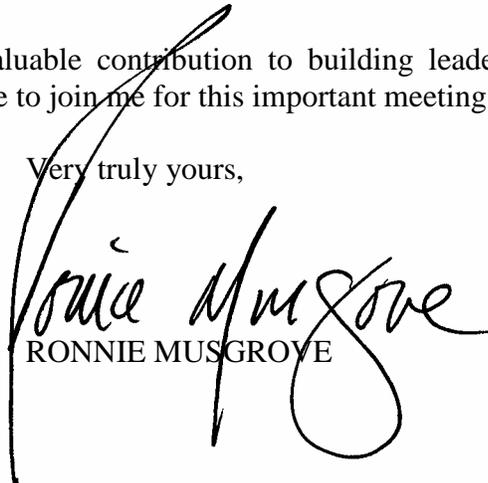

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Margaret Ann Fortenberry
Pro-Miss & Family Community Leadership
399 Jordan Road
Ellisville, Mississippi 39437

Dear Ms. Fortenberry:

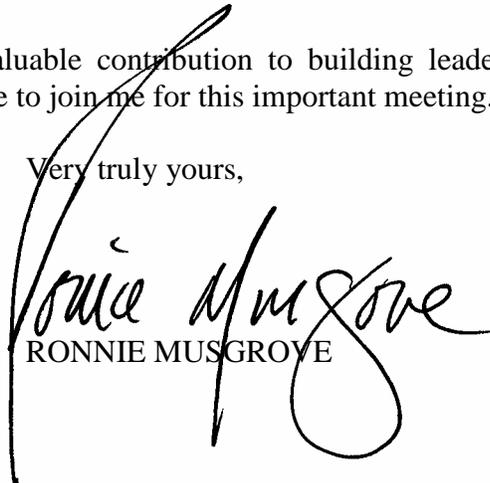

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Robert Jackson
Quitman County Development Organization
P.O. Box 386
Marks, Mississippi 38646

Dear Mr. Jackson:

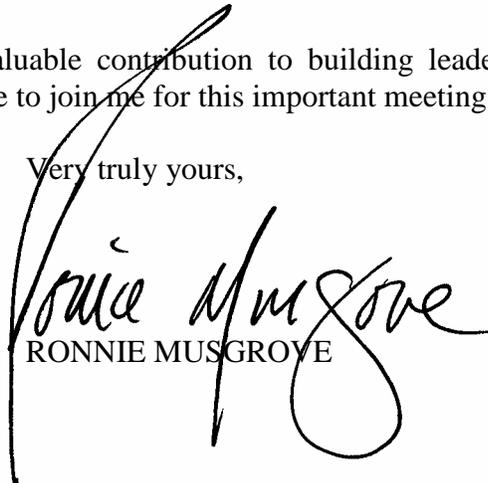

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Robin Robinson
Sanderson Farms, Inc.
P.O. Box 988
Laurel, Mississippi 39441-0988

Dear Ms. Robinson:

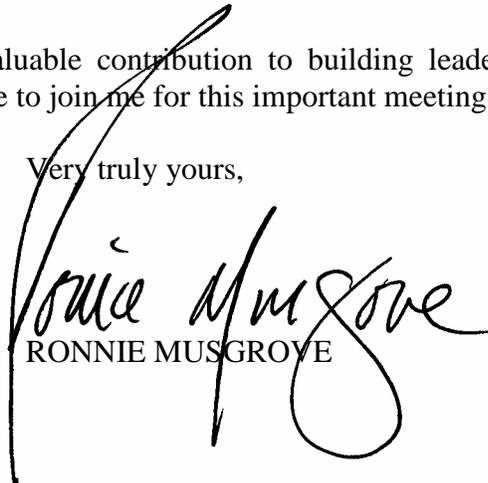

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Leslie Newcomb
Southern Mississippi Planning & Development District
9229 Highway 49
Gulfport, Mississippi 39503

Dear Mr. Newcomb:

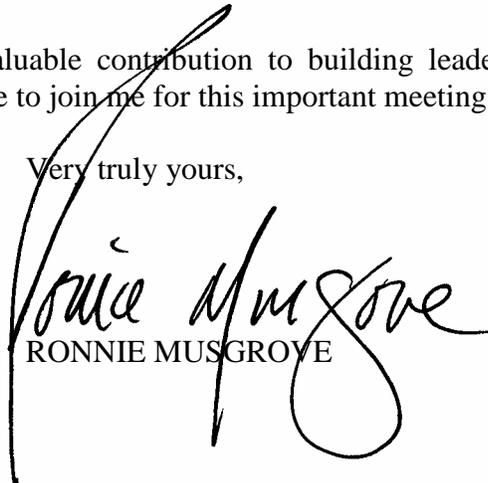

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Bo Beaulieu
Southern Rural Development Center
P.O. Box 9656
Mississippi State, Mississippi 39762-9656

Dear Dr. Beaulieu:

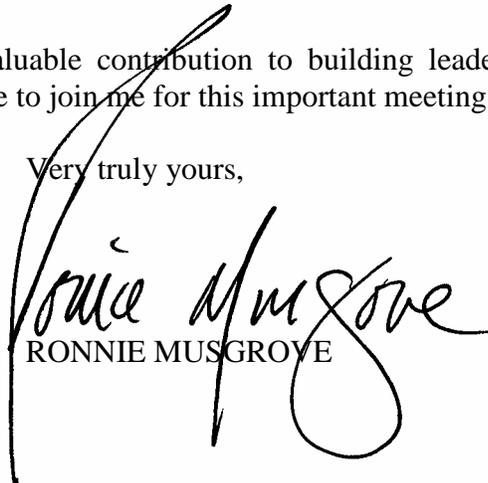

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. John Lovorn, Jr.
The PACE Group
P.O. Box 1502
Tupelo, Mississippi 38802

Dear Mr. Lovorn:

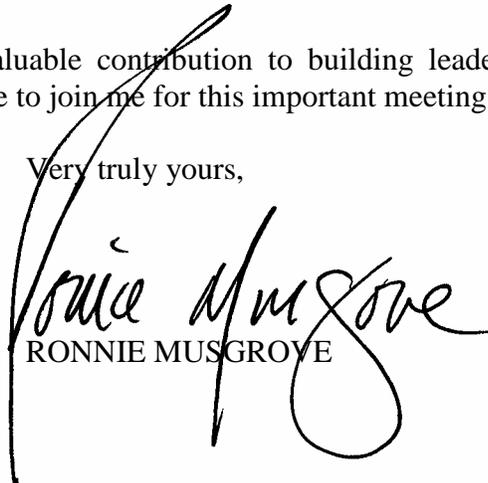

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Fred Alexander
Tougaloo College
500 West County Line Road
Tougaloo, Mississippi 39174

Dear Mr. Alexander:

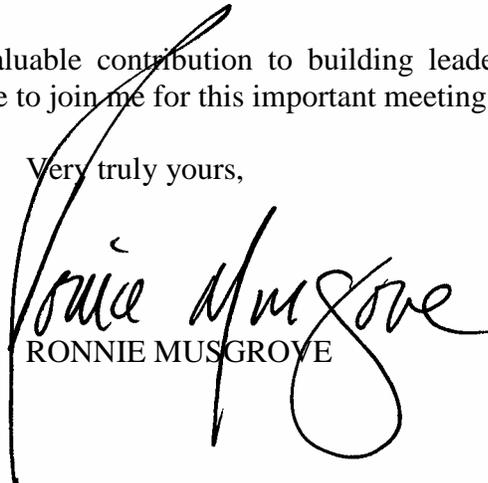

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Carol Burger
United Way of the Capital Area
P.O. Box 23169
Jackson, Mississippi 39225

Dear Ms. Burger:

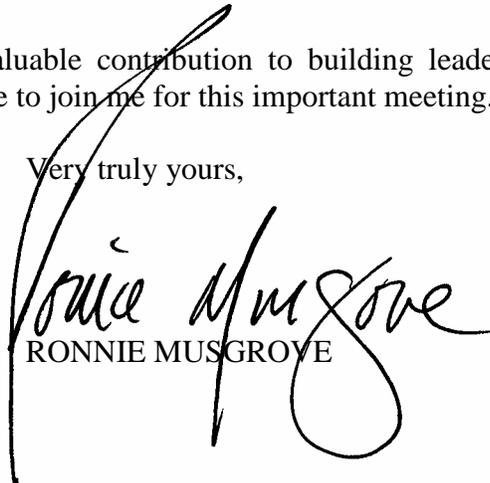

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Susan Glisson
University of Mississippi
P.O. Box 1848
University, Mississippi 38677-1848

Dear Dr. Glisson:

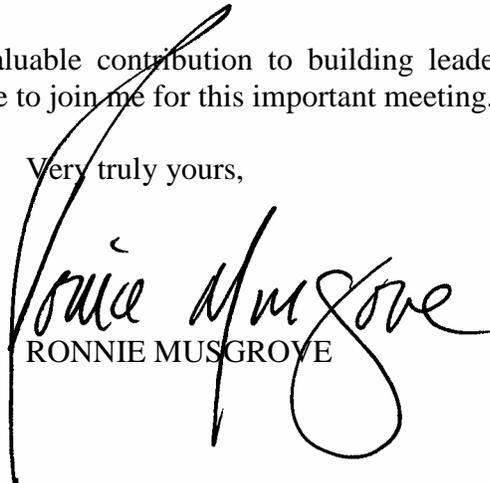

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Vaughn Grisham
George McLean Institute for Community Development
University of Mississippi
University, Mississippi 38677

Dear Dr. Grisham:

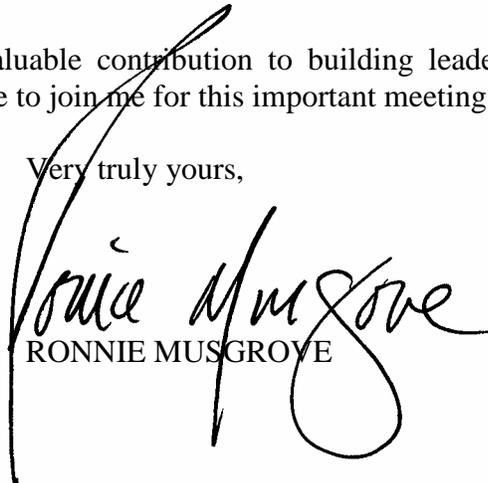

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Thomas Schnaubelt
University of Southern Mississippi
USM Box 5083
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39406

Dear Dr. Schnaubelt:

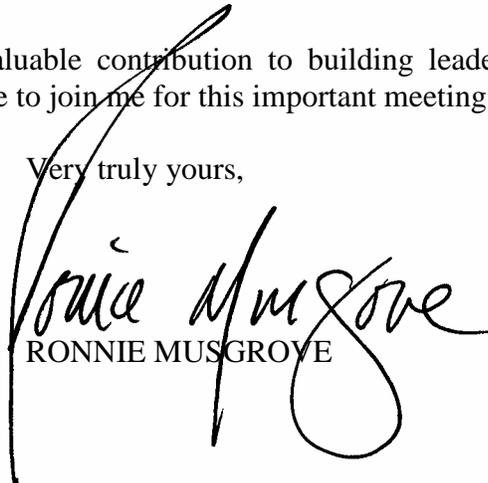

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Bill Sisson
University of Southern Mississippi
P.O. Box 5022
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39406-5022

Dear Mr. Sisson:

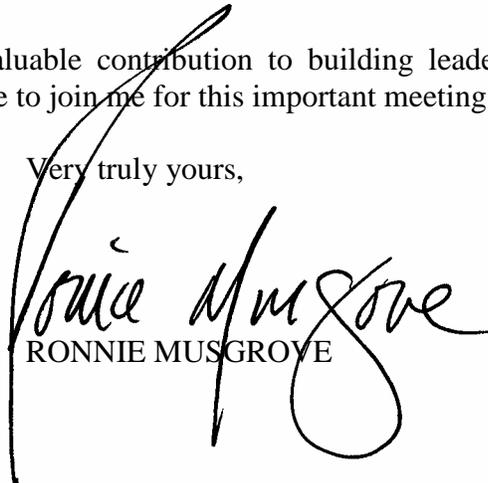

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Nick Walters
USDA - Rural Development
100 West Capitol Street, Suite 831
Jackson, Mississippi 39269

Dear Mr. Walters:

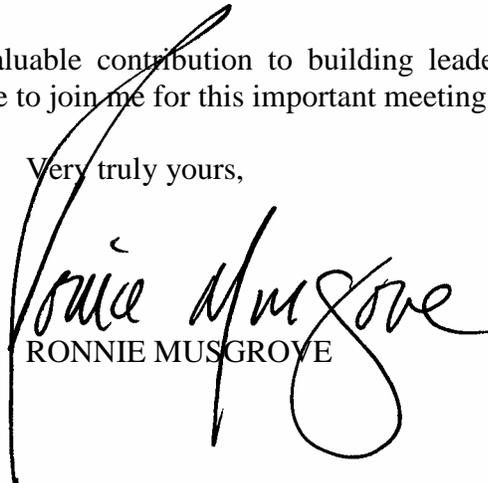

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Peggy Martin
Vicksburg/Warren County Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 709
Vicksburg, Mississippi 39181

Dear Ms. Martin:

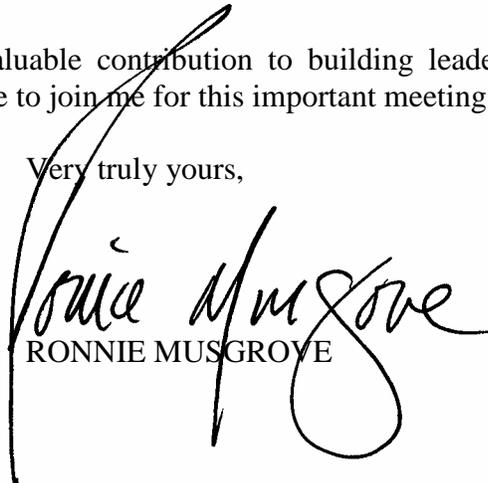

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

The Honorable William Winter
Watkins Ludlam Winter & Stennis, P.A.
P.O. Box 427
Jackson, Mississippi 39205-0427

Dear Governor Winter:

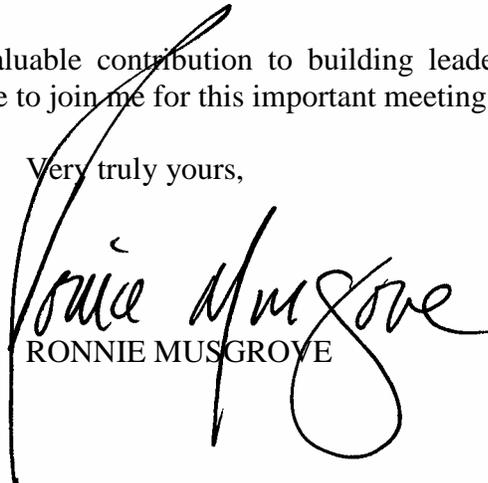

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Fran Bridges
Jackson State University
P.O. Box 17309
Jackson, Mississippi 39217

Dear Ms. Bridges:

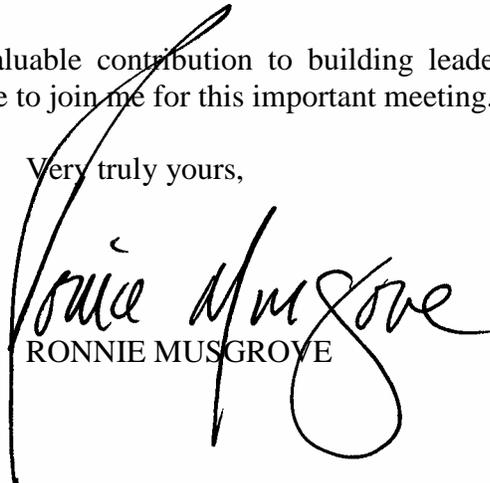

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Beverly Divers-White
Foundation for the Mid-South
308 East Pearl St.
Jackson, Mississippi 39201-3408

Dear Dr. Divers-White:

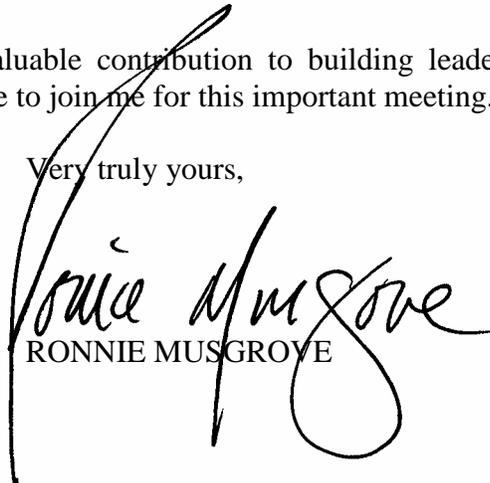

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. David Hampton
The Clarion-Ledger
P.O. Box 40
Jackson, Mississippi 39205-0040

Dear Mr. Hampton:

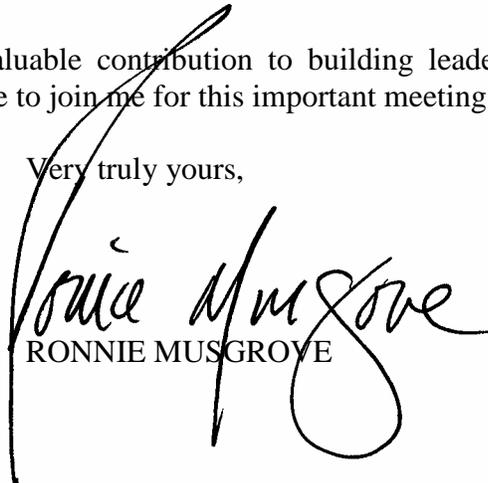

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Bill Hunsberger
The Clarion-Ledger
P.O. Box 40
Jackson, Mississippi 39205-0040

Dear Mr. Hunsberger:

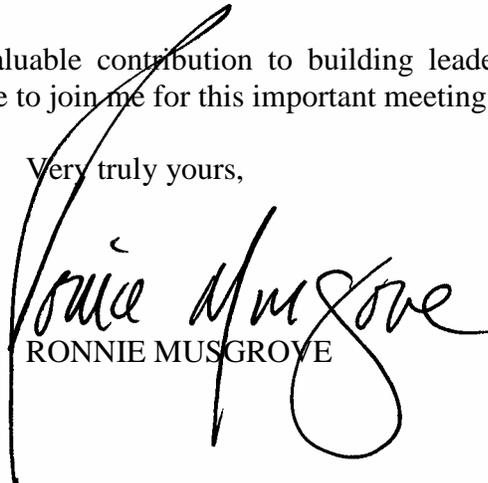

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Bob Kochpitzky
Mississippi 2020
Box 13506
Jackson, Mississippi 39236

Dear Mr. Kochpitzky:

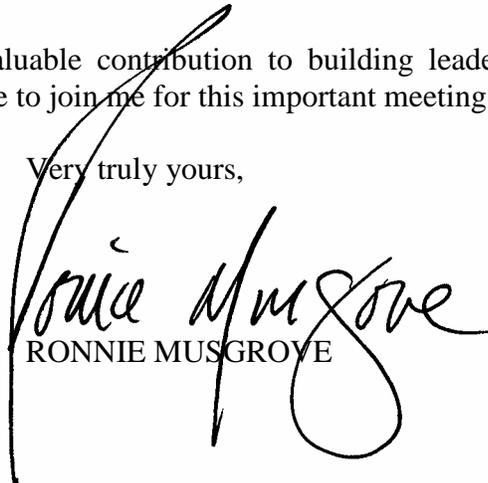

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. B.J. Lambert
Hattiesburg Area Education Foundation
P.O. Box 710
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39403-0710

Dear Mr. Lambert:

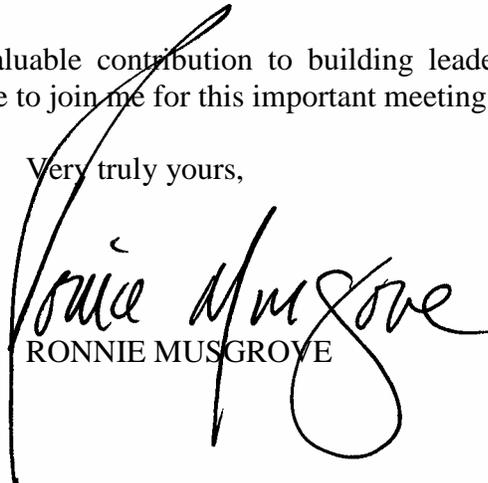

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Shawn McIntosh
The Clarion-Ledger
P.O. Box 40
Jackson, Mississippi 39205-0040

Dear Ms. McIntosh:

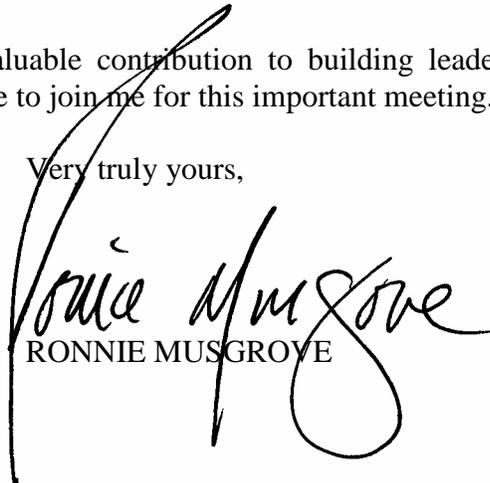

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Lee Meyer, Jr.
Community Foundation of East Mississippi
P.O. Box 5778
Meridian, Mississippi 39302

Dear Mr. Meyer:

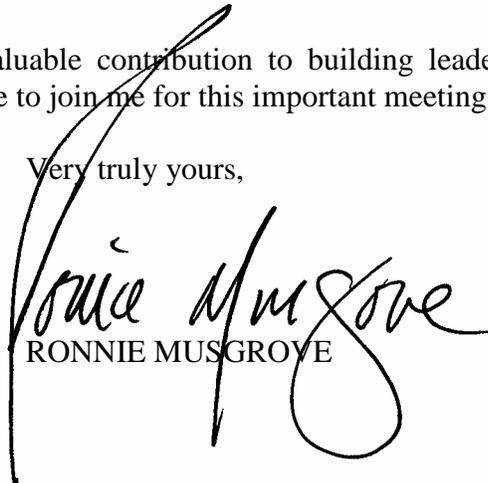

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Linda Montgomery
Greater Jackson Foundation
4500 I 55 North, Suite 258
Jackson, Mississippi 39211

Dear Ms. Montgomery:

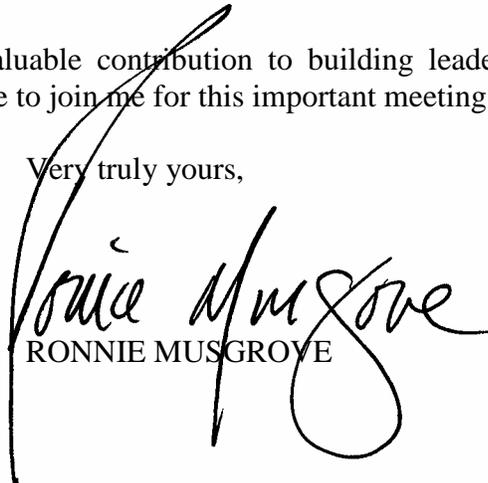

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Jason Reese
Appalachian Regional Commission
P.O. Box 1606
Tupelo, Mississippi 38802

Dear Mr. Reese:

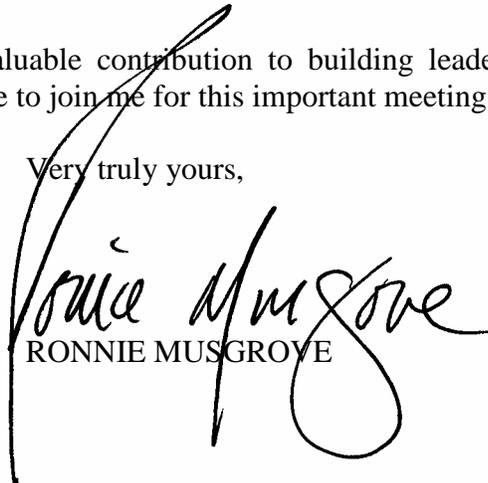

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Jerry Robinson
DSU Center for Community Development
P.O. Box 3134
Cleveland, Mississippi 38733

Dear Dr. Robinson:

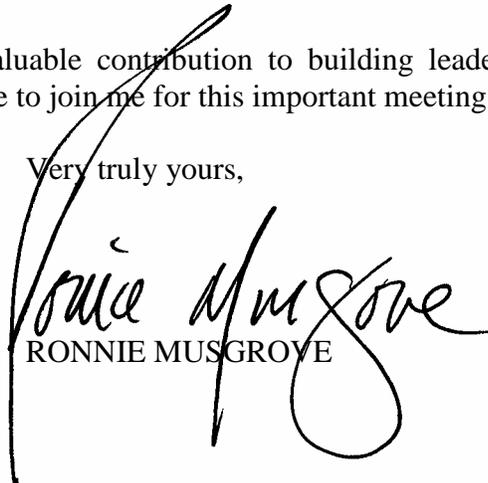

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Anne Stanberry
University of Southern Mississippi
Southern Station Box 5035
Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39406-5035

Dear Dr. Stanberry:

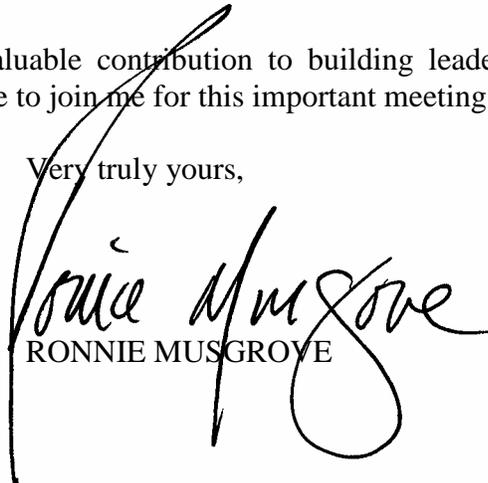

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Frances Lucas-Tauchar
Millsaps College
1701 N. State St.
Jackson, Mississippi 39201

Dear Dr. Lucas-Tauchar:

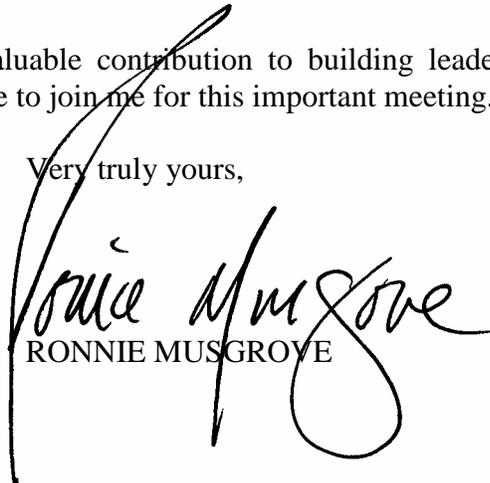

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. C. Thompson Wacaster
The Phil Hardin Foundation
P.O. Box 5533
Meridian, Mississippi 39302-5533

Dear Dr. Wacaster:

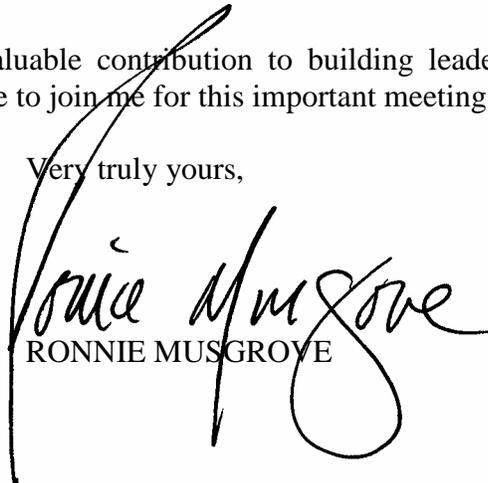

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Robert Khayat
University of Mississippi
123 Lyceum
University, Mississippi 38677

Dear Chancellor Khayat:

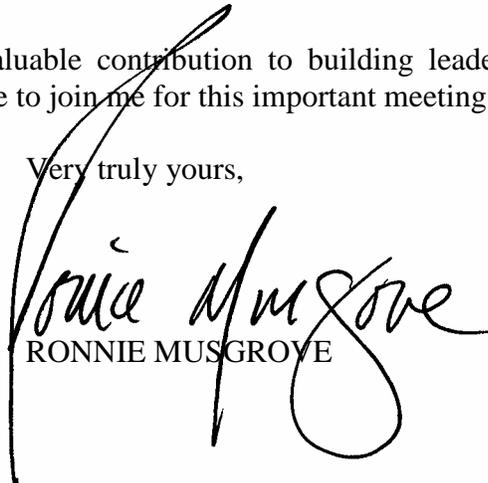

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Betty Byrd
BellSouth
P.O. Box 811
Jackson, Mississippi 39205

Dear Ms. Byrd:

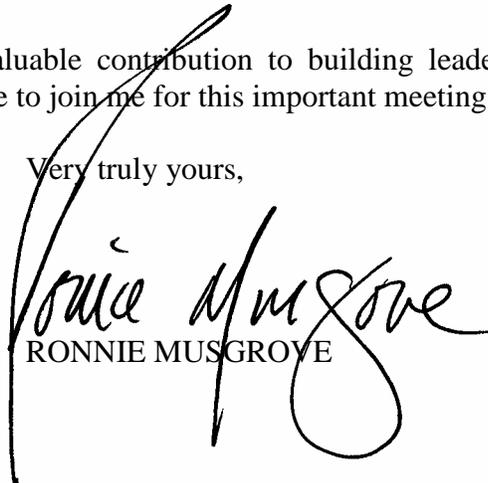

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Don Elder
Northeast Mississippi Planning and Development District
P.O. Box 600
Booneville, Mississippi 38829

Dear Mr. Elder:

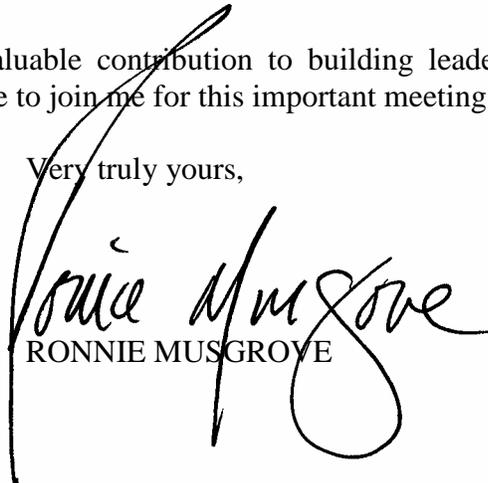

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Vernon Kelley, III
Three Rivers Planning and Development District
P.O. Box 690
Pontotoc, Mississippi 38863

Dear Mr. Kelley:

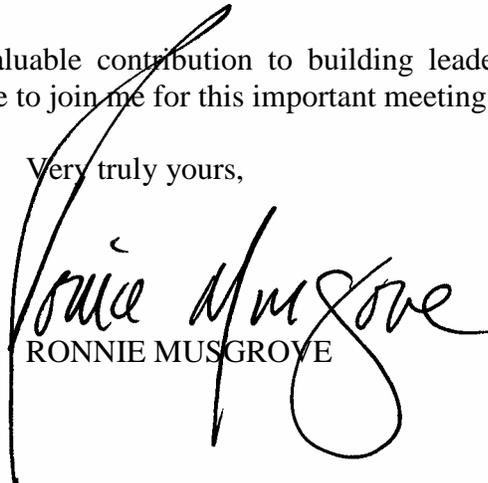

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Rudy Johnson
Golden Triangle Planning and Development District
P.O. Box 828
Starkville, Mississippi 39760-0828

Dear Mr. Johnson:

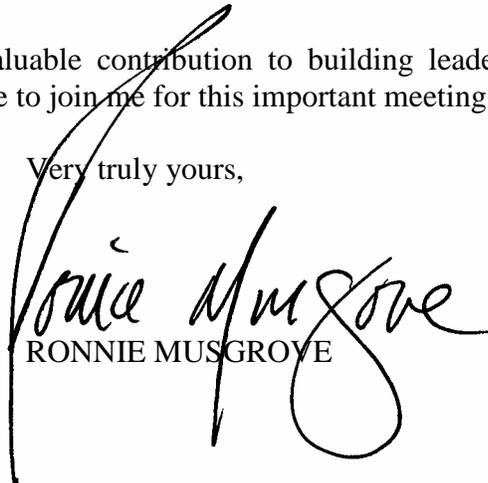

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Bill Richardson
East Central Mississippi Planning and Development District
P.O. Box 499
Newton, Mississippi 39345

Dear Mr. Richardson:

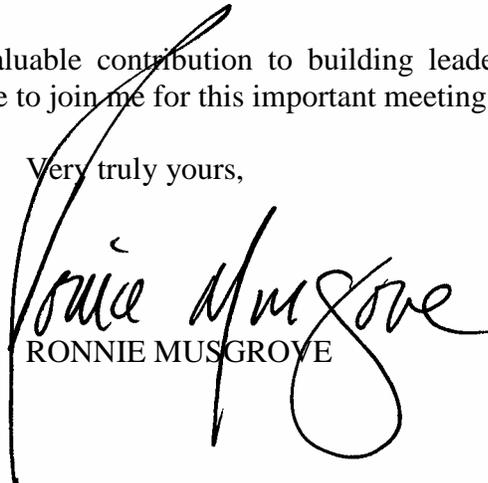

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Bob Williamson
North Central Planning and Development District
711 B South Applegate
Winona, Mississippi 38967

Dear Mr. Williamson:

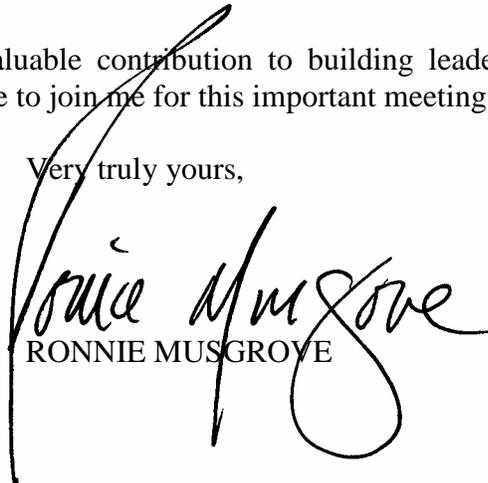

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Mr. Glen Brown
North Delta Planning and Development District
P.O. Box 1496
Batesville, Mississippi 38606-1496

Dear Mr. Brown:

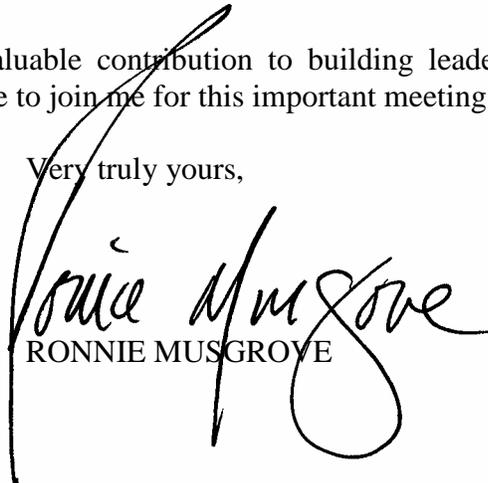

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Ms. Neva Greenwald
League of Women Voters
P.O. Box 4823
Jackson, Mississippi 39296

Dear Ms. Greenwald:

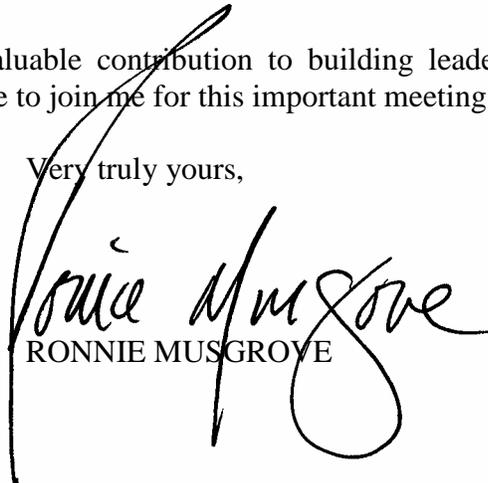

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. David Sheppard
Mississippi Association of School Superintendents
1775 Lelia Drive, Suite A
Jackson, Mississippi 39216

Dear Dr. Sheppard:

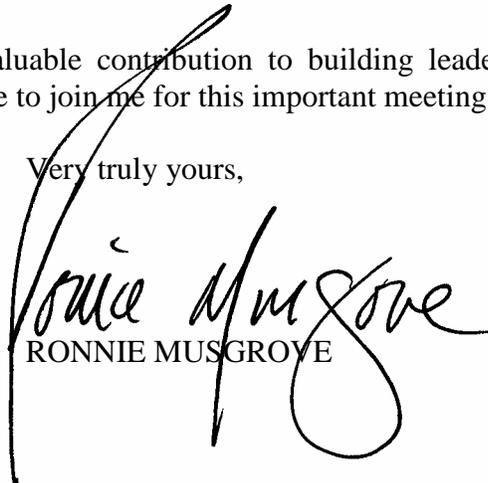

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 18, 2002

Dr. Mike Vinson
Mississippi Association of School Administrators
P.O. Box 645
Brandon, Mississippi 39043

Dear Dr. Vinson:

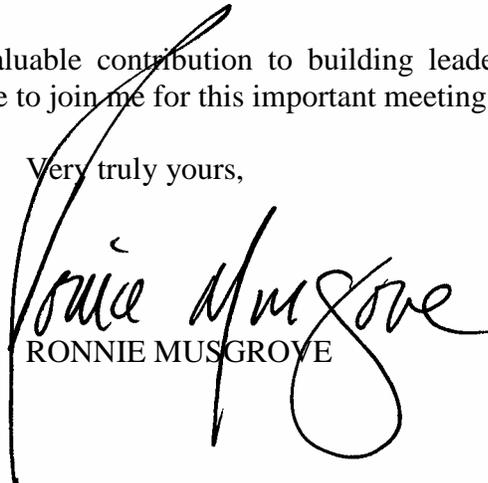

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

November 20, 2002

Mr. George Rummell, III, AICP
Mississippi Chapter of the American Planning Association
307 Garner Street
Oxford, Mississippi 38655

Dear Mr. Rummell:

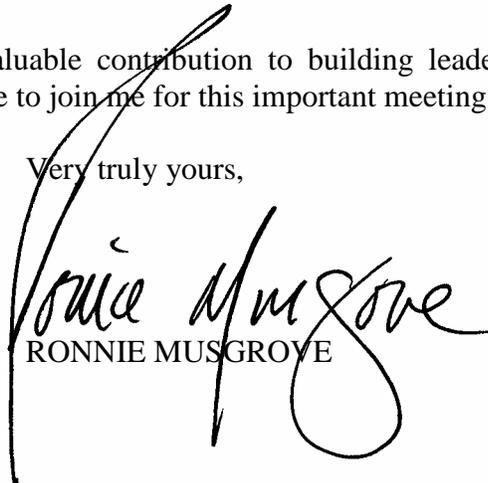

I would like to invite you to join me on December 10th to learn more about an exciting new approach to building community leadership in Mississippi. This gathering will introduce the LeadershipPlenty Training Program, an initiative of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change that is about mobilizing people from different backgrounds to work together to solve problems in their communities.

This initiative will build on my work to promote the importance of leadership development and civic engagement in my role as Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board. Southern Growth is engaged in a series of discussions with business, government, academic and non-profit leaders around the region on these key topics. The findings will be reflected in the 2003 Report on the Future of the South, to be released at Southern Growth's annual conference in Biloxi, Mississippi, June 1-3, 2003. I will highlight Mississippi's efforts in implementing LeadershipPlenty at the conference.

The December 10th luncheon meeting will take place from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Jackson, located at 200 East Amite Street. For questions regarding meeting logistics, please contact Sharon Siler of the Pew Partnership for Civic Change at 434-971-2073 or siler@pew-partnership.org. Please return the enclosed RSVP form by December 1st to let us know if you'll be able to attend.

Your organization can make a valuable contribution to building leadership in Mississippi and I hope that you will be able to join me for this important meeting.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM:klr
Enclosures

