
OFFICE OF GOVERNOR RONNIE MUSGROVE
INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: GOVERNOR
FROM: RILEY
SUBJECT: 9/17/02 SGPB'S LEADERSHIP FOR THE NEXT ECONOMY CONFERENCE
DATE 9/17/02
CC: FILE

This event is the Council on the Southern Community's fall retreat. The Council on the Southern Community will play a lead role in developing Southern Growth's 31st annual conference and its accompanying 2003 Report on the Future of the South, which, this year, will be focused on leadership development.

The following Mississippians are listed as attending the conference:

- Robin Robinson
- Vaughn Grisham, McClean Institute for Community Development at Ole Miss
- Derrill Pierce, Institute for Racial Reconciliation at Ole Miss (Pierce is one of your two appointments to the Council on the Southern Community. Armerita is your other appointment.)
- Jean Moore, Mississippi Arts Commission

You will be seated with the following at lunch:

- Jim Clinton
- Robin Robinson
- Suzanne Morse, President, Pew Partnership for Civic Change (Remember that The PSGPB is one of ten implementation partners to Pew for its new "Leadership Plenty" program, which consists of a set of materials that the Partnership has created to help communities develop grassroot leaders.)
- Jesse White, Federal Co-Chair, Appalachian Regional Commission
- John Hager, Assistant to the Governor and former Lt. Governor (VA) (Jim Clinton said that Hager is one of SGPB's strongest supporters)
- Martin Lehfeldt, President, Southeastern Council of Foundations
- Brenda Gullett, Arkansas Senate (and SGPB Board member)
- Paul Miller, North Carolina State Representative (and SGPB Board member)

Jack Sanders, President of SERVE (Southeastern Regional Vision for Education), is also scheduled to attend the retreat.
