

June 30, 2003

Dr. Larry Bailey, President
Mississippi Delta Community College
P.O. Box 668
Moorhead, Mississippi 38761-0668

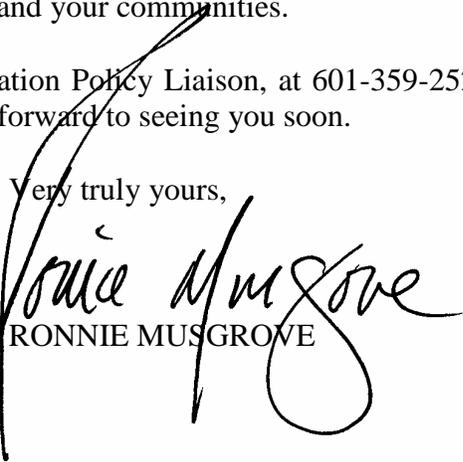

Dear Dr. Bailey:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. David Cole, President
Itawamba Community College
602 West Hill Street
Fulton, Mississippi 38843

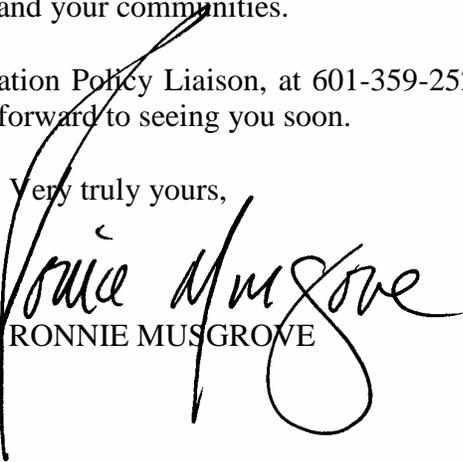

Dear Dr. Cole:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Charles Chance, President
Northeast Mississippi Community College
101 Cunningham Boulevard
Booneville, Mississippi 38829

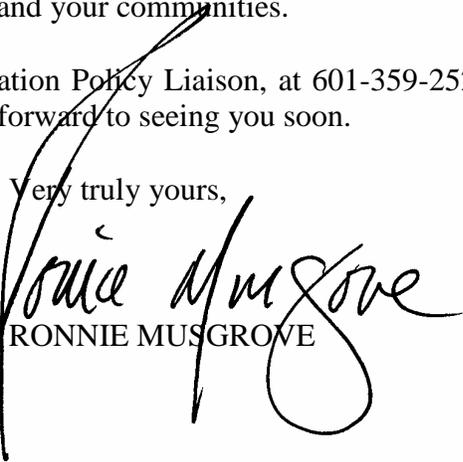

Dear Dr. Chance:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Thomas Davis, President
East Mississippi Community College
P.O. Box 188
Scooba, Mississippi 39358-0188

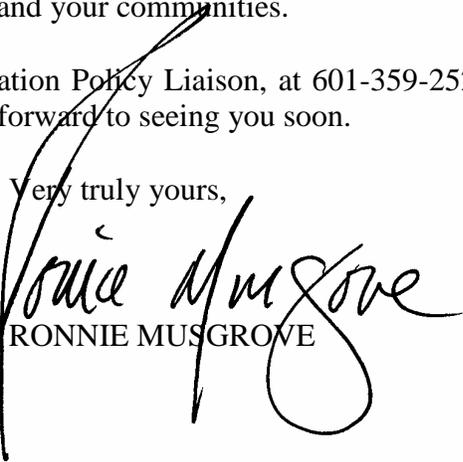

Dear Dr. Davis:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Scott Elliott, President
Meridian Community College
910 Highway 19 North
Meridian, Mississippi 39307

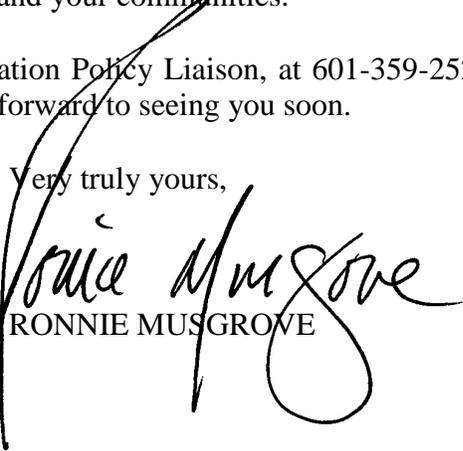

Dear Dr. Elliott:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Howell Garner, President
Copiah-Lincoln Community College
P.O. Box 457
Wesson, Mississippi 39191-0457

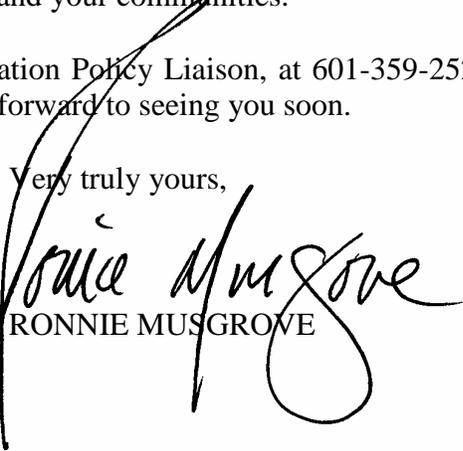

Dear Dr. Garner:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. David Haraway, President
Northwest Mississippi Community College
510 N. Panola Street
Senatobia, Mississippi 38668

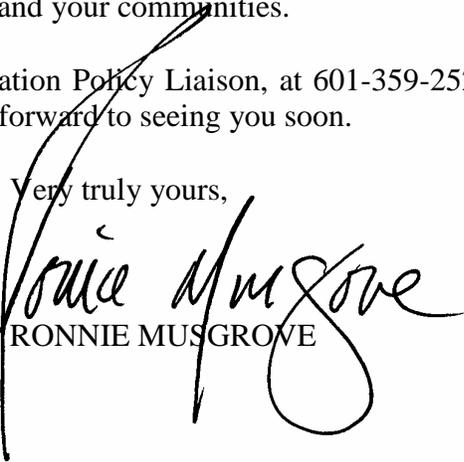

Dear Dr. Haraway:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Horace Holmes, President
Southwest Mississippi Community College
College Drive
Summit, Mississippi 39666

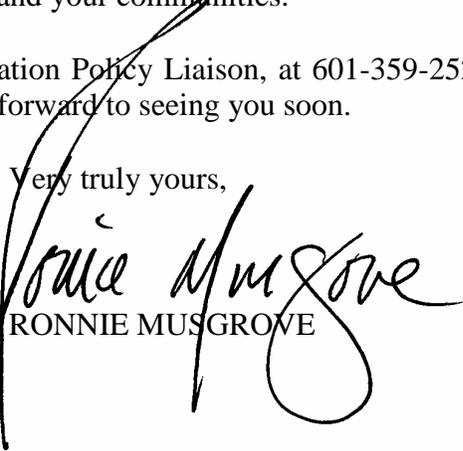

Dear Dr. Holmes:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. William Lewis, President
Pearl River Community College
P.O. Box 5090
Poplarville, Mississippi 39470

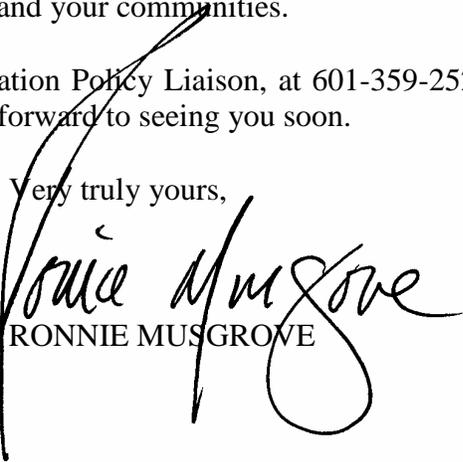

Dear Dr. Lewis:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Willis Lott, President
Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College
P.O. Box 609
Perkinston, Mississippi 39573

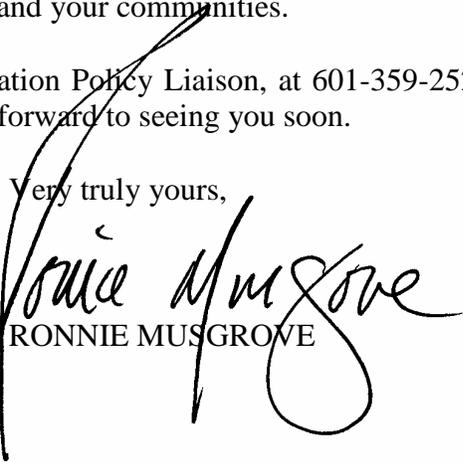

Dear Dr. Lott:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Starkey Morgan, President
Holmes Community College
P.O. Box 369
Goodman, Mississippi 39079-0369

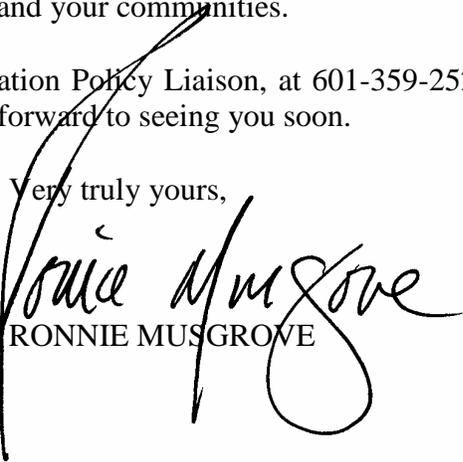

Dear Dr. Morgan:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Clyde Muse, President
Hinds Community College
P.O. Box 1100
Raymond, Mississippi 39154-1100

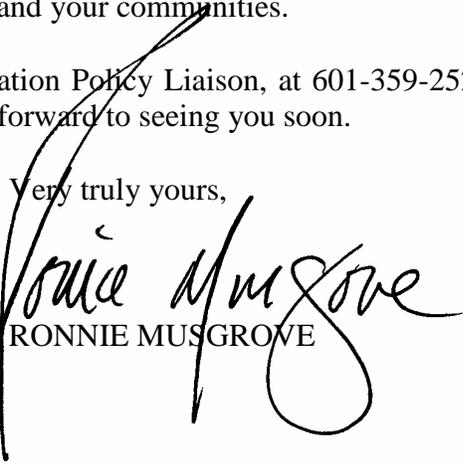

Dear Dr. Muse:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Vivian Presley, President
Coahoma Community College
3240 Friars Point Road
Clarksdale, Mississippi 38614

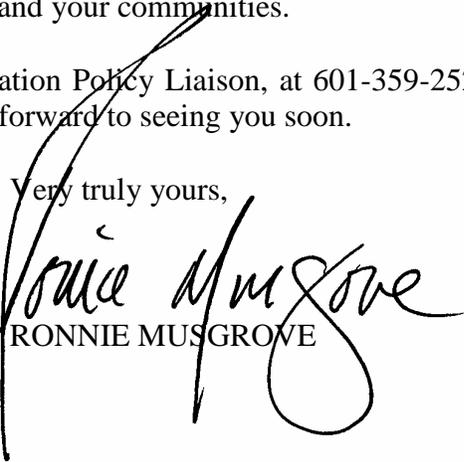

Dear Dr. Presley:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Phil Sutphin, President
East Central Community College
P.O. Box 129
Decatur, Mississippi 39327-0129

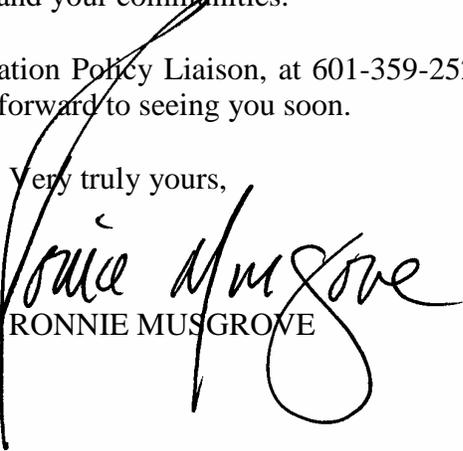

Dear Dr. Sutphin:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr

June 30, 2003

Dr. Ron Whitehead, President
Jones Junior College
900 Court Street
Ellisville, Mississippi 39437

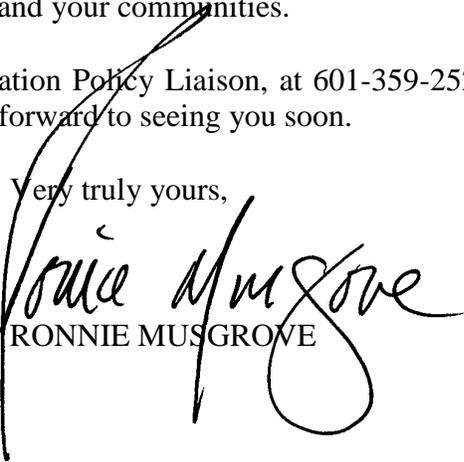

Dear Dr. Whitehead:

I am writing to invite you to join me for lunch at the Governor's Mansion on Tuesday, August 26, at 12:00 p.m.

The 2003 legislative session proved to be a historical one for education in Mississippi. We invested in education first and truly established it as a priority for our state. I feel that it is important to seek input from you and other educational leaders as we continue to look at ways in which we can increase opportunities for Mississippians. I look forward to having you over for good food and a good discussion of those items that are important to your students, your faculty and your communities.

Please notify Kelly Riley, my Education Policy Liaison, at 601-359-2528 if you will be able to accept this invitation. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/klr