

Mississippi is currently implementing a new assessment and accountability system to identify low performing schools. In addition, we expect full funding of a new school finance program in FY 04. Further, due to No Child Left Behind we are awaiting official guidance for implementation. If we can be of further assistance please contact me.