

May 6, 2002

Ms. Robin Whitfield
Mendenhall High School
207 Circle Drive
Mendenhall, Mississippi 39114

Dear Ms. Whitfield:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Mr. Christopher Taylor
1066 Highway 44 East
McComb, Mississippi 39648

Dear Mr. Taylor:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Sounnia Wallace
2178 Goodwill Loop SW
Brookhaven, Mississippi 39601

Dear Ms. Wallace:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Belinda Dammen
3510 Nathan Hale Avenue
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39581

Dear Ms. Dammen:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Sarah Purvis
600 Purvis Street
Wiggins, Mississippi 39577

Dear Ms. Purvis:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Jennifer Craft
P.O. Box 174
Raleigh, Mississippi 39153

Dear Ms. Craft:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Peggy Feinberg
Pascagoula High School
11716 Tucker Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39567

Dear Ms. Feinberg:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Rhonda Hariel
157 Slade Woodward Road
Poplarville, Mississippi 39470

Dear Ms. Hariel:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Peggy Hosey
Taylorsville Attendance Center
P.O. Box 8
Taylorsville, Mississippi 39168

Dear Ms. Hosey:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Mr. Aaron Brackett
750 Blue Meadow Road
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi 39520

Dear Mr. Brackett:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Diane Robinson
1740 Plumaria Drive
Gautier, Mississippi 39553

Dear Ms. Robinson:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Robin Weihing
1005 Ruland Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39581

Dear Ms. Weihing:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Dr. Keyland Tennyson
4007 Dunsinane
Ocean Springs, Mississippi 39564

Dear Dr. Tennyson:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Lanny Beery
1001 Sea Cove Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39581

Dear Ms. Beery:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Eleanor Baran
2203 Meadowbrook Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39567

Dear Ms. Baran:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Billie Jean Peters
College Park Elementary
2617 Ladnier Road
Gautier, Mississippi 39553

Dear Ms. Peters:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr

May 6, 2002

Ms. Mary Ellen Buford
College Park Elementary
2617 Ladnier Road
Gautier, Mississippi 39553

Dear Ms. Buford:

I want to thank you for writing me regarding the funding of education in Mississippi. I want to first assure you that education remains my top priority.

My office was required by state law to announce mandatory reductions to education funding this past February. It is the Legislature's responsibility to appropriate money, but the Governor is charged with "balancing the checkbook." I vetoed the budget last spring when it was passed by the Legislature because it was built on overly optimistic revenue projections.

Working together during this past legislative session, the Legislature and I reached common ground on several priorities that are important to the citizens of Mississippi, including educating our children, creating jobs and protecting our communities. The Legislature increased its initial budget recommendation for education to equal that of mine, which fully funds the teacher pay raise, funds the Adequate Education Program at its current level, and provides school supplies for our teachers. We have to give our schools and our teachers the tools for success, not unfunded mandates.

Thank you for sharing your thoughts regarding education funding with me. It is always encouraging to see our administrators' and teachers' support for their schools.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM: klr