Last spring when you met with Jane Dykes and other representatives of the Counselors Association, you told them you'd host a reception to honor Mississippi's 209 national board certified counselors. You'll remember that their request stemmed from their feelings that national board certified teachers were receiving all of the glory, while national board certified counselors were being overlooked.

I have asked Jill to put a tentative hold on Wednesday, September 18, from 4:00-5:30 p.m. for you to host such a reception. I'm checking to see if the large conference room downstairs is available for that time. We would serve cake and punch just as we do at the National Board Certified teachers' reception. You would be out of there by 5:30 for your dinner (tentative at this time) at the mansion that evening with Ben and Kay Kay Smith.

May I confirm Wednesday, September 18, from 4:00-5:30 p.m. on your calendar for this reception to honor the national board certified counselors?
