

Details on education events for Friday, January 24, 2003.

(Names in bold indicate person Kelly spoke to in making arrangements.)

Time	Group	Location	Contact	Phone	Purpose	Schools
Friday, January 24
8:00 - ???	Natchez: Economic Development Matters
11:45 - 1:00	MACE Workforce Development Lunch	Greenville Higher Education Center 2900 A Highway 1 South, G'ville	C.J. Jones	662-335-3523
	Governor will speak for about 20 minutes beginning at 12:30. The topic is the importance of workforce training and education (in general) to the economic viability of the Delta.
1:15 - 2:15	Greenville HS	Greenville High School 419 E. Robertshaw, Greenville	Dr. Arthur Cartledge, S Mr. Taylor, Prin.	662-334-7000 662-334-7062	Walk thru
2:30 - 3:15	Rep. Hines meeting	Greenville Higher Education Center 2900 A Highway 1 South, G'ville	Rep. John Hines	662-822-0476 (cell)
	Rep. Hines is organizing this meeting with local officials and business leaders to discuss the recent announcement by a local manufacturer that they will be closing March 1. 200 employees will lose jobs. Beyond this, they want to discuss overall prospects for economic development in their region.
3:30 - 4:30	After school program	Delta Horizon Program (Grvl Pub Sch 21st Cent Lrng Grant) Manning Elementary 430 Highway 1 North, Greenville	Linda Hewes	662-428-1306 (cell) 662-334-7116 (main school number)
	This 21st Century Learning Grant site serves 45 students in K-6.
4:45 - 5:45	Leland Town Hall	Leland HS Auditorium 403 E. Third St., Leland	Dr. Ilean Richards, Spt	662-686-5000	Talk edu $$$	Washington, Sharkey, Humphreys, Bolivar, S'flwr
7:00 - 8:00	Brief Remarks at Election Commissioners Association's Annual Convention					