INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: GOVERNOR
FROM: RILEY
SUBJECT: LOGISTICS FOR MS ASSOCIATION OF SUPERINTENDENTS' LUNCHEON ON THURSDAY,
JULY 10, 2003, AT BEAU RIVAGE
DATE 7/9/03
CC: FILE

This memo is for informational purposes only.

You speak to the MS Association of School Superintendents' summer conference tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. at the Beau Rivage. Dale Sheppard and Dale Sullivan anticipate approximately 550 superintendents, administrators (the Alliance of Educational Leaders is meeting in conjunction with the superintendents) and vendors at the luncheon. The luncheon agenda is as follows:

11:30 Plated lunch is served. You are seated at head table with Dr. David Sheppard, Dr. Dale Sullivan, Thomas Prine, Reggie Barnes, Dr. Kay Clay (Supt, Forrest County Schools), Dr. Sam Bounds, Stacey Pickering (lobbyist for Howard Industries), General Elton Berry and General Jim Lipscomb)

As soon as dessert is served, David Sheppard will intro Gen. Lipscomb for brief remarks.

Lipscomb gives remarks and sits

Thomas Prine introduces you. His introduction will include footage from your challenge to the Legislature during the State of the State to invest in education first.

You speak for approximately 15 minutes. You sit and David Sheppard takes podium to thank you for your service and leadership.

David Sheppard then presents Stacey Pickering of Howard Industries an award Howard's corporate support.

Lunch adjourns.

I AM DRIVING TO THE COAST TONIGHT AND WILL MEET YOU AT THE BEAU WHEN YOU ARRIVE.
