CC: FILE

Amy McMahan has requested a letter of support from you for David Teske's nomination to USA Today's All-USA Teacher Team. According to Amy, Mr. Teske has taught both Jordan and Carmen Rae. He teaches science at Chastain. USA Today will select 20 teachers from throughout the United States for this honor. The teacher will receive a trophy and their school will receive a $2,500 cash award. Selected teachers will be invited to join the All-USA Teacher Team Network so they can serve as a resource for one another.

The applications are due this Friday. I am attaching a letter of support for your signature should you decide that you want to provide such a letter in order to save time. Thanks!
