

BROADCAST VOICEMAIL – MS WOMEN’S CONFERENCE 2003
(scheduled for recording on Monday, March 10, at 10:30am – Capitol office)

Building wealth, starting a business, continuing your education, and mastering the digital divide – these are just a few of the topics scheduled for discussion during the 2003 Mississippi Women’s Conference.

This is Governor Ronnie Musgrove. On Monday, March 17, the Mississippi Women’s Conference will hold its eighth annual meeting, celebrating Women’s History Month and the achievements of Mississippi women who have given so much of their time, spirit and commitment to our state. We are also proud to welcome Myrlie Evers-Williams as our keynote speaker.

For more information, contact my office at 359-3150, and mark your calendars now for this important conference. Thank you.
