

For Immediate Release

November 1, 2001

Contact: John Sewell

601-359-2916

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove released the following statement today regarding the special session of the Mississippi Legislature:

“The Legislature is responsible for drawing four new congressional districts, and I know they take that responsibility seriously. I understand both houses have passed plans today, and I’m confident they will work together to reach a decision. This is something that should not be decided in a federal court.”