

For Immediate Release

December 17, 2002

Contact: John Sewell

601-359-2916

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove released the following statement today following the resignation of Janice Broome Brooks as executive director of the Mississippi Department of Human Services:

“Janice Broome Brooks has served Mississippi with distinction and pride. She returned to her home state to dedicate herself to improving the quality of life of our children and families. Her leadership of the Department of Human Services during a difficult time is appreciated, and we wish her well.”

###