

July 6-8, 2001

Dear Friends:

As Governor of Mississippi, I am privileged to extend a very special welcome to all friends and family in attendance at the 15th Biennial Nero-Moore Family reunion. All Mississippians are honored that you have chosen, “The Hospitality State”, as the place to gather and reunite your family.

Family reunions are very special. They remind us of our ancestors, our common heritage and kinships that transcend both time and place. I hope you enjoy your time here in Mississippi and create many treasured memories and friendships that will last a lifetime.

As each of you face the future, I hope you will draw strength from your family and from that part of your common heritage that will be forever and indelibly a part of Mississippi. Best wishes on many more wonderful years together.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE

RM/kfg