Inmate Dies at University Medical Center

Jackson – State inmate James E. Landers #R2627A, died of apparent natural causes Tuesday night at the University Medical Center. Landers, a 35-year-old white male, was convicted in Rankin and Hinds counties of residential burglary and armed robbery and was serving a 10-year sentence. An autopsy will be performed on inmate Landers' body in accordance with state law to determine the exact cause of his death.
