NOECRC Courses

Click the link below for the latest course schedule.

<http://www.noecrc.ctc.com/courses.htm>

These courses are at no cost to the attending student or organization. The Department of Defense (DoD) has prepaid for those wanting to become suppliers to the DoD.

The New Orleans ECRC provides a wide range of educational training in Electronic Commerce (EC) designed to help businesses meet today's information challenges. Our courses span four areas of specialization:

- * Internet, new business medium
- * Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), the way we move data between businesses
- * Electronic Commerce, how business processes are accomplished
- * Special Topics designed to meet the specific needs of an organization

We stand ready to assist you in meeting your information challenges and we are ready to customize course material to meet your specific business needs.
Please examine our course offerings and contact us for assistance in any EC area.
