I know you will not read this because I am white person and I don't count. I am so upset with this whole stupid flag issue. YOU are not listening to Everyone. Just the little group call themselves the NAACP. If we change OUR flag, we should have change all state flags. You know I find the NAACP offensive, but you will do nothing about that because I am White AMERICAN. We voted you in office because we thought you would do the right thing by listening to all of your people of the state, not just the ones who have to start trouble. Do any of you see what they are doing? You are making me a racist, and so is the NAACP. I have never felt this much anger until now, when you and every black person who wants to change our history. I mean this is YOUR State. You should be proud of its heritage and not want to change its history for no reason what so ever. But everyone sees how you feel about our state. Anyone who hates our flag has the option to leave, and that should also include anyone in our government too. Just think of all the history we will have to be changeing. But of course it will look WONDERFUL for you because YOUR NAME along with other morans will be in my future childrens history books (THE GOVERNOR who changed our state flag for the little minority people.) You should feel so proud yourself. We are all trying to sign petitions to get a vote for the flag on a ballet. This is what we have to do. Now the NAACP, all they have to do is cry and threaten to act like the animals that they are, and you will listen to them. But us good southern people who try to do things right, we get dumped on. I just wish you would listen to everyone! We have a beautiful state flag, it doesn't need be changed, you are just scared and you have no backbone to stand up the NAACP people. Boy are we glad to have you as a governor. Next time when I vote again, I will pay closer attention to those fake smiles and unconcerned eyes when you ask to please Vote for me, I am here for you. Yea right, not unless we are black.
