Message: Dear Governor Musgrove,
I am emailing you in reference to my Mother's 100th Birthday on November 7,2001.

I am a 30 year Mississippian, and I would like to ask you to please send my Mother a Card or some memento for her Centurian Birthday.
She was born and raised in Mississippi, and loves the state but now lives in Tennessee.

Her family is having her an Open House for her Centurian Birthday on November 10th, from 1-5 PM.

Her actual birthday is November 7th, but due to the inconvenience of all of the Family from distant areas we have planned on having her Celebration on the 10th of November.

I hope that I am not too late contacting you, however, with the dire concern for our nation and my Mothers age I have waited until now to contact you. Her health is fair, she is able to see, and can her hearing not good, but for her age her health is pretty good. She has a fantastic memory and relates to me of her early years growing up in Cotton Plant , Mississippi.

It would mean a lot to receive a card or some other Memento for her 100th Birthday.
Thank you so much, Governor Musgrove.

Her address is Mrs. Roma B. McAlpin
 202 Dogwood Drive
 Middleton, Tennessee
 38052

Thank you in advance:

Mrs. Joyce Bass
