(1) (a) The board of supervisors shall have the power, in its discretion, to employ counsel by the year at an annual salary at an amount that it deems proper, not to exceed the maximum annual amount authorized by law for payment to a member of the board.

(c) The board of supervisors shall have the power, in its discretion, to pay= =20
reasonable compensation to attorneys who may be employed by it in the matter= =20

=20
connection therewith. In no instance shall the attorney's fee for the= =20 of the issue in excess of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00). The= =20

limitations imposed in this paragraph shall not apply to any bond issue for= =20
which a declaration to issue the bonds has heretofore been adopted by proper= =20

=20
=20

(d) This subsection shall not in anyway amend or repeal or otherwise affect= =20
subsection (2) of this section, but this subsection shall remain in full= =20
force and effect. =20 =20
=20

(2) The board of supervisors of any county, in addition to the authority= =20
conferred upon it in subsection (1) of this section, may employ, in its= =20
discretion, a firm of attorneys to represent it as its regular attorneys on= =20

=20
attorney for the board. =20
