Message: I voted for you, and now I am saddened. I do not understand why you chose not to give the 5% payraise to our teachers. Do you feel they get paid enough, or to much? What price can you put on education? If you get rid of the good teachers, what does our state have left? We are already at the bottom. What is what is going to happen if our state does not even pay teachers half of what they are worth? Teachers go into this profession not to make money but do what is in their hearts. They have a true calling. Every teacher does not go into this profession thinking they will be rich, but they do have to keep up with today's economy. Did you know that you got your position by having a good education?

I must admit that I "crashed" your campaign party on the night of elections. I was there, not because of elections, but I was there as a registered voter. I had to serve 18 months in the Federal Grand Jury. We just happened to be there on that particular Tuesday night. I had an overwhelming feeling of pride when I walked into the hotel; I was so proud. I saw and read all that you stood for and read how you believed in the public school system. That is why I voted for you. That night I was so proud. Now I wonder if it was just a political ploy to become the Governor. Please tell me that you are going to fight for our future leaders of Mississippi. We need another William Winter in office.

Losing My Mississippi Pride,
Joanna Wilson
