

Mississippi Development Authority
P. O. Box 849
Jackson, MS 39205

Contact: Sherry Vance
601.359.3449

Date: April 15, 2002

MEDIA ALERT

WHAT: The Mississippi Development Authority (MDA) hosts a seminar to educate the public about the Rural Renewal Community Program and what it means to Adams, Claiborne and Jefferson counties.

WHEN: Monday, April 22, 2002, at 2:00 p. m.

WHERE: Natchez Convention Center, Natchez, MS

WHO: Staff members from MDA, the Internal Revenue Services, Central Mississippi Planning and Development District, and Housing and Urban Development

WHY: With the Rural Renewal Community designation from the U.S. Department of HUD comes a package of tax incentives that may be used to encourage economic and industrial growth in those designated communities. Detailed information about the tax incentives, including real estate and capital gains taxes, will be discussed.

“This is very important to all the existing business in the area,” said Henry Cote, Community Services Division of MDA. “Anybody from the smaller businesses to the largest employer will benefit from the seminar.”

Business and industry leaders, CPA firms and financial specialists are encouraged to attend.

###